FIFTY-SECOND YEAR LINCOLN, NEB., FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 20, 1954 FIVE CENTS

EISENHOWER: PRAY FOR PEACE

—Pensions Next—

Major Issues Cleared

Congress To Quit Today, Leaders Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congress sped anti-Communist legislation and a $5,243,575,795 foreign aid bill to President Eisenhower Thursday and all but cleared its decks of major controversies.

Leaders predicted the national Legislature would adjourn Friday.

The only big stumbling block remaining was a measure to expand and liberalize old age pensions under social security. Senate-House conferees planned to meet Friday morning to try anew to iron out differences.

The major issue on this bill is whether to bring 3,600,000 farm operators and 500,000 professional people into the system, as asked by the administration. The House voted largely to go along with the administration, but the Senate declined.

Retirement

The Senate, working at night as it has done for some time, passed along to the White House a bill to raise retirement and unemployment benefits of railroad workers by an estimated 82 million dollars a year.

During the day, there had been some talk the Congress might wind up Thursday night. But the House recessed at 4:02 p.m., CST, until noon Friday when it became clear that the Senate could not perform all its chores Thursday evening.

Through busy hours Thursday the House and Senate had gotten a lot of things out of the way, including some of the major barriers to adjournment.

What had threatened to be a big hurdle — how to write an anti-Communist bill acceptable to nearly everybody — was settled with comparative ease.

Votes of 79-0 in the Senate and 265-2 in the House sent President Eisenhower a bill that would strip the Communist party of its legal rights and declare that individual Communists could be handled under the Security Act of 1950.

Foreign Aid

The foreign aid controversy died away as a compromise sailed through the House 188-77 and through the Senate without a tally. Only Sen. Langer (R-ND) announced he was opposed to it.

The bill would provide $5,243,575,795 to bolster non-Communist nations, with emphasis on military rather than economic aid. The total includes $2,781,499,816 in new money, the rest being leftover funds from previous years.

Along with major legislative achievements Thursday, there were these other developments:

Death Penalty

The House completed congressional action on a bill to strip U.S. nationality from Americans convicted of advocating overthrow of the government by force.

Similar action sent President Eisenhower a bill providing for the death penalty, in the discretion of juries, for peacetime espionage or sabotage.

The House dispatched to the White House a bill to put reserve officers in the military services on the same promotion basis as regulars.

The Senate likewise had adjournment fever. It passed in less than five minutes three complicated bills that ran a total length of 452 pages.

Sen. Butler (R-Md) obtained the super-speed action by explaining that the three bills merely codified and brought up-to-date a batch of existing laws dealing with crime, the census, foods, drugs and cosmetics.

15 Missing Fliers Said To Be Alive

Washington Says They Are Political Captives

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Thursday for the first time announced that 15 American airmen missing in the Korean War are known to be alive and charged that they are being held as "political prisoners" by the Chinese Communists.

The formal charge was coupled with a renewed demand that the Reds render an accounting for a total of 526 missing Americans, including the 15 airmen, and their return dead or alive.

The 15 airmen include 1st Lt. Roland W. Parks of Omaha and Lt. Lyle W. Cameron of Lincoln.

Lt Parks is a jet pilot shot down over Manchuria in 1952. Lt Cameron was reported captured in Korea that same year.

Many months ago Communist propagandists referred to the capture of 12 members of the crew of a B-29 bomber, reported by the U.S. Command to have been shot down in northwestern Korea but alleged by the Reds to have been brought down in Manchuria, north of the Yalu River.

Accepted As A Fact

Only Thursday the Defense Department formally accepted the Chinese propaganda claims as fact. It cited statements made to that effect by the Chinese negotiators at the recent Geneva conference and supporting information obtained from Americans who were once prisoners of the Communists in the Far East but have since been exchanged.

The other three airmen alleged to be held as political prisoners were Air Force officers who were lost on missing flying single-seater aircraft.

The Weather

NEBRASKA: Partly cloudy Friday and Saturday, scattered thunderstorms Friday night and in east Saturday morning, warmer Friday, cooler west and north central Saturday, high Friday 85-90 east, upper 90s west.

KANSAS: Partly cloudy with widely scattered thundershowers east Friday, generally fair west; partly cloudy Saturday with scattered afternoon thunderstorms, little warmer Friday and in east Saturday, turning cooler northwest Saturday, high Friday 90 northeast to 100 southwest.

Sanitary Board Election Count Shows Error

One small error in addition the night of the Aug. 10 primary resulted in the unofficial reports of the election of the wrong man.

In the hurry to get the vote counted, 50 precincts were omitted from the total tally for Max Harding, candidate for the board of Sanitary District 1 on the Republican ticket. The unofficial count thus came out 4,639 votes for Harding and 5,363 for incumbent D. V. Stephens running for reelection.

Actually, the count should have been 6,571 for Harding and 5,363 for Stevens. The total vote of each candidate was tallied after the first 50 precincts reported in.

When the count was made after the next 15 precincts reported, Harding's total in the first 50 precincts was overlooked. The count thus went from 1,722 for Stephens and 1,962 for Harding after 50 precincts to 2,165 for Stephens and 617 for Harding after 65 precincts.

The error was noticed in the process of canvassing the vote for official counts. The canvass is expected to be completed Friday.

$5,000 Blaze Hits Home; Neighbors Sound Alarm

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Harry Ziegenbein, her two sons and her mother escaped from a $5,000 fire at her home at 1805 Sumner late Thursday afternoon when a neighbor told them their home was on fire.

"I'm glad I have good neighbors," Mrs. Ziegenbein exclaimed as she surveyed the charred roof and smoke damaged interior.

A heavy outpour of smoke stopped firemen from entering the home until holes were chopped in the roof of the three story frame home to allow the smoke to escape.

The fire was contained to the attic by firemen, but not before gaping holes were burned in the roof and smoke blackened the interior of the home.

Two engine companies and a truck company fought the fire for nearly half an hour from all sides of the house before the fire died.

Fire officials attributed the cause of the fire to defective wiring.

Mrs. Ziegenbein said she went up on the third floor to investigate after hearing her neighbor call.

"I only saw a little bundle of fire out on the eaves," she said, "so I told my boy to go after a bucket of water."

"When he started back up the stairs, flames seemed to envelop the whole roof," she said.

Mrs. Ziegenbein said she was in the living room telephoning when her neighbor called. The neighbors, the Henry Wendlands, turned in the alarm at 4:15 p.m.

"None of us in the house smelled smoke," she said.

Mrs. Ziegenbein said that a $2,900 organ and a baby grand piano she practices on for entertaining at Tony and Luigi's was saved from water damage when firemen threw three tarps over the instruments.

Drug Called 'UMP' To Aid Discovery Of Cancer Cure

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — The British Columbia Research Council announced Thursday the production of a chemical which the council's scientists expect to hasten the discovery of a cure for cancer.

The synthetically-compounded chemical was produced by Dr. H. Gobind Khorana, a 32-year-old Indian researcher. It bears the homely label of "UMP."

The new process allows synthetic production of one of the most important enzymes vital to cell growth.

Previously the enzyme could only be isolated from animal tissue and then in impure form and at prohibitive cost. Dr. Khorana's chemical will cost $45,000 a pound, half the previous cost, and will be available in quantity and in pure form for research.

Amid-Wreckage, He Still Sees 'Luck'

. . . Tornado Doesn't Daunt Sightless, Handless Farmer

KEYSTONE, Neb. (AP)—A Friday the 13th tornado which swept away most of what was to have been the start of a new life for the Paul Booth family hasn't dented the determination of the sightless, handless farmer.

"We'll make it somehow," he said.

Not even last week's tornado discouraged the 53-year-old farmer in this community 14 miles northeast of Ogallala.

"I think we were real lucky," said Booth as he surveyed the wreckage of his new chicken house. "One of us might have been killed."

Out of Southwest

The tornado came in from the southwest, missed the house but sucked up the chicken house, carried it about 100 feet and smashed it to the ground.

With it would have gone the hopes of many men more physically capable than Booth, who lost his hands and sight three years ago in a dynamiting explosion.

Booth, just now learning to use artificial limbs, was clearing away stumps on his small farm in Arkansas. A charge went off prematurely. He nearly died in a Little Rock hospital.

Back To Nebraska

About a year and a half ago he left the hospital and returned to his native Sunol, Neb. About four weeks ago he moved to his present home with the intent of raising poultry and sheep. The Nebraska services for the blind furnished about 500 chickens. The sheep were to come this fall. With the help of his wife, a son, David, 13, and daughter, Josephine, 15, Booth started construction of a four-room house. The burly 6-foot-2 240-pounder had to confine himself to lifting the heavy lumber and moving it under the guidance of his family while they did the actual construction with the mental plans he would furnish.

Work went along pretty smoothly with David doing the carpentering and Josephine the electrical work.

Then tragedy struck again. A heavy rain began to fall about two weeks ago and when the family awakened the next morning and went to the chicken house, it found 140 of the fowl had drowned.

Characteristically, the Booths felt they were lucky they were spared the remaining birds.

And not even this latest twister has shaken that attitude.

The courage of the family was noted in North Platte during a recent meeting of the district governors of the Lions of Nebraska who voted $100 to help the program of rehabilitation get back in gear again.

When told of the action of the Lions, Booth said that he "guessed we do need a little help now, we're about out of money," and added:

"There certainly are a lot of good people in the world." We'll make it somehow."

World Plea Is Made

Guns And Bombs Can Bring No Lasting Cure

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday called upon Protestant clergymen from throughout the world to lead an "intense act of faith" in which "hundreds upon hundreds of millions" would pray for a "just and lasting peace."

"The cause of peace needs God," he told the General Assembly of the World Council of Churches at Northwestern University.

"You . . . can lead the way."

The President said it is "the spirit and mind of man dedicated to justice and right," rather then guns and bombs, that can "in the long term, enable us to live in the confident tranquility that should be every man's heritage."

Bright, Hot Sun

In addition to the 1,500 delegates to the Council of Churches, thousands of visitors stood in bright hot sunshine on the grassy plain of Northwestern's Deering Meadow to hear the President.

As he expressed belief that the delegates, "together with your brethren of other faiths," can lead the way to peace, Eisenhower said:

"The goal should be nothing short of inviting every single person in every single country in the world who believe in the power of prayer to a supreme being, to join in a mighty, simultaneous, intense act of faith.

Hundreds of Millions

"That act of faith might take the form of a personal prayer, by hundreds upon hundreds of millions, delivered simultaneously and fervently for the devotion, wisdom and stamina to work unceasingly for a just and lasting peace. If this mass dedication launched an unending campaign for peace, supported constantly by prayer, I am certain wondrous results would obtain."

The President flew here from Springfield, Ill., where he took part in a Republican Day celebration at the Illinois State Fair. In a speech at the fair, Eisenhower stepped actively into the administration drive to maintain Republican control of Congress.

Northwestern University was presenting an honorary doctor of laws degree to Eisenhower after his address at the World Council of Churches meeting.

Eisenhower spoke to a crowd of clergymen and visitors garbed in the dress of many nations in the Deering Meadow on the Northwestern campus.

In his talk the President said, "There is no true and lasting cure for world tension in guns and bombs." Then he declared:

"We know that only the spirit and mind of man dedicated to justice and right can, in the long term, enable us to live in the confident tranquility that should be every man's heritage."

The President said that the gathered delegates as spiritual leaders could "lead the way."

The President said that the United States, as a people, has put its ideals into the records.

"We have chosen to state these ideals for all the world to see."

Since the beginnings of the United States as a nation, he said, we have announced "what we intended to make out of this country."

"We proclaimed then the principles on which it was founded and for which we continue to strive. We have fallen short—yes. But the ideals we have set forth, that we have blazoned on the record, stand always there to challenge us. Thus, we shall view with the greatest of sympathy our own efforts here to set forth a steadily higher ideal toward which man in his growth must always move."

The President said that thus this nation will watch with "great interest" what is done in Evanston in the next few days.

"We are essentially a religious people," he said. "We are inclined more today than ever to see the value of religion as a practical force in our affairs. Contrary to what many people think the percentage of our population belonging to churches steadily increases. In a hundred years, that percentage has multiplied three times."

Ex-Dean Oldfather Of NU Dies At 67

Heart Ailment Claims Educator Noted In Scholastic Circles

Dr. C. H. Oldfather, retired dean of the Arts and Sciences College at the University of Nebraska, and for many years an outstanding figure in educational circles, died at a local hospital early Friday morning. He was 67.

Dr. Oldfather, who lived at 1515 So. 22nd, had been ill for some time of a heart ailment.

The well-known professor began his career at the University of Nebraska in 1926 as a professor of ancient history. He became chairman of the History Department in 1929, and Dean of the Arts and Sciences College in 1932. He retired from the post at the end of 1951.

Born in Tabriz, Persia in 1887, Dr. Oldfather received his bachelors degree from Hanover, Indiana, College in 1906, and an LLd from the same school in 1933. In 1911 he received a BD from McCormick Theological Seminary. He did graduate work at the University of Munich in 1911 and 1912, and in 1922 received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin.

He was married to the former Margaret Kinsey McLelland on Sept. 7, 1914.

During his long teaching career, Dr. Oldfather taught in many different schools, one of them the Syrian Protestant College in Beirut, Lebanon, from 1912 to 1914. He served as professor of classics, at Hanover College from 1914-1916, and as professor of Greek and ancient history at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., from 1916 to 1926. In that year he joined the faculty of the University of Nebraska.

In Nebraska, he served as a member of the Nebraska Public Library Commission from 1922 to 1925. Earlier, he had served as president of the Independent Library Trustees association from 1923 to 1925.

The sixth volume of Diodorus Siculus, translated from the Greek by Dr. Oldfather was recently published by the Loeb Classical Library.

Dr. Oldfather's translation of Diodorus, which forms a vital part of the Loeb Library, is recognized as the most authoritative Greek-English version of this ancient historian, whose writings are the only record of some of the important periods in Greek and Roman history.

He was the author of several other scholarly publications, such as Greek literary papyri from Greco-Roman Egypt.

DEAN OLDFATHER

Dr. Oldfather was a member of the American Historical Society, the American Philological Association, the University Club, The Classical Association of the Middle West; The American Association of University Professors and was an honory member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Oldfather is survived by his wife, two daughters, Rebecca and Eleanor Oldfather, both of Lincoln; a son, Charles Jr., and a sister, Mrs. A. K. Reischauer of Cambridge, Mass.

Divisions 'Deployed'

TOKYO (Friday) (AP)—The Army announced today that the first two of four U. S. divisions to be withdrawn from Korea will be the 25th and 2nd Infantry Divisions.

The 25th will be sent to Hawaii and the 2nd to the United States, the Army said.

The announcement said the move will come "in the immediate future."

Gen. John E. Hull, U.S. Far East commander, said selection of the other divisions to be moved will be made soon.

'Several Months'

The Pentagon announced earlier this week that four of the six American divisions now stationed in Korea would be withdrawn "in the next several months."

Besides the 25th and 2nd, the American divisions now in Korea are the 3rd, 7th, 24th and 1st Marines. There is also an American regimental combat team of about 5,000 men. Washington said it, too, would be transferred.

In addition to the Americans, a British Commonwealth division is stationed on the wartorn peninsula. There are strong indications it will be cut in size.

Approve Foreign Aid Bill

Congress OK Given $5 Billion Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress Thursday passed a foreign aid bill providing $5,243,575,795 to bolster military and economic defenses against communism around the globe. The total is some three quarters of a billion dollars less than the $6,020,533,533 asked by President Eisenhower.

Hammered out in a Senate-House conference, the appropriation was quickly approved by the House, 188-77. The Senate followed suit Thursday night and the measure now goes to the White House.

The Senate action was taken without a tally. The only objection heard was by Sen. Langer (R-ND), who announced he was against the bill.

Laying heavy stress on military defenses and much less on economic aid, the bill provides 2,781,499,816 in new money for the present fiscal year, which began July 1, and makes available again $7,462,075,979 of money voted in previous years but not yet committed to specific projects.

Mutual Defense

The new money total is less than was voted by either Senate or House when the measure first was before the two chambers. The Senate originally voted $2,790,824,316 and the House $2,895,944,000.

Of the grand total in the compromise bill, $4,857,310,924 would go for mutual defense undertakings. This includes about 700 million dollars for direct military aid in Southeast Asia and the western Pacific area.

Economic aid totals about 184 million and the Point Four program for helping underdeveloped countries by means of technical assistance is allotted about 115 millions.

"I only saw a little bundle of fire out on the eaves," she said, "so I told my boy to go after a bucket of water."

"When he started back up the stairs, flames seemed to envelop the whole roof," she said.

Mrs. Ziegenbein said she was in the living room telephoning when her neighbor called. The neighbors, the Henry Wendlands, turned in the alarm at 4:15 p.m.

"None of us in the house smelled smoke," she said.

Mrs. Ziegenbein said that a $2,900 organ and a baby grand piano she practices on for entertaining at Tony and Luigi's was saved from water damage when firemen threw three tarps over the instruments.

Drug Called 'UMP' To Aid Discovery Of Cancer Cure

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — The British Columbia Research Council announced Thursday the production of a chemical which the council's scientists expect to hasten the discovery of a cure for cancer.

The synthetically-compounded chemical was produced by Dr. H. Gobind Khorana, a 32-year-old Indian researcher. It bears the homely label of "UMP."

The new process allows synthetic production of one of the most important enzymes vital to cell growth.

Previously the enzyme could only be isolated from animal tissue and then in impure form and at prohibitive cost. Dr. Khorana's chemical will cost $45,000 a pound, half the previous cost, and will be available in quantity and in pure form for research.

Amid Wreckage, He Still Sees 'Luck'

. . . Tornado Doesn't Daunt Sightless, Handless Farmer

KEYSTONE, Neb. (AP)—A Friday the 13th tornado which swept away most of what was to have been the start of a new life for the Paul Booth family hasn't dented the determination of the sightless, handless farmer.

"We'll make it somehow," he said.

Not even last week's tornado discouraged the 53-year-old farmer in this community 14 miles northeast of Ogallala.

"I think we were real lucky," said Booth as he surveyed the wreckage of his new chicken house. "One of us might have been killed."

Out of Southwest

The tornado came in from the southwest, missed the house but sucked up the chicken house, carried it about 100 feet and smashed it to the ground.

With it would have gone the hopes of many men more physically capable than Booth, who lost his hands and sight three years ago in a dynamiting explosion.

Booth, just now learning to use artificial limbs, was clearing away stumps on his small farm in Arkansas. A charge went off prematurely. He nearly died in a Little Rock hospital.

Back To Nebraska

About a year and a half ago he left the hospital and returned to his native Sunol, Neb. About four weeks ago he moved to his present home with the intent of raising poultry and sheep. The Nebraska services for the blind furnished about 500 chickens. The sheep were to come this fall. With the help of his wife, a son, David, 13, and daughter, Josephine, 15, Booth started construction of a four-room house. The burly 6-foot-2 240-pounder had to confine himself to lifting the heavy lumber and moving it under the guidance of his family while they did the actual construction with the mental plans he would furnish.

Work went along pretty smoothly with David doing the carpentering and Josephine the electrical work.

Then tragedy struck again. A heavy rain began to fall about two weeks ago and when the family awakened the next morning and went to the chicken house, it found 140 of the fowl had drowned.

Characteristically, the Booths felt they were lucky they were spared the remaining birds.

And not even this latest twister has shaken that attitude.

The courage of the family was noted in North Platte during a recent meeting of the district governors of the Lions of Nebraska who voted $100 to help the program of rehabilitation get back in gear again.

When told of the action of the Lions, Booth said that he "guessed we do need a little help now, we're about out of money," and added:

"There certainly are a lot of good people in the world." We'll make it somehow."

Guns And Bombs Can Bring No Lasting Cure

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday called upon Protestant clergymen from throughout the world to lead an "intense act of faith" in which "hundreds upon hundreds of millions" would pray for a "just and lasting peace."

"The cause of peace needs God," he told the General Assembly of the World Council of Churches at Northwestern University.

"You . . . can lead the way."

The President said it is "the spirit and mind of man dedicated to justice and right," rather then guns and bombs, that can "in the long term, enable us to live in the confident tranquility that should be every man's heritage."

Bright, Hot Sun

In addition to the 1,500 delegates to the Council of Churches, thousands of visitors stood in bright hot sunshine on the grassy plain of Northwestern's Deering Meadow to hear the President.

As he expressed belief that the delegates, "together with your brethren of other faiths," can lead the way to peace, Eisenhower said:

"The goal should be nothing short of inviting every single person in every single country in the world who believe in the power of prayer to a supreme being, to join in a mighty, simultaneous, intense act of faith.

Hundreds of Millions

"That act of faith might take the form of a personal prayer, by hundreds upon hundreds of millions, delivered simultaneously and fervently for the devotion, wisdom and stamina to work unceasingly for a just and lasting peace. If this mass dedication launched an unending campaign for peace, supported constantly by prayer, I am certain wondrous results would obtain."

The President flew here from Springfield, Ill., where he took part in a Republican Day celebration at the Illinois State Fair. In a speech at the fair, Eisenhower stepped actively into the administration drive to maintain Republican control of Congress.

Northwestern University was presenting an honorary doctor of laws degree to Eisenhower after his address at the World Council of Churches meeting.

Eisenhower spoke to a crowd of clergymen and visitors garbed in the dress of many nations in the Deering Meadow on the Northwestern campus.

In his talk the President said, "There is no true and lasting cure for world tension in guns and bombs." Then he declared:

"We know that only the spirit and mind of man dedicated to justice and right can, in the long term, enable us to live in the confident tranquility that should be every man's heritage."

The President said that the gathered delegates as spiritual leaders could "lead the way."

The President said that the United States, as a people, has put its ideals into the records.

"We have chosen to state these ideals for all the world to see."

Since the beginnings of the United States as a nation, he said, we have announced "what we intended to make out of this country."

"We proclaimed then the principles on which it was founded and for which we continue to trive. We have fallen short—yes. But the ideals we have set forth, that we have blazoned on the record, stand always there to challenge us. Thus, we shall view with the greatest of sympathy our own efforts here to set forth a steadily higher ideal toward which man in his growth must always move."

The President said that thus this nation will watch with "great interest" what is done in Evanston in the next few days.

"We are essentially a religious people," he said. "We are inclined more today than ever to see the value of religion as a practical force in our affairs. Contrary to what many people think the percentage of our population belonging to churches steadily increases. In a hundred years, that percentage has multiplied three times."

Ike Urges 'Prayer For Peace'

President Eisenhower addresses churchmen at the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches meeting at Evanston, Ill. In his speech, the President proposed world-wide prayer for a just and durable peace. He also told clergymen that they could lead the way to a peace that could not be achieved with guns and bombs. (UP Telephoto.)

Ex-Dean Oldfather Of NU Dies At 67

DEAN OLDFATHER

Dr. C. H. Oldfather, retired dean of the Arts and Sciences College at the University of Nebraska, and for many years an outstanding figure in educational circles, died at a local hospital early Friday morning. He was 67.

Dr. Oldfather, who lived at 1515 So. 22nd, had been ill for some time of a heart ailment.

The well-known professor began his career at the University of Nebraska in 1926 as a professor of ancient history. He became chairman of the History Department in 1929, and Dean of the Arts and Sciences College in 1932. He retired from the post at the end of 1951.

Born in Tabriz, Persia in 1887, Dr. Oldfather received his bachelors degree from Hanover, Indiana, College in 1906, and an LLd from the same school in 1933. In 1911 he received a BD from McCormick Theological Seminary. He did graduate work at the University of Munich in 1911 and 1912, and in 1922 received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin.

He was married to the former Margaret Kinsey McLelland on Sept. 7, 1914.

During his long teaching career, Dr. Oldfather taught in many different schools, one of them the Syrian Protestant College in Beirut, Lebanon, from 1912 to 1914. He served as professor of classics, at Hanover College from 1914-1916, and as professor of Greek and ancient history at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., from 1916 to 1926. In that year he joined the faculty of the University of Nebraska.

In Nebraska, he served as a member of the Nebraska Public Library Commission from 1922 to 1925. Earlier, he had served as president of the Independent Library Trustees association from 1923 to 1925.

The sixth volume of Diodorus Siculus, translated from the Greek by Dr. Oldfather was recently published by the Loeb Classical Library.

Dr. Oldfather's translation of Diodorus, which forms a vital part of the Loeb Library, is recognized as the most authoritative Greek-English version of this ancient historian, whose writings are the only record of some of the important periods in Greek and Roman history.

He was the author of several other scholarly publications, such as Greek literary papyri from Greco-Roman Egypt.

Dr. Oldfather was a member of the American Historical Society, the American Philological Association, the University Club, The Classical Association of the Middle West; The American Association of University Professors and was an honory member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Oldfather is survived by his wife, two daughters, Rebecca and Eleanor Oldfather, both of Lincoln; a son, Charles Jr., and a sister, Mrs. A. K. Reischauer of Cambridge, Mass.

Divisions 'Deployed'

TOKYO (Friday) (AP)—The Army announced today that the first two of four U. S. divisions to be withdrawn from Korea will be the 25th and 2nd Infantry Divisions.

The 25th will be sent to Hawaii and the 2nd to the United States, the Army said.

The announcement said the move will come "in the immediate future."

Gen. John E. Hull, U.S. Far East commander, said selection of the other divisions to be moved will be made soon.

'Several Months'

The Pentagon announced earlier this week that four of the six American divisions now stationed in Korea would be withdrawn "in the next several months."

Besides the 25th and 2nd, the American divisions now in Korea are the 3rd, 7th, 24th and 1st Marines. There is also an American regimental combat team of about 5,000 men. Washington said it, too, would be transferred.

In addition to the Americans, a British Commonwealth division is stationed on the wartorn peninsula. There are strong indications it will be cut in size.

Approve Foreign Aid Bill

Congress OK Given $5 Billion Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress Thursday passed a foreign aid bill providing $5,243,575,795 to bolster military and economic defenses against communism around the globe. The total is some three quarters of a billion dollars less than the $6,020,633,533 asked by President Eisenhower.

Hammered out in a Senate-House conference, the appropriation was quickly approved by the House, 188-77. The Senate followed suit Thursday night and the measure now goes to the White House.

The Senate action was taken without a tally. The only objection heard was by Sen. Langer (R-ND), who announced he was against the bill.

Laying heavy stress on military defenses and much less on economic aid, the bill provides 2,781,499,816 in new money for the present fiscal year, which began July 1, and makes available again $2,462,075,979 of money voted in previous years but not yet committed to specific projects.

Mutual Defense

The new money total is less than was voted by either Senate or House when the measure first was before the two chambers. The Senate originally voted $2,790,824,816 and the House $2,895,944,000.

Of the grand total in the compromise bill, $4,857,310,924 would go for mutual defense undertakings. This includes about 700 million dollars for direct military aid in Southeast Asia and the western Pacific area.

Economic aid totals about 184 million and the Point Four program for helping underdeveloped countries by means of technical assistance is allotted about 115 millions.

Peiping Says Japanese Ex-POWs Pardoned

LONDON (AP) — Red China has announced the pardoning of 417 former Japanese military prisoners, described as war criminals. The Peiping radio announcement did not detail the crimes or say when the group will be returned to Japan.

Revamped Anti-Red Bill Is Approved

Section Making Membership In Communist Party A Criminal Act Stricken By Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress passed a bill Thursday outlawing the Communist party as "an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States."

The Senate approved the measure 79-0 after it was redrafted in a Senate-House conference committee to remove a section, offered by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), making membership in the Communist party itself a criminal act.

Sens. Bowring and Reynolds of Nebraska, both Republicans, voted on a roll call to outlaw the Communist party but not to make membership in it illegal. The vote was 79-0.

House approval came on a 265-2 vote a short time later, and the bill was then sent to the White House for President Eisenhower's signature.

Sen. Knowland of California, GOP leader in the Senate, expressed confidence that Eisenhower would sign it to strike a new blow at Reds in this country.

Rights, Privileges Denied

The legislation declares that the Communist party shall not be entitled to "any of the rights, privileges and immunities attendant upon legal bodies."

This means the party will be ostracized in the United States, stripped of all legal rights, including that of being listed on a voting ballot.

In deference to administration objections, the Senate-House conferees eliminated a section making it illegal to be a member of the Communist party and establishing penalties up to five years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

Atty. Gen. Brownell and other law enforcement officials said this section would impede enforcement of the Internal Security Act and serve to drive the Reds deeper underground.

Labor Bodies Warned

In addition to outlawing the Communist party, the bill provides that any labor organization found by the government to be Red-infiltrated shall be stripped of all its rights and privileges under the National Labor Relation's Act. That means, among other things, that it could not be certified as a collective bargaining agent for workers.

While membership in the Communist party is not declared illegal, the bill declares that a person who is a member of a Communist-action group shall be subject to penalties set forth in the 1950 Internal Security Act.

The 1950 law, sponsored by Sen. McCarran (D-Nev), provides that members of Communist-action groups shall be barred from defense plants, from employment by the Federal government and from obtaining a passport.

Such groups are also required to register with the Justice Department, subject to five years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for failure to do so. An attempt to make the Communist party register under the McCarran Act is now being fought out in the courts.

Kefauver Speaks

Sen. Kefauver D-Tenn, in a lengthy speech, said the efforts of some Republicans to portray the Democrats as a party of traitors, leftwingers and Communists "had a very unfortunate effect on the two-party system."

The Republican attacks, he said, provided "considerable emotional excuse for the legislation brought out by the Democrats in an effort to show they can be harder on the Communists than the Republicans."

Kefauver voted for the compromise bill, though with "great misgivings." He said ideas cannot be destroyed by the passage of laws, and he expressed hope "we are not violating the great principle given by Thomas Jefferson and all our great leaders—the right of dissent."

Rep. Multer D-NY, one of the two House members who voted against the bill, said he did so because "putting any group out of business in this way is basically wrong in principle: it is the way a fascist would use, the totalitarian way."

Rep. Burdick R-ND, the other "no" voter, said "I am against any form of tyranny over the mind of man.

"I am for freedom of speech, freedom of the press. I am opposed to silence from fear, instead of reason. . . ."

Decatur Rechannel Project Scheduled In Next 10 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Engineers will spend $2 million on river stabilization at Decatur Bend on the Missouri River within the next 10 months, Rep. Robert Harrison (R-Neb) said Thursday.

Harrison told a reporter the chief of engineers has informed the House Civil Functions Appropriations Subcommittee of his decision to do this work during the fiscal year ending next June 30.

The engineers also will spend $500,000 on river work around Omaha and $500,000 around Sioux City, he said.

The work near Decatur Bend will rechannel the Missouri so that it will flow under an already constructed bridge between Decatur and Onawa, Ia. The bridge now stands over dry land because Congress has delayed appropriating money for rechanneling the Missouri in this area.

White House Gets Bill For Renaming Gavins Reservoir

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed and sent to the White House a bill to name the Gavins Point Dam reservoir "Lewis and Clark Lake."

The legislation was introduced by Sens. Mundt and Case and Rep. Berry, South Dakota Republicans.

Lewis and Clark, the explorers, conferred with Sioux Indians at approximately the site of the reservoir on their western exploratory trip about a century ago.

Army To Build Portable A-Plant

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Army and Atomic Energy Commission announced plans to build an experimental transportable atomic power plant, suitable for use at Arctic and other remote bases where fuel costs are high.

The experimental plant will be built at the Army engineer base at Ft. Belvoir, Va., 15 miles south of Washington, at an estimated cost of eight million dollars.

Plans call for a pilot model capable of producing 1,700 milowatts of electric power and constructed of component parts that can be carried by air.

Building time is estimated at two to three years. There are 33 competitive bidders for the job, the Army said, and contracts will be awarded next fall.

The plant will be built on a remote section of the base, and will be constructed solely to produce electric power and heat — differing from most reactors which produce weapon materials.

Its power will be high in cost, the Army estimated, but suitable for bases where fuel must be flown in at great expense. The Army noted it costs $42 a barrel, for fuel oil for some Arctic posts.

News Around The Globe

Peurifoy In Line

WASHINGTON (INS)—Authoritative sources said that John E. Peurifoy, who is credited with a major role in driving the communists from control of the Guatemalan government, is in line to become ambassador to Red-menaced Thailand.

These sources said the White House is expected to switch Peurifoy from Guatemala City to Bangkok under a recess appointment after Congress adjourns.

Colonel Charged

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill (AP)—Lt. Col. Harry Fleming of Racine, Wis. Friday will face a general court-martial on charges that he "wrongfully collaborated with the enemy and committed acts detrimental to fellow prisoners of war," 5th Army headquarters announced.

The 46-year-old artillery officer is the first Army officer to be tried by court-martial for behavior in Communist prisoner-of-war camps.

Gray 'Souring'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard J Gray, an AFL leader and one of President Eisenhower's principal labor supporters in the 1952 campaign, said he is beginning to "sour" on the administration.

Gray, a Republican and member of the GOP's Labor Advisory Committee in the 1952 presidential campaign, told a reporter he is concerned with administration handling of the unemployment situation and with failure to amend the Taft-Hartley law.

Justice 'Defects'

CHICAGO (INS)—Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren said there are "defects in our administration of justice" and the nation's legal profession does not seek to avoid responsibility for the situation.

Justice Warren's remarks were heard by several thousand lawyers and judges attending the dedication of a new two-million-dollar American Bar Center in Chicago. The nation's top jurist asserted: "Haphazard methods of appointing judges, inadequate court organization and loose courtroom practices too often cause delay, confusion, inefficiency and consequent unjustifiable expense."

Accidental Death

STE. AGATHE, Que. (AP)—A coroner's jury Thursday night ruled Emilie Dionne died accidentally Aug. 6 but it also wrote an unpublished report for transmission to the Quebec attorney general.

Coroner Jean Thaillon declined to give details of the special report, or rider, but told reporters it had to do with recommendations about medical care. He said this applied particularly to L'Accueil Gai, a home for the aged where the 20-year-old Dionne quintuplet died while serving the preliminaries for entry into a Catholic lay order.

Patino Blasted

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (INS)—Glamorous Joanne Connelley Patino told a Swiss justice of the peace that she ran away from her Bolivian tin heir husband during their Capri honeymoon because he was "a real sadist who often beat me."

The 23-year-old New York society beauty, who has filed counter-divorce action against wealthy James Ortiz Patino, also declared she had asked police protection against Patino after "he threatened to throw acid in my face if we met again."

Rathjen Takes Most Honors In Dairy Show

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — Robert Rathjen, Sherman County 4-H member from Sweetwater, took the lion's share of honors Thursday at the district dairy show here.

Lorraine Haggart, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Haggart, farmers near Grand Island, was named queen of the show. Esther Wissin, 15, of Bostwick, was named alternate queen.

Miss Haggart, active in 4-H dairy work for eight years, now has a herd of 10 animals. She has carried 14 other 4-H projects.

Young Rathjen's Jersey herd won junior herd honors. He also took first place in the showmanship contest, and won two of the 11 purple ribbons awarded on individual animals.

Other prize winners in the showmanship contest: Carolyn Techmeier, Loup City, second; Boyd Burhoop, Central City, third; Albert Quandt, Grand Island, fourth; Ardis McGraw, Broken Bow, fifth.

Other purple ribbon winners were:

Diana Parker, Central City; Mary Ann McHargue, Central City; Donald Frauen, Grand Island; Glenn Frauen, Grand Island; Albert Quandt, Grand Island; Lorraine Haggart and Lois Haggart, both of Grand Island; Carolyn Techmeier, Loup City, and Dorene Vogt, Ravenna.

There were 118 animals in the 17-county show, about 25 more than in 1953.

There were 62 blue ribbons, 41 red ribbons and four white ribbons.

Winners of blue and purple ribbons will be eligible to enter the Ak-Sar-Ben stock show at Omaha this fall.

Miller Points Out Accomplishments Of His Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman A. L. Miller (R-Neb) said Thursday he feels his House Interior Committee "has done much to promote irrigation and reclamation" this session by approving 11 new projects.

In a report to the House, Miller said his committee also had considered and given the green light to start or continue actual construction of five other projects.

"About 60 million dollars in new projects has been authorized by this Congress," he said.

Here is the status of Nebraska projects involved:

Niobrara Basin, including Ainsworth, Lavaca Flats, O'Neill and Mirage Flats units — legislation now before President Eisenhower.

Glendo Reservoir — Approved for construction and the bill is now before President Eisenhower.

80-Ton Seaplane

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Navy is testing its 80-ton seaplane, capable of putting 103 men directly ashore in amphibious warfare operations. The R-3Y-2, the Navy says, is the first plane designed to put soldiers, tanks and other equipment directly on the beach. Tests for the "Flying LST" were made at a floating drydock in San Diego Bay.

Coffee Picture Clouded

The retail price of coffee was out on a creaking limb in Lincoln Thursday.

Consumers got a 4 to 7 cent reduction per pound.

This is the first break in the cost of the beverage bean, since it started its climb out of the reach of some consumers.

But wholesalers will hazard no guess as to whether prices will stabilize at around $1.20 a pound, get back up, or drop within normal drinking range.

The retail price reduction reflected a 10-cent drop in wholesale prices the previous day.

The wholesale price reduction was completely unexpected—hence the reluctance of coffee men to say what might happen next.

U.S. AG VISIT TO MOSCOW IS SHORT-LIVED

MOSCOW (AP) — Two American farm experts with diplomatic rank flew into Moscow this week to see the Soviet Agricultural Exposition, but flew out again 24 hours later without visiting it.

The U.S. Embassy said Thursday the pair received an unexpected summons to "urgent legislative consultations at the Paris embassy," but it did not know any details.

The men were Joseph Greenwalt, attached to the U.S. consulate at Geneva, and Charles Elkington, attached to the U.S. Embassy in Paris. They arrived here at midnight Monday.

One embassy source here speculated their summons had some connection with the visit to Europe of Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Wiley arrived in Paris yesterday on a tour of several European capitals to study the U.S. foreign aid program at the request of Secretary of State Dulles.

Cyclist Crashing Wall Some Better

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—Konrad Vaith, 13, was reported slightly improved Thursday—with injuries suffered when his bicycle crashed into a concrete wall.

Hospital attendants said the boy suffered a fractured skull, a broken collar bone and other injuries. He is in serious condition.

Officers said the boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaith of Grand Island, rode his vehicle into a pedestrian tunnel of an underpass at a high rate of speed. When he reached a 90-degree turn in the tunnel he apparently slammed into the wall.

MILFORD, Neb.—Young people spending the week at the Nebraska Evangelical United Brethren senior youth camp at Riverside Park had their annual banquet Thursday following an afternoon of competitive sports.

The Rev. Kenneth H. Pohly, guest speaker, discussed Jeremiah during the morning Bible study period.

At a chapel service the campers made a special offering toward a $125 scholarship for a student at Red Bird Mission at Beverly, Ky.

The rest of the scholarship fund comes from campers at two EUB junior high camps, one held a week ago and the other to start next Sunday.

The senior camp will end with a communion service Saturday morning.

Leadership training classes have been conducted during this week by.

The Rev. J. Russell Mead, West Point, on the life and work of Paul.

The Rev. Duane Lenz, DuBois, on alcohol and drug education.

The Rev. T. H. Kampman, Elmwood, an introduction to the study of the Bible.

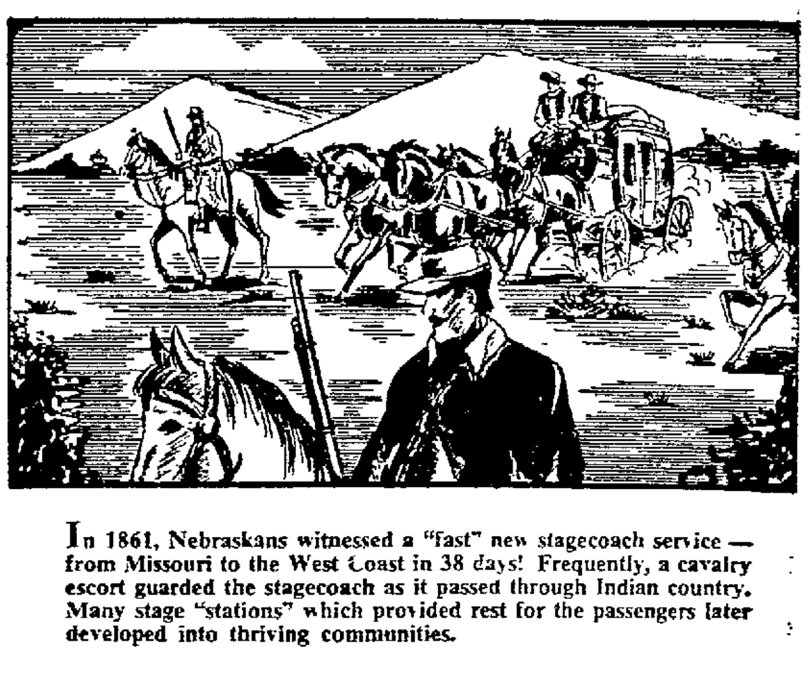
Mrs. Harvey Schwab of Blue Springs and the Rev. D. R. Roker and the Rev. John F. Wichelt, both of Lincoln, on "Understanding Ourselves."

Mrs. Keith Griffith, Eddyville, "Teaching Children in the Church."

Plan Valentino Rites

HOLLYWOOD (INS) —The Rudolph Valentino Memorial Association planned to hold its annual memorial rites on the 28th anniversary of the screen lover's death next Monday. A wreath will be placed on Valentino's crypt by James Kirkwood, a star of the Valentino era, who will represent the Masquers Club. The perennial "woman in black" is expected to appear among the mourners.

It Happened In NEBRASKA...



In 1861, Nebraskans witnessed a "fast" new stagecoach service — from Missouri to the West Coast in 38 days! Frequently, a cavalry escort guarded the stagecoach as it passed through Indian country. Many stage "stations" which provided rest for the passengers later developed into thriving communities.

More recently, Nebraskans have witnessed a change in the public attitude toward the tavern industry. Modern-day taverns are as wholesome and well-regulated as any business. An accepted part of community living!

Revamped Anti-Red Bill Is Approved

Section Making Membership In Communist Party A Criminal Act Stricken By Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress passed a bill Thursday outlawing the Communist party as "an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States."

The Senate approved the measure 79-0 after it was redrafted in a Senate-House conference committee to remove a section, offered by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), making membership in the Communist party itself a criminal act.

Sens. Bowring and Reynolds of Nebraska, both Republicans, voted on a roll call to outlaw the Communist party but not to make membership in it illegal. The vote was 79-0.

House approval came on a 265-2 vote a short time later, and the bill was then sent to the White House for President Eisenhower's signature.

Sen. Knowland of California, GOP leader in the Senate, expressed confidence that Eisenhower would sign it to strike a new blow at Reds in this country.

Rights, Privileges Denied

The legislation declares that the Communist party shall not be entitled to "any of the rights, privileges and immunities attendant upon legal bodies."

This means the party will be ostracized in the United States, stripped of all legal rights, including that of being listed on a voting ballot.

In deference to administration objections, the Senate-House conferees eliminated a section making it illegal to be a member of the Communist party and establishing penalties up to five years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

Atty. Gen. Brownell and other law enforcement officials said this section would impede enforcement of the Internal Security Act and serve to drive the Reds deeper underground.

Labor Bodies Warned

In addition to outlawing the Communist party, the bill provides that any labor organization found by the government to be Red-infiltrated shall be stripped of all its rights and privileges under the National Labor Relation's Act. That means, among other things, that it could not be certified as a collective bargaining agent for workers.

While membership in the Communist party is not declared illegal, the bill declares that a person who is a member of a Communist-action group shall be subject to penalties set forth in the 1950 Internal Security Act.

The 1950 law, sponsored by Sen. McCarran (D-Nev), provides that members of Communist-action groups shall be barred from defense plants, from employment by the Federal government and from obtaining a passport.

Such groups are also required to register with the Justice Department, subject to five years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for failure to do so. An attempt to make the Communist party register under the McCarran Act is now being fought out in the courts.

Kefauver Speaks

Sen. Kefauver D-Tenn, in a lengthy speech, said the efforts of some Republicans to portray the Democrats as a party of traitors, leftwingers and Communists "had a very unfortunate effect on the two-party system."

The Republican attacks, he said, provided "considerable emotional excuse for the legislation brought out by the Democrats in an effort to show they can be harder on the Communists than the Republicans."

Kefauver voted for the compromise bill, though with "great misgivings." He said ideas cannot be destroyed by the passage of laws, and he expressed hope "we are not violating the great principle given by Thomas Jefferson and all our great leaders—the right of dissent."

Rep. Multer D-NY, one of the two House members who voted against the bill, said he did so because "putting any group out of business in this way is basically wrong in principle; it is the way a fascist would use, the totalitarian way."

Rep. Burdick R-ND, the other "no" voter, said "I am against any form of tyranny over the mind of man.

"I am for freedom of speech, freedom of the press. I am opposed to silence from fear, instead of reason. . . ."

Decatur Rechannel Project Scheduled In Next 10 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Engineers will spend $2 million on river stabilization at Decatur Bend on the Missouri River within the next 10 months, Rep. Robert Harrison (R-Neb) said Thursday.

Harrison told a reporter the chief of engineers has informed the House Civil Functions Appropriations Subcommittee of his decision to do this work during the fiscal year ending next June 30.

The engineers also will spend $500,000 on river work around Omaha and $500,000 around Sioux City, he said.

The work near Decatur Bend will rechannel the Missouri so that it will flow under an already constructed bridge between Decatur and Onawa, Ia. The bridge now stands over dry land because Congress has delayed appropriating money for rechanneling the Missouri in this area.

White House Gets Bill For Renaming Gavins Reservoir

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed and sent to the White House a bill to name the Gavins Point Dam reservoir "Lewis and Clark Lake."

The legislation was introduced by Sens. Mundt and Case and Rep. Berry, South Dakota Republicans.

Army To Build Portable A-Plant

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Army and Atomic Energy Commission announced plans to build an experimental transportable atomic power plant, suitable for use at Arctic and other remote bases where fuel costs are high.

The experimental plant will be built at the Army engineer base at Ft. Belvoir, Va., 15 miles south of Washington, at an estimated cost of eight million dollars.

Plans call for a pilot model capable of producing 1,700 milowatts of electric power and constructed of component parts that can be carried by air.

Building time is estimated at two to three years. There are 33 competitive bidders for the job, the Army said, and contracts will be awarded next fall.

The plant will be built on a remote section of the base, and will be constructed solely to produce electric power and heat — differing from most reactors which produce weapon materials.

Its power will be high in cost, the Army estimated, but suitable for bases where fuel must be flown in at great expense. The Army noted it costs $42 a barrel, for fuel oil for some Arctic posts.

News Around The Globe

Peurifoy In Line

WASHINGTON (INS)—Authoritative sources said that John E. Peurifoy, who is credited with a major role in driving the communists from control of the Guatemalan government, is in line to become ambassador to Red-menaced Thailand.

These sources said the White House is expected to switch Peurifoy from Guatemala City to Bangkok under a recess appointment after Congress adjourns.

Colonel Charged

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP)—Lt. Col. Harry Fleming of Racine, Wis. Friday will face a general court-martial on charges that he "wrongfully collaborated with the enemy and committed acts detrimental to fellow prisoners of war," 5th Army headquarters announced.

The 46-year-old artillery officer is the first Army officer to be tried by court-martial for behavior in Communist prisoner-of-war camps.

Gray 'Souring'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard J Gray, an AFL leader and one of President Eisenhower's principal labor supporters in the 1952 campaign, said he is beginning to "sour" on the administration.

Gray, a Republican and member of the GOP's Labor Advisory Committee in the 1952 presidential campaign, told a reporter he is concerned with administration handling of the unemployment situation and with failure to amend the Taft-Hartley law.

Kelly Welcomed

POMEROY, Northern Ireland (AP)—Irish nationalists clashed with police Thursday during a big demonstration for their anti-Britiish hero who was coming home from jail.

Bonfires blazed from the surrounding mountains to welcome home Liam Kelly, 32, a nationalist who had just been released from a Belfast jail after servinig a year for making seditious remarks about Britain's Queen Elizabeth II

Justice 'Defects'

CHICAGO (INS)—Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren said there are "defects in our administration of justice" and the nation's legal profession does not seek to avoid responsibility for the situation.

Justice Warren's remarks were heard by several thousand lawyers and judges attending the dedication of a new two-million-dollar American Bar Center in Chicago. The nation's top jurist asserted: "Haphazard methods of appointing judges, inadequate court organization and loose courtroom practices too often cause delay, confusion, inefficiency and consequent unjustifiable expense."

Accidental Death

STE. AGATHE, Que. (AP)—A coroner's jury Thursday night ruled Emilie Dionne died accidentally Aug. 6 but it also wrote an unpublished report for transmission to the Quebec attorney general.

Coroner Jean Thaillon declined to give details of the special report, or rider, but told reporters it had to do with recommendations about medical care. He said this applied particularly to L'Accueil Gai, a home for the aged where the 20-year-old Dionne quintuplet died while serving the preliminaries for entry into a Catholic lay order.

Patino Blasted

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (INS)—Glamorous Joanne Connelley Patino told a Swiss justice of the peace that she ran away from her Bolivian tin heir husband during their Capri honeymoon because he was "a real sadist who often beat me."

The 23-year-old New York society beauty, who has filed counter-divorce action against wealthy James Ortiz Patino, also declared she had asked police protection against Patino after "he threatened to throw acid in my face if we met again."

Rathjen Takes Most Honors In Dairy Show

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — Robert Rathjen, Sherman County 4-H member from Sweetwater, took the lion's share of honors Thursday at the district dairy show here.

Lorraine Haggart, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Haggart, farmers near Grand Island, was named queen of the show. Esther Wissin, 15, of Bostwick, was named alternate queen.

Miss Haggart, active in 4-H dairy work for eight years, now has a herd of 10 animals. She has carried 14 other 4-H projects.

Young Rathjen's Jersey herd won junior herd honors. He also took first place in the showmanship contest, and won two of the 11 purple ribbons awarded on individual animals.

Other prize winners in the showmanship contest: Carolyn Techmeier, Loup City, second; Boyd Burhoop, Central City, third; Albert Quandt, Grand Island, fourth; Ardis McGraw, Broken Bow, fifth.

Other purple ribbon winners were:

Diana Parker, Central City; Mary Ann McHargue, Central City; Donald Frauen, Grand Island; Glenn Frauen, Grand Island; Albert Quandt, Grand Island; Lorraine Haggart and Lois Haggart, both of Grand Island; Carolyn Techmeier, Loup City, and Dorene Vogt, Ravenna.

There were 118 animals in the 17-county show, about 25 more than in 1953.

There were 62 blue ribbons, 41 red ribbons and four white ribbons.

Winners of blue and purple ribbons will be eligible to enter the Ak-Sar-Ben stock show at Omaha this fall.

Miller Points Out Accomplishments Of His Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman A. L. Miller (R-Neb) said Thursday he feels his House Interior Committee "has done much to promote irrigation and reclamation" this session by approving 11 new projects.

In a report to the House, Miller said his committee also had considered and given the green light to start or continue actual construction of five other projects.

"About 60 million dollars in new projects has been authorized by this Congress," he said.

Here is the status of Nebraska projects involved:

Niobrara Basin, including Ainsworth, Lavaca Flats, O'Neill and Mirage Flats units — legislation now before President Eisenhower.

Glendo Reservoir — Approved for construction and the bill is now before President Eisenhower.

80-Ton Seaplane

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The Navy is testing its 80-ton seaplane, capable of putting 103 men directly ashore in amphibious warfare operations. The R-3Y-2, the Navy says, is the first plane designed to put soldiers, tanks and other equipment directly on the beach. Tests for the "Flying LST" were made at a floating drydock in San Diego Bay.

Coffee Picture Clouded

The retail price of coffee was out on a creaking limb in Lincoln Thursday.

Consumers got a 4 to 7 cent reduction per pound.

This is the first break in the cost of the beverage bean, since it started its climb out of the reach of some consumers.

But wholesalers will hazard no guess as to whether prices will stabilize at around $1.20 a pound, get back up, or drop within normal drinking range.

The retail price reduction reflected a 10-cent drop in wholesale prices the previous day.

The wholesale price reduction was completely unexpected—hence the reluctance of coffee men to say what might happen next.

U.S. AG VISIT TO MOSCOW IS SHORT-LIVED

MOSCOW (AP) — Two American farm experts with diplomatic rank flew into Moscow this week to see the Soviet Agricultural Exposition, but flew out again 24 hours later without visiting it.

The U.S. Embassy said Thursday the pair received an unexpected summons to "urgent legislative consultations at the Paris embassy," but it did not know any details.

The men were Joseph Greenwalt, attached to the U.S. consulate at Geneva, and Charles Elkington, attached to the U.S. Embassy in Paris. They arrived here at midnight Monday.

One embassy source here speculated their summons had some connection with the visit to Europe of Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Wiley arrived in Paris yesterday on a tour of several European capitals to study the U.S. foreign aid program at the request of Secretary of State Dulles.

Cyclist Crashing Wall Some Better

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—Konrad Vaith, 13, was reported slightly improved Thursday with injuries suffered whin his bicycle crashed into a concrete wall.

Hospital attendants said the boy suffered a fractured skull, a broken collar bone and other injuries. He is in serious condition.

Officers said the boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaith of Grand Island, rode his vehicle into a pedestrian tunnel of an underpass at a high rate of speed. When he reached a 90-degree turn in the tunnel he apparently slammed into the wall.

Ike Opens Campaign With Rap At 'Doom Prophets'

. . . 'Crooked Fence Politics' Blasted

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday opened his personal efforts to strengthen Republican control of Congress in the fall elections with a blast at "prophets of doom" and "crooked fence politics."

While he mentioned no names in his speech at the Illinois State Fair's Republican Day celebration, the President obvioulsy referred to Democrats who contend the administration has been leading the nation into a depression.

The address before listeners estimated by the fairgrounds manager, Strother Jones, at 100,000 was the first in a planned cross-country drive in which Eisenhower will plead for the election of GOP candidates to both the House and the Senate.

He praised the Illinois Republican delegation as having worked hard in "helping me carry out my promises. . . to go to Washington and work for one thing and one thing only—the good of the United States of America."

The President recalled a story about a farmer building a fence so crooked that every time a mole bored under it "he found himself on the same side of the fence that he started," adding:

"Now, these economic prophets of doom have been building up a lot of fences of what they called economic statistics, but they have built the fence so crooked that every time they bored through them. they still find themselves on the side of pessimism and depression.

"It seems to me lately that they would like to forget the whole thing, and I think all of us are getting rather tired of crooked fence economic politics."

In a summary of foreign affairs developments during this administration, the President mentioned that the Korean War had ended; that a settlement had been made in Indochina; that the outlook is brighter in the Suez region, Iran and Guatemala and "we are moving with our alliess" toward formation of a Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

He said the domestic scene was brightened by congressional approval of his farm program substituting flexible price supports for rigid supports, by reductions provided in the tax revision bill he signed last week end by a 10-billion-dollar cut in federal spending.

Eisenhower flew to Springfield from Washington during the morning and, before his appearance at the Fairgrounds, placed a wreath on the tomb of Lincoln.

Belden Line Funds Await Ike Signing

Now awaiting signature by President Eisenhower is a bill which would provide funds to build a transmission line from the Gavins Point dam in South Dakota to Belden, Neb.

The supplementary appropriation bill includes $450,000 for construction of the line by the Bureau of Reclamation for wheeling of federal power to Nebraska's rural electrification districts.

The $450,000 appropriation had a rough passage through Congress. The House committee which originated the bill refused to include the Belden line money, so the bill went to the Senate without the funds included. When the Senate committee considered the bill, however, they added to it the Belden funds.

The supplemental appropriations bill then went to a Senate-House conference committee, which had to iron out differences between the Senate and House bills. The conference committee left in the bill the Belden funds. Since then, both houses have passed the amended bill, and it is awaiting signature by the President.

Also included in the bill were $1,300,000 Bostwick project on the Kansas-Nebraska line and a million dollars for starting of the Glendo Dam in Wyoming, which would provide some power and irrigation benefits for western Nebraska.

WHERE?

Where Do Lincoln Dollars... Lincoln Earnings... Do the Most Good?

The answer, generally speaking is, IN LINCOLN.

The more earnings spent in Lincoln, the more of our money, our purchasing power, remains right here in circulation. This increases sales and makes business better for everyone.

Thus, your Lincoln New Car Dealers are making an honest and frank appeal for Lincoln business. They are competing for business on a thoroughly competitive basis. It isn't necessary to go out of town to get a good deal.

Sometimes the good deal out-of-town isn't nearly as attractive as it appears at first or second glance.

Remember, the deal is just the beginning. There's the long-term of ownership that follows. There is the fulfillment of warranty—the adjustments, corrections, minor repairs and replacements, checkups that are the routine part of breaking in any new car. That's when your home dealer is your car's best friend.

It is during this period, especially, that he saves you dollars of which you are sometimes not aware because he frequently does things not covered by warranty.

Then there is the period following parranty. If a defective part is discovered and examination shows it was defective at the time the car was purchased, many an owner has had the part replaced without charge.

Many a customer has had work done after warranty at considerable savings in order to keep him a satisfied customer, with confidence in his new car. These things, we are sure, are worth considering when you are about to purchase a new car or truck. The purchase is just the beginning.

And, when you consider that your earnings, your Lincoln dollars, stay in Lincoln, making Lincoln business better for everyone, doesn't that help to prove—"It's good business to buy at home."

Ike Opens Campaign With Rap At 'Doom Prophets'

. . . 'Crooked Fence Politics' Blasted

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday opened his personal efforts to strengthen Republican control of Congress in the fall elections with a blast at "prophets of doom" and "crooked fence politics."

While he mentioned no names in his speech at the Illinois State Fair's Republican Day celebration, the President obvioulsy referred to Democrats who contend the administration has been leading the nation into a depression.

The address before listeners estimated by the fairgrounds manager, Strother Jones, at 100,000 was the first in a planned cross-country drive in which Eisenhower will plead for the election of GOP candidates to both the House and the Senate.

He praised the Illinois Republican delegation as having worked hard in "helping me carry out my promises. . . to go to Washington and work for one thing and one thing only—the good of the United States of America."

The President recalled a story about a farmer building a fence so crooked that every time a mole bored under it "he found himself on the same side of the fence that he started," adding:

"Now, these economic prophets of doom have been building up a lot of fences of what they called economic statistics, but they have built the fence so crooked that every time they bored through them, they still find themselves on the side of pessimism and depression.

"It seems to me lately that they would like to forget the whole thing, and I think all of us are getting rather tired of crooked fence economic politics."

In a summary of foreign affairs developments during this administration, the President mentioned that the Korean War had ended; that a settlement had been made in Indochina; that the outlook is brighter in the Suez region, Iran and Guatemala and "we are moving with our alliess" toward formation of a Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

He said the domestic scene was brightened by congressional approval of his farm program substituting flexible price supports for rigid supports, by reductions provided in the tax revision bill he signed last week end by a 10-billion-dollar cut in federal spending.

Eisenhower flew to Springfield from Washington during the morning and, before his appearance at the Fairgrounds, placed a wreath on the tomb of Lincoln.

Belden Line Funds Await Ike Signing

Now awaiting signature by President Eisenhower is a bill which would provide funds to build a transmission line from the Gavins Point dam in South Dakota to Belden, Neb.

The supplementary appropriation bill includes $450,000 for construction of the line by the Bureau of Reclamation for wheeling of federal power to Nebraska's rural electrification districts.

The $450,000 appropriation had a rough passage through Congress. The House committee which originated the bill refused to include the Belden line money, so the bill went to the Senate without the funds included. When the Senate committee considered the bill, however, they added to it the Belden funds.

The supplemental appropriations bill then went to a Senate-House conference committee, which had to iron out differences between the Senate and House bills. The conference committee left in the bill the Belden funds. Since then, both houses have passed the amended bill, and it is awaiting signature by the President.

Also included in the bill were $1,300,000 Bostwick project on the Kansas-Nebraska line and a million dollars for starting of the Glendo Dam in Wyoming, which would provide some power and irrigation benefits for western Nebraska.

Iowan Enters Plea In Fugitive Count

Lloyd M. Reed, about 50, of Council Bluffs, has pleaded not guilty in Lancaster County Court to a fugitive from justice complaint.

The complaint was issued on an Oklahoma warrant alleging that Reed, alias Floyd Russell, has been charged with obtaining money by issuing a bogus check in Oklahoma.

Reed has been confined in the county jail here for contributing to the delinquency of a minor since Feb. 9 when he was sentenced to 90 days and fined $300.

Acting County Judge Ralph Slocum set hearing on the fugitive complaint for Sept. 4 and fixed appearance bond at $2,000.

WHERE?

Where Do Lincoln Dollars . . . Lincoln Earnings . . . Do the Most Good?

The answer, generally speaking is, IN LINCOLN.

The more earnings spent in Lincoln, the more of our money, our purchasing power, remains right here in circulation. This increases sales and makes business better for everyone.

Thus, your Lincoln New Car Dealers are making an honest and frank appeal for Lincoln business. They are competing for business on a thoroughly competitive basis. It isn't necessary to go out of town to get a good deal.

Sometimes the good deal out-of-town isn't nearly as attractive as it appears at first or second glance.

Remember, the deal is just the beginning. There's the long-term of ownership that follows. There is the fulfillment of warranty—the adjustments, corrections, minor repairs and replacements, checkups that are the routine part of breaking in any new car. That's when your home dealer is your car's best friend.

It is during this period, especially, that he saves you dollars of which you are sometimes not aware because he frequently does things not covered by warranty.

Then there is the period following parranty. If a defective part is discovered and examination shows it was defective at the time the car was purchased, many an owner has had the part replaced without charge.

Many a customer has had work done after warranty at considerable savings in order to keep him a satisfied customer, with confidence in his new car. These things, we are sure, are worth considering when you are about to purchase a new car or truck. The purchase is just the beginning.

And, when you consider that your earnings, your Lincoln dollars, stay in Lincoln, making Lincoln business better for everyone, doesn't that help to prove—"It's good business to buy at home."

Out Of Korea

"Generally, we are inclined to believe the American people feel that the hour has arrived for the withdrawal of American military forces from South Korea. Beyond the statement by the Defense Department in connection with its announcement that it would shift four divisions of American military men from South Korea in order to better serve the strategic interest of the United States, there was no information given out relative to the reason for the action that is to be taken.

South Korean officials reportedly were badly disturbed and frightened, an understandable attitude on the part of the South Koreans. From time to time there has arisen a great deal of bluster about making better use of the South Korean army. Actually nothing more substantial than loose talk was behind all this bluster The South Koreans then, and the South Koreans now, possibly, are in no position to defend South Korea's soil in the event the Communists decide to move in again.

This much, however, is certain. South Korea's armies are infinitely better trained and equipped to police South Korea's soil against outside attack than was the case at the outbreak of the Korean War South Korea has 20 divisions of trained soldiers in the ranks at this time, a creditable force and one that has had the best of training and experience for the performance of its duties If South Korea ever is going to be able to stand on its own feet it would appear to be the right time to put the country to a test. There is the admitted gamble of a fresh attack by the Communists But that gamble itself is not much greater than the one entailed in the cessation of South Korean hostilities.

Cleaning Up The Streams

Omaha, a federal health official insisted, is the worst river pollution offender on the banks of the Missouri River from its headwaters in Montana to its mouth just below St. Louis.

That may or may not be true. We assume the statement is fortified with supporting data. In any event, in these recent years the importance of cleaning up American streams in the interest of public health has impressed itself upon public thought repeatedly.

Omaha's situation, worst offender when it comes to pollution or not, is nevertheless typical of the situation that has grown up in this section of the country. Early years of growth on a modest scale were not sufficient to bring the problem of stream pollution to the attention of community builders and planners. It will cost Omaha, now a metropolitan city, growing bigger each year, spreading itself out, acquiring new businesses and industries, an approximate $15 million to construct the three sewage treatment plants required to halt dumping of sewage into the Missouri.

That is a lot of money, even for Omaha, but in the interest of communities down below and in its own interest, it is an expenditure which falls within the classification of a 'must' So Mayor Rosenblatt suggested the Omaha Improvement Commission was the proper agency to take the lead in a clean-up program In that connection, the mayor also suggested that federal financing would help get the job started without too much delay. If there is any one step that can be counted as purely local responsibility, however, it is this matter of preventing stream pollution.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Tobacco, we learned from the news columns, is one, the only one, of a limited number of basic farm commodities which Mr. Benson, administering his flexible farm support program, will maintain on a basis of 90 per cent of parity. Lucky tobacco! Obviously the step to be taken by Nebraska wheat growers is a switch from production of the bread grain to a bountiful crop of tobacco. Tobacco is not a crop exactly adapted to conditions in this state. If it were, a swing from wheat to tobacco production would only result in tobacco's becoming surplus, in which event Mr. Benson would apply his formula for the most rigid acreage control, plus the additional discourager of lowered support prices. But simply the idea that thousands of Nebraska farmers get out of the wheat-raising business and center their attention and time on raising tobacco indicates the absurdity of Benson's plan.

Wheat Goes Begging

Not to be taken too seriously, then, by Nebraska's wheat growers is the temptation to get out of the wheat business and up to one's hips in tobacco. There was a story Wednesday in the news columns which every member of Congress and back of it the American people should read, although we fear very few of them will. It was a story dealing with a report by FAO, an agency of the United Nations. "The world's farmers," it said, "are getting progressively less for producing steadily more, yet the cost of food to consumers has not gone down. Marketing costs," this report set forth, "represent from 30 to 50 per cent and at times nearly 70 per cent of the food costs to the consumer." But here is a paragraph which we think the present administration, the President, his secretary of agriculture, the members of Congress should read. "World trade in foodstuffs has become static at almost exactly the 1934-36 pre-war level. The static condition is in sharp contrast to the steady expansion of agricultural production and indicates that a gradually diminishing proportion of the world's output is entering international trade . . . Wheat represents the crux of the problem," the report said. There were two points to the Benson program. One was for the farmer to shift from crops in surplus to crops not in surplus The other was new uses, new markets, new demands for those commodities now in surplus.

★

The report blankly declares that in those sections of the world—the Near East, the Far East and Africa—where the fear of the spread of Communism is the greatest, the want for adequate food rations is also greatest. In short, some of those regions may cry for food and the free world gives its answer by supplying military equipment.

★

Entering Upon Old Experiment

There is nothing new in any of this. It is an old road upon which we are embarking, one which we followed before, one which brought us to our knees in pain. The administration says that anyone who talks in this language is a prophet of doom. Speaking at the Illinois State Fair to open the congressional fall campaign and, incidentally, speaking in support of a Republican isolationist candidate for the United States Senate, the President insisted that any political party or any individual who could see trouble ahead, trouble growing out of present-day policy, was a prophet of doom. The President's criticism of the opposition in rural areas to his program is not too important After all, the prophet or prophets of doom if they stick to honest facts have nothing to fear. When farm economy and farmers get into trouble, the prophet of doom will be able to say to them that he told them so, although it will give him very little satisfaction.

★

The man whose election Mr. Eisenhower sought in Springfield yesterday is agin' reciprocal trading agreement programs, a high tariff advocate, and generally of conservative, reactionary outlook.

Hooked

Cupid lurks in many spots and wears countless faces. There was the 82-year-old gal who met an interesting man quite by accident in the reception room of a Seattle doctor's office And the doctor's receptionist, with a dreamy eye on romance, who juggled her appointment schedule so that the two continued to meet casually and often. And the doctor himself who promised the lady a new hat if she snared the eligible widower in her marital trap She got the man—and the hat

But then, what man would have a chance against two conniving women, to say nothing of the added handicap of another traitorous male?

Citizen Koiyakok

After a valiant lifetime struggle against it, civilization has reached out and engulfed Jim Koiyakok, and from a passive state of mere tolerance, the aged one has apparently moved into the realm of actual pleasure at the contacts it occasionally brings his way. For it was Jim Koiyakok, 80 honored years resting lightly on his broad and powerful shoulders, former medicine man for the Arctic's most primitive Eskimo tribe, who was chosen together with his people to roll out the welcome mat for the Duke of Edinburgh, royal emissary of Her Highness, Queen Elizabeth, on his visit to Canadian Northwest Territory.

For 27 years the Copper Eskimos, whose habitat lies on Coronation Gulf off the Arctic Sea, have been carrying on an active feud with the white man. Chief proponent of the unfriendly feeling was Jim Koiyakok. He it was who founded the fanatical cult to keep smoldering the fires of hatred while he went about his erstwhile ambition of advancing from medicine man to a minor god.

But the seas wash away at the cliffs and moons wax and wane—and minor gods tumble down to private citizen status as time has a way of equalizing all. The little settlement of 250 dwellers, once regarded as the most hostile, today is considered among the friendliest. That is why Private Citizen Jim Koiyakok was chosen to greet the Duke. It was a gesture on the part of both that ugly, feeling was no more and that friendship sealed the bond.

The venerable long-haired old Eskimo who even attends the white man's church today received the Duke impressively beneath a canopy of 25 caribou skins sewn together with sinews. He and his wife, Annie, chanted a tribal folk song to their own pie-plate accompaniment, and danced for their royal guest.

And the Duke, from his seat of honor on an up-ended packing case, smiled and pronounced it one of the most enjoyable visits he'd ever had.

Red Moon

A dental surgeon from Brussels was addressing a gathering in Italy of the International Congress of Star Gazers, Palm Readers and Students of Things Unseen when he explained the delicate facets of world equilibrium by the illustration that if the Russians were to attack Europe and march toward the Congo, they would move the axis of the earth so much that Moscow would become the North Pole, and Australia the South Pole. Another scientist, an American, has estimated that an artificial moon could be created for less than $10 million.

We're in favor of taking the $10 million from funds destined for military expense, building the moon, inhabitating it with the Russians and propelling it off into outer space among the things unseen, since it would be a "non-returnable satellite vehicle." Then everyone's equilibrium could settle back again onto a nice, even keel.

Beautiful Blue Bugs

The Danube River Valley has reportedly been feverishly engaged in battling swarms of invading mosquitoes. Those diognosing the invaders must have been mistaken. The attraction surely must be blue-tailed flies.

Passage Of Communist Outlaw Bill Unexpected

WASHINGTON—Strange things happen in Congress, especially in these closing days. There are strange debates, strange people, strange sights.

On the Senate subway car the other day sat a Negro boy aged about eight He seemed very small But his eyes were big, as tourists, secretaries, senators piled onto the car How he found himself down in the basement of the capitol of the United States, riding on the little car largely reserved for senators which connects the capitol with the Senate Office Building, no one knew

But he was there, wedged in beside Sen. Ed Johnson of Colorado, a huge hulk of a man, with hands like hams and massive shoulders developed from shoveling coal as a fireman on the Union Pacific.

The little Negro boy had no idea who was wedged in beside him as they had a pleasant ride together from the capitol where laws are passed, through the basement to the Senate Office Building where laws are written

Yes strange things happen in Congress

A sleepy House of Representatives stenographer scribbled down testimony. A Capitol Hill policeman drowsed in a chair by the door Congressman Louis Graham of Pennsylvania presided. One lone member of his congressional committee—Congresswoman Ruth Thompson of Michigan, sat beside him.

They were listening to testimony proposing to outlaw the Communist party, and nobody seemed to care.

Judge Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court was testifying—on a subject which a few weeks later was to electrify Washington. But on that sleepy morning, only one spectator was in the hearing-room—Blair Taylor, former head of the Tolstoi Foundation.

Judge Musmanno was supporting the bill introduced by Congressman Martin Dies of Texas. Sometime before, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine had also introduced a bill to outlaw the Communist party But no one paid any more attention to it than they did to Dies' bill, nor to that of Congressman Francis Walter of Pennsylvania.

"It takes only one man to blow up a bridge, only one auger to sink a ship, only one monkey wrench to wreck a machine, only one bucket of sand to ruin a dynamo, only one Alger Hiss in striped pants to betray America into the hands of her enemies" droned Judge Musmanno to the sleepy stenographer, the bored cop, and the audience of one.

Chairman Graham complimented him on his testimony.

"I would like to ask you or the justice or someone where I could get a copy of the Daily Worker," piped up pleasant Congresswoman Thompson.

"I shall send you several copies," offered Justice Musmanno.

"Can you buy it on the newsstands?"

"Yes," said the judge. 'They always have a synonym against my name. They call me Michael Musmanno, witch-hunter"

Miss Thompson told a story about a girl who worked on her staff, whose father subscribed to a Communist magazine, and she had fired the girl. Congressman Graham told how he had arrested a switchman before he could wreck a train in Beaver Pa There were other pleasant anecdotes. Judge Musmanno was thanked again and departed

The bored stenographer had long since departed. So had the capitol cop. The meeting on outlawing the Communist party was over. No one ever dreamed that it would be taken up as serious legislation.

Nobody dreamed it would be unanimously passed by the senate. J. Edgar Hoover and Attorney General Brownell both were against it. Nobody dreamed it could have the White House and Justice Department in conniption fits trying to find a compromise way out.

But strange things happen in Congress.

Yes, strange things happen in Congress—strange debates, strange rows, strange rivalries.

Charley Halleck, the majority leader, was driving the boys to vote for postal increases and postal pay——as one package, and he was driving hard.

"As we say back in Indiana" he warned, "this is it. You won't get another chance to vote on this bill"

But Charley this time was wrong. The House would not accept his neat little package—at that time—and the postal pay bill did come up again. When it did come up Charlie was out in Wisconsin, fishing.

Leslie Arends of Illinois, the majority whip who took over for Halleck, tried to whip the boys into line with a speech prepared for him by the administration. But it fell on deaf ears. The mailmen and postal clerks were long overdue for a raise, regardless of an increase in the price of stamps, and the vote for a pay increase was overwhelming. Only 29 backed up the administration.

☆ ☆ ☆

Yes, strange things happen in Congress—strange things, paradoxical things, humorous things.

Roy Cohn, the erstwhile McCarthy counsel, was strolling through a capitol corridor, a long black cigar in his mouth

A youngster about 13 ran up, gazed at the imperturbable face behind the cigar. Television has done a lot of things; among others it has stamped that face on the minds of young America.

"Hello Mr. Cohn," said a voice filled with admiration.

The important person behind that cigar was not sure whether to recognize such youthful attention. He was accustomed to talking to senators, making witnesses quail He hesitated, finally pulled the big cigar from his mouth.

"Hello, kid," he said sternly, put the cigar back again.

The strange sights will soon be over and Washington can go back to its summertime occupation of escaping the heat with mint juleps in drowsy Georgetown gardens.

DORIS FLEESON

Oil Industry Skittish On Campaign Funds

WASHINGTON—One worry of liberals in both parties may be mitigated this fall. If the oil industry as a whole can manage it, there will be less "oil money" in the campaign and what there is will be more equably distributed.

Republican sources are authority for the statement that the oil industry has taken fright from the increasing tide of liberal victories, especially in the South. These sources say that oil men were already uneasily conscious of the bad publicity accorded the political contributions and activities of the Texas oil millionaires, many of them special friends of Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

Recent primary returns have convinced them that the Texans are making the worst mistake of all: they are picking losers. And the victors probably have it within their power to shut off the major source of the campaign funds poured out so liberally in the effort to elect a reactionary Congress.

For the oil wealth being siphoned into politics—much of it from Texas—is made possible during these days, while most people groan under the tax burden, by congressional generosity in providing a 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance. No business or salaried person can approach such an advantage.

The depletion-allowance principle is an old story. It is based on the contention that it is necessary to encourage the discovery and production of oil. The tax allowance was upped to its present high figure in wartime and political pressure has kept it there in a time of peace and oil plenty. Former President Truman tried in vain to cut it.

Virtually every liberal who has won in this year's primaries—such as John J. Sparkman in Alabama, Estes Kefauver in Tennessee, Margaret Chase Smith in Maine—has complained that "oil money" was made available to defeat them. Most of them hammered on the theme in their campaigns and made a special point of explaining how the oilmen happened to have so much money to spare. The tax-conscious public apparently got the idea. It could even be argued that they gave the successful candidates a mandate to review the depletion allowance.

The Texans also have identified oil with McCarthy to a degree that bothers the more sedate members of the industry. The senator from Wisconsin is described in the cloak rooms as rather free with promises to get oil money for those who will run against people he dislikes. While this is not necessarily binding upon oilmen, even his Texan friends, it does not make new friends for them.

The next Congress almost surely will be to the left of the present one. And taxpayers who have heard the depletion story from men they apparently like and trust most certainly will support any moves they make to curb it.

Southern Democrats—notably the Texans who lead the Democrats in both houses, Rep. Sam Rayburn and Sen Lyndon Johnson—have held the line on the depletion allowance. Then they have had to sit by and watch while party bolters profited from it. The pressures of Texas politics probably will keep Rayburn and Johnson at the barricades, but, as the fight on the atomic energy bill proved, pressures can be built up here, too, which it would be impossible to withstand.

When liberals talk of the problem of oil money in their campaigns, even the most responsible among them mention wistfully what wonderful witnesses Texans H. L Hunt of Facts Forum and his fabled $160,000 a day after taxes, H R. Cullen, Clint Murchison and others would make at a public hearing. And late returns indicate it's not an idle dream.

Now, Wyoming Sunsets Blown Our Way

By MONA B. PARKER

Comstock was still on the fringes while other areas were receiving bountiful rains. The sarcastic repartee of Editor Edward Krikac was far from dried up, however

"Tuesday afternoon," reported he in the News, "it rained the hardest we have seen it rain for some time. It lasted about five seconds"

☆ ☆ ☆

R J. Senft looks forward optimistically to better than a fair sized corn crop, after rainfall that might have come a little earlier in the season for the grower's peace of mind. Many of the farmers around Table Rock have remarked to him that they guessed their corn would make it now—if the frost didn't get it.

His own observation: "From the position of the ears on the tall stalks of corn we have seen, we believe there is going to be quite a demand for stepladders around here this fall."

Last week Hebron was giving that neighboring state credit for some Texas-sized tomatoes, conceding that it might be that "Texas dirt blowing into the Midwest this spring that had something to do with it"

Now Wyoming wants its share of civic glory and moves into the spotlight via the writings of one of its columning sons. Roy S Brookman of the Springview Herald had been editorially extolling the beauties of a particular Nebraska sunset, when Lou Musser of the Casper Morning Star—whose specialty in word pictures is Wyoming evening skies—declared, "It was probably one of our Wyoming sunsets blown down that way by the wind."

To which Mr. Brookman replied: "Well, Lou, having lived in Casper two years, I fully realize the wind you have there could have blown the sunset to Nebraska, or even to New York City. Move down to Springview, Lou, where you don't need two hands, a rubber band and a 10-pound weight on top of your hat to hold it on when going down the street."

Virg Hill used a gastronomical note of comparisson between old times and the new in his Fairbury News column . . .

"The old-fashioned Nebraska family that always had a barrel of sauerkraut handy now buys even its potato salad at the grocery store, and everybody—but mother, who doesn't work so hard any more—thinks modernization is ruining us all."

☆ ☆ ☆

Despite which, the Fairbury fire hall looks to modernization in all the comfort it can afford. "A cool time in the fire hall" is the way they are describing the city council's recent action to spend $400 for the purchase of an air conditioner for sleeping quarters there. Sufficient money remained in the fund that must either be spent or revert back to the general fund in city finances.

St. Paul has a laudable method of law-enforcement that might well be followed by other communities. A Kansan, fined there in the amount of $10 and professing himself unable to pay the fine, was put to work cleaning manholes. Two days of labor at $5 a day took care of the assessment to the city's satisfaction, if not the young man's.

Mrs. J. W. Tyler, from her vantage point overlooking the Peru campus, thinks Christian Dior's name must surely be a misnomer, inasmuch as he now dictates that women of style must flatten themselves into boyish figures, ignore their waistlines and wear dresses designed like feed sacks. If the younger generation would like to see them in all of what Mrs. Tyler calls their "horrible reality," she thinks she still has one hanging away in the dim recesses of her closet, as do several of her friends, and she threatens to model them. "They are really bad," she emphasizes.

The Price Ratio

Blair, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The passage of the Republican-Eisenhower-Benson flexible price support bill means just one thing to Nebraska and the corn-wheat belt, and that is a further lowered farm income. It's the same old story. The farmer is the goat. He is getting no relief in the market place and will get none in the foreseeable future.

The Republicans are telling us townspeople that one of the chief reasons for the higher prices we pay in the market place for our foodstuffs is the result of high prices to the farmer. How much difference in the price of milk for our children came as the result of knocking down parity on milk products months ago? How much difference will there be in the price of flour, bread, cornmeal and feed as the result of this new move by Mr. Eisenhower to further cut the farmer's income?

Why isn't some parallel action being taken by this administration to cut down the huge expenditures to big industry which maintains its increased profits and higher wages while keeping inflation prices for all that the farmer and townspeople have to purchase in the market place?

Reducing further the farmer's income while permitting industry and labor to gorge can result in nothing but eventual depression over the entire country.

Will the voters of Nebraska awaken by November election time?

Back On The List

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is just a suggestion for the Board of Regents to consider—based on good business judgment.

From 38th and Holdrege to 48th and Leighton Street is a distance of 17 blocks. This land is non-taxable and used for pasture land, some waste land and experimental farming by the College of Agriculture.

Why would it not be profitable to cut back 150 feet along this 17-block area and sell these lots? It would bring considerably over $100,000. It also would put this property on the tax list and help University Place develop much faster, as it is now the highway from Holdrege to Garland on North 48th and is only a narrow lane. It is expected to carry six lanes of traffic, as thousands of cars go over this narrow lane daily, according to records

Let us get busy and give University Place a boost and in the end everyone will profit by good business judgment. It is time to put some property back on the tax list to help the individual taxpayer.

FRIGHTENING

Fright has the strangest sorts of seeds.
One kind from which it grows is
When little girls push little beads
Into their noses.

We guard with care the ones we love.
But who supposes
That little girls will think to shove
Beads up their noses?

A necklace near the other day
And Margie did that,
Causing her mother pale to say:
"I should have hid that."

Long seemed the time we lived in dread,
As near we hovered,
Until the smiling doctor said:
"Beads all recovered."

Out Of Korea

Generally, we are inclined to believe the American people feel that the hour has arrived for the withdrawal of American military forces from South Korea. Beyond the statement by the Defense Department in connection with its announcement that it would shift four divisions of American military men from South Korea in order to better serve the strategic interest of the United States, there was no information given out relative to the reason for the action that is to be taken.

South Korean officials reportedly were badly disturbed and frightened, an understandable attitude on the part of the South Koreans. From time to time there has arisen a great deal of bluster about making better use of the South Korean army. Actually nothing more substantial than loose talk was behind all this bluster. The South Koreans then, and the South Koreans now, possibly, are in no position to defend South Korea's soil in the event the Communists decide to move in again.

This much, however, is certain. South Korea's armies are infinitely better trained and equipped to police South Korea's soil against outside attack than was the case at the outbreak of the Korean War. South Korea has 20 divisions of trained soldiers in the ranks at this time, a creditable force and one that has had the best of training and experience for the performance of its duties. If South Korea ever is going to be able to stand on its own feet, it would appear to be the right time to put the country to a test. There is the admitted gamble of a fresh attack by the Communists. But that gamble itself is not much greater than the one entailed in the cessation of South Korean hostilities.

Cleaning Up The Streams

Omaha, a federal health official insisted, is the worst river pollution offender on the banks of the Missouri River from its headwaters in Montana to its mouth just below St. Louis.

That may or may not be true. We assume the statement is fortified with supporting data. In any event, in these recent years the importance of cleaning up American streams in the interest of public health has impressed itself upon public thought repeatedly.

Omaha's situation, worst offender when it comes to pollution or not, is nevertheless typical of the sitiuation that has grown up in this section of the country. Early years of growth on a modest scale were not sufficient to bring the problem of stream pollution to the attention of community builders and planners. It will cost Omaha, now a metropolitan city, growing bigger each year, spreading itself out, acquiring new businesses and industries, an approximate $15 million to construct the three sewage treatment plants required to halt dumping of sewage into the Missouri.

That is a lot of money, even for Omaha, but in the interest of communities down below and in its own interest, it is an expenditure which falls within the classification of a "must." So Mayor Rosenblatt suggested the Omaha Improvement Commission was the proper agency to take the lead in a clean-up program. In that connection, the mayor also suggested that federal financing would help get the job started without too much delay. If there is any one step that can be counted as purely local responsibility, however, it is this matter of preventing stream pollution.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Tobacco, we learned from the news columns, is one, the only one, of a limited number of basic farm commodities which Mr. Benson, administering his flexible farm support program, will maintain on a basis of 90 per cent of parity. Lucky tobacco! Obviously the step to be taken by Nebraska wheat growers is a switch from production of the bread grain to a bountiful crop of tobacco. Tobacco is not a crop exactly adapted to conditions in this state. If it were, a swing from wheat to tobacco production would only result in tobacco's becoming surplus, in which event Mr. Benson would apply his formula for the most rigid acreage control, plus the additional discourager of lowered support prices. But simply the idea that thousands of Nebraska farmers get out of the wheat-raising business and center their attention and time on raising tobacco indicates the absurdity of Benson's plan.

Wheat Goes Begging

Not to be taken too seriously, then, by Nebraska's wheat growers is the temptation to get out of the wheat business and up to one's hips in tobacco. There was a story Wedensday in the news columns which every member of Congress and back of it the American people should read, although we fear very few of them will. It was a story dealing with a report by FAO, an agency of the United Nations. "The world's farmers," it said, "are getting progressively less for producing steadily more, yet the cost of food to consumers has not gone down. Marketing costs," this report set forth, "represent from 30 to 50 per cent and at times nearly 70 per cent of the food costs to the consumer." But here is a paragraph which we think the present administration, the President, his secretary of agriculture, the members of Congress should read. "World trade in foodstuffs has become static at almost exactly the 1934-36 pre-war level. The static condition is in sharp contrast to the steady expansion of agricultural production and indicates that a gradually diminishing proportion of the world's output is entering international trade. . . . Wheat represents the crux of the problem," the report said. There were two points to the Benson program. One was for the farmer to shift from crops in surplus to crops not in surplus. The other was new uses, new markets, new demands for those commodities now in surplus.

★

The report blankly declares that in those sections of the world—the Near East, the Far East and Africa—where the fear of the spread of Communism is the greatest, the want for adequate food rations is also greatest. In short, some of those regions may cry for food and the free world gives its answer by supplying military equipment.

★

Entering Upon Old Experiment

There is nothing new in any of this. It is an old road upon which we are embarking, one which we followed before, one which brought us to our knees in pain. The administration says that anyone who talks in this language is a prophet of doom. Speaking at the Illinois State Fair to open the congressional fall campaign and, incidentally, speaking in support of a Republican isolationist candidate for the United States Senate, the President insisted that any political party or any individual who could see trouble ahead, trouble growing out of present-day policy, was a prophet of doom. The President's criticism of the opposition in rural areas to his program is not too important. After all, the prophet or prophets of doom if they stick to honest facts have nothing to fear. When farm economy and farmers get into trouble, the prophet of doom will be able to say to them that he told them so, although it will give him very little satisfaction.

Hooked

Cupid lurks in many spots and wears countless faces. There was the 82-year-old gal who met an interesting man quite by accident in the reception room of a Seattle doctor's office. And the doctor's receptionist, with a dreamy eye on romance, who juggled her appointment schedule so that the two continued to meet casually and often. And the doctor himself who promised the lady a new hat if she snared the eligible widower in her marital trap. She got the man—and the hat.

But then, what man would have a chance against two conniving women, to say nothing of the added handicap of another traitorous male?

Citizen Koiyakok

After a valiant lifetime struggle against it, civilization has reached out and engulfed Jim Koiyakok, and from a passive state of mere tolerance, the aged one has apparently moved into the realm of actual pleasure at the contacts it occasionally brings his way. For it was Jim Koiyakok, 80 honored years resting lightly on his broad and powerful shoulders, former medicine man for the Arctic's most primitive Eskimo tribe, who was chosen together with his people to roll out the welcome mat for the Duke of Edinburgh, royal emissary of Her Highness, Queen Elizabeth, on his visit to Canadian Northwest Territory.

For 27 years the Copper Eskimos, whose habitat lies on Coronation Gulf off the Arctic Sea, have been carrying on an active feud with the white man. Chief proponent of the unfriendly feeling was Jim Koiyakok. He it was who founded the fanatical cult to keep smoldering the fires of hatred while he went about his erstwhile ambition of advancing from medicine man to a minor god.

But the seas wash away at the cliffs and moons wax and wane—and minor gods tumble down to private citizen status as time has a way of equalizing all. The little settlement of 250 dwellers, once regarded as the most hostile, today is considered among the friendliest. That is why Private Citizen Jim Koiyakok was chosen to greet the Duke. It was a gesture on the part of both that ugly feeling was no more and that friendship sealed the bond.

The venerable long-haired old Eskimo who even attends the white man's church today received the Duke impressively beneath a canopy of 25 caribou skins sewn together with sinews. He and his wife, Annie, chanted a tribal folk song to their own pie-plate accompaniment, and danced for their royal guest.

And the Duke, from his seat of honor on an up-ended packing case, smiled and pronounced it one of the most enjoyable visits he'd ever had.

Red Moon

A dental surgeon from Brussels was addressing a gathering in Italy of the International Congress of Star Gazers, Palm Readers and Students of Things Unseen when he explained the delicate facets of world equilibrium by the illustration that if the Russians were to attack Europe and march toward the Congo, they would move the axis of the earth so much that Moscow would become the North Pole, and Australia the South Pole. Another scientist, an American, has estimated that an artificial moon could be created for less than $10 million.

We're in favor of taking the $10 million from funds destined for military expense, building the moon, inhabitating it with the Russians and propelling it off into outer space among the things unseen, since it would be a "non-returnable satellite vehicle." Then everyone's equilibrium could settle back again onto a nice, even keel.

Passage Of Communist Outlaw Bill Unexpected

WASHINGTON—Strange things happen in Congress, especially in these closing days. There are strange debates, strange people, strange sights.

On the Senate subway car the other day sat a Negro boy aged about eight. He seemed very small. But his eyes were big, as tourists, secretaries, senators piled onto the car. How he found himself down in the basement of the capitol of the United States, riding on the little car largely reserved for senators which connects the capitol with the Senate Office Building, no one knew.

But he was there, wedged in beside Sen. Ed Johnson of Colorado, a huge hulk of a man, with hands like hams and massive shoulders developed from shoveling coal as a fireman on the Union Pacific.

The little Negro boy had no idea who was wedged in beside him as they had a pleasant ride together from the capitol where laws are passed, through the basement to the Senate Office Building where laws are written.

Yes, strange things happen in Congress.

A sleepy House of Representatives stenographer scribbled down testimony. A Capitol Hill policeman drowsed in a chair by the door. Congressman Louis Graham of Pennsylvania presided. One lone member of his congressional committee—Congresswoman Ruth Thompson of Michigan, sat beside him.

They were listening to testimony proposing to outlaw the Communist party, and nobody seemed to care.

Judge Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court was testifying—on a subject which a few weeks later was to electrify Washington. But on that sleepy morning, only one spectator was in the hearing-room—Blair Taylor, former head of the Tolstoi Foundation.

Judge Musmanno was supporting the bill introduced by Congressman Martin Dies of Texas. Sometime before, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine had also introduced a bill to outlaw the Communist party. But no one paid any more attention to it than they did to Dies' bill, nor to that of Congressman Francis Walter of Pennsylvania.

"It takes only one man to blow up a bridge, only one auger to sink a ship, only one monkey wrench to wreck a machine, only one bucket of sand to ruin a dynamo, only one Alger Hiss in striped pants to betray America into the hands of her enemies," droned Judge Musmanno to the sleepy stenographer, the bored cop, and the audience of one.

Chairman Graham complimented him on his testimony.

"I would like to ask you or the justice or someone where I could get a copy of the Daily Worker," piped up pleasant Congresswoman Thompson.

"I shall send you several copies," offered Justice Musmanno.

"Can you buy it on the newsstands?"

"Yes," said the judge. "They always have a synonym against my name. They call me Michael Musmanno, witch-hunter."

Miss Thompson told a story about a girl who worked on her staff, whose father subscribed to a Communist magazine, and she had fired the girl. Congressman Graham told how he had arrested a switchman before he could wreck a train in Beaver, Pa. There were other pleasant anecdotes. Judge Musmanno was thanked again and departed.

The bored stenographer had long since departed. So had the capitol cop. The meeting on outlawing the Communist party was over. No one ever dreamed that it would be taken up as serious legislation.

Nobody dreamed it would be unanimously passed by the senate. J. Edgar Hoover and Attorney General Brownell both were against it. Nobody dreamed it could have the White House and Justice Department in conniption fits trying to find a compromise way out.

But strange things happen in Congress.

Yes, strange things happen in Congress—strange debates, strange rows, strange rivalries.

Charley Halleck, the majority leader, was driving the boys to vote for postal increases and postal pay——as one package, and he was driving hard.

"As we say back in Indiana," he warned, "this is it. You won't get another chance to vote on this bill."

But Charley this time was wrong. The House would not accept his neat little package—at that time—and the postal pay bill did come up again. When it did come up Charlie was out in Wisconsin, fishing.

Leslie Arends of Illinois, the majority whip who took over for Halleck, tried to whip the boys into line with a speech prepared for him by the administration. But it fell on deaf ears. The mailmen and postal clerks were long overdue for a raise, regardless of an increase in the price of stamps, and the vote for a pay increase was overwhelming. Only 29 backed up the administration.

☆ ☆ ☆

Yes, strange things happen in Congress—strange things, paradoxical things, humorous things.

Roy Cohn, the erstwhile McCarthy counsel, was strolling through a capitol corridor, a long black cigar in his mouth.

A youngster about 13 ran up, gazed at the imperturbable face behind the cigar. Television has done a lot of things; among others it has stamped that face on the minds of young America.

"Hello Mr. Cohn," said a voice filled with admiration.

The important person behind that cigar was not sure whether to recognize such youthful attention. He was accustomed to talking to senators, making witnesses quail. He hesitated, finally pulled the big cigar from his mouth.

"Hello, kid," he said sternly, put the cigar back again.

The strange sights will soon be over and Washington can go back to its summertime occupation of escaping the heat with mint juleps in drowsy Georgetown gardens.

Oil Industry Skittish On Campaign Funds

WASHINGTON—One worry of liberals in both parties may be mitigated this fall. If the oil industry as a whole can manage it, there will be less "oil money" in the campaign and what there is will be more equably distributed.

Republican sources are authority for the statement that the oil industry has taken fright from the increasing tide of liberal victories, especially in the South. These sources say that oil men were already uneasily conscious of the bad publicity accorded the political contributions and activities of the Texas oil millionaires, many of them special friends of Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

Recent primary returns have convinced them that the Texans are making the worst mistake of all: they are picking losers. And the victors probably have it within their power to shut off the major source of the campaign funds poured out so liberally in the effort to elect a reactionary Congress.

For the oil wealth being siphoned into politics—much of it from Texas—is made possible during these days, while most people groan under the tax burden, by congressional generosity in providing a 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance. No business or salaried person can approach such an advantage.

The depletion-allowance principle is an old story. It is based on the contention that it is necessary to encourage the discovery and production of oil. The tax allowance was upped to its present high figure in wartime and political pressure has kept it there in a time of peace and oil plenty. Former President Truman tried in vain to cut it.

Virtually every liberal who has won in this year's primaries—such as John J. Sparkman in Alabama, Estes Kefauver in Tennessee, Margaret Chase Smith in Maine—has complained that "oil money" was made available to defeat them. Most of them hammered on the theme in their campaigns and made a special point of explaining how the oilmen happened to have so much money to spare. The tax-conscious public apparently got the idea. It could even be argued that they gave the successful candidates a mandate to review the depletion allowance.

The Texans also have identified oil with McCarthy to a degree that bothers the more sedate members of the industry. The senator from Wisconsin is described in the cloak rooms as rather free with promises to get oil money for those who will run against people he dislikes. While this is not necessarily binding upon oilmen, even his Texan friends, it does not make new friends for them.

The next Congress almost surely will be to the left of the present one. And taxpayers who have heard the depletion story from men they apparently like and trust most certainly will support any moves they make to curb it.

Southern Democrats—notably the Texans who lead the Democrats in both houses, Rep. Sam Rayburn and Sen. Lyndon Johnson—have held the line on the depletion allowance. Then they have had to sit by and watch while party bolters profited from it. The pressures of Texas politics probably will keep Rayburn and Johnson at the barricades, but, as the fight on the atomic energy bill proved, pressures can be built up here, too, which it would be impossible to withstand.

When liberals talk of the problem of oil money in their campaigns, even the most responsible among them mention wistfully what wonderful witnesses Texans H. L. Hunt of Facts Forum and his fabled $160,000 a day after taxes, H. R. Cullen, Clint Murchison and others would make at a public hearing. And late returns indicate it's not an idle dream.

The Republicans are telling us townspeople that one of the chief reasons for the higher prices we pay in the market place for our foodstuffs is the result of high prices to the farmer. How much difference in the price of milk for our children came as the result of knocking down parity on milk products months ago? How much difference will there be in the price of flour, bread, cornmeal and feed as the result of this new move by Mr. Eisenhower to further cut the farmer's income?

Why isn't some parallel action being taken by this administration to cut down the huge expenditures to big industry which maintains its increased profits and higher wages while keeping inflation prices for all that the farmer and townspeople have to purchase in the market place?

Reducing further the farmer's income while permitting industry and labor to gorge can result in nothing but eventual depression over the entire country.

Will the voters of Nebraska awaken by November election time?

Back On The List

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is just a suggestion for the Board of Regents to consider—based on good business judgment.

From 38th and Holdrege to 48th and Leighton Street is a distance of 17 blocks. This land is non-taxable and used for pasture land, some waste land and experimental farming by the College of Agriculture.

Why would it not be profitable to cut back 150 feet along this 17-block area and sell these lots? It would bring considerably over $100,000. It also would put this property on the tax list and help University Place develop much faster, as it is now the highway from Holdrege to Garland on North 48th and is only a narrow lane. It is expected to carry six lanes of traffic, as thousands of cars go over this narrow lane daily, according to records.

Let us get busy and give University Place a boost and in the end everyone will profit by good business judgment. It is time to put some property back on the tax list to help the individual taxpayer.

FRIGHTENING

Fright has the strangest sorts of seeds.
One kind from which it grows is
When little girls push little beads
Into their noses.

We guard with care the ones we love.
But who supposes
That little girls will think to shove
Beads up their noses?

A necklace near the other day
And Margie did that,
Causing her mother pale to say:
"I should have hid that."

Long seemed the time we lived in dread,
As near we hovered,
Until the smiling doctor said:
"Beads all recovered."

'Out-Of-State Truckers Taking Advantage Of North Platte Order'

State Engineer L. N. Ress said Thursday some out-of-state truckers are taking advantage of the fact that the Lincoln County District court has enjoined enforcement of the weight limit on axle groups.

The injunction was issued by Judge John Kuns at North Platte early in the summer. Employes of the State Highway Department's weighing station at North Platte are defendants in the suit.

The law, establishing a weight limit of 32,000 pounds on tandem axles, was designed to protect bridges.

11 Instances

Ress said there are 11 instances where the North Platte weighing station found trucks to be exceeding the weight limit, but no charges were filed because of the pending injunction.

The injunction applies only in the one county, but weighing stations in other counties are running up against increased opposition to their efforts to enforce the law because of the existing injunction at North Platte, Ress added

The injunction action was brought by Rush Clarke, North Platte attorney, in behalf of three truckers.

Colorado Trucks

Ress said most of the difficulty in enforcing the law is with trucks coming out of Colorado. He said seven of the eleven tickets on which no charges have been filed were from that state.

There are 12 weighing stations in the state

Four weighing station operators assigned to North Platte, accompanied by their foreman, conferred with State Engineer Ress about their troubles.

Ress backs up the actions of the operators, who are Highway Department employes

He said the stations are "being conducted absolutely to my satisfaction and the satisfaction of anyone else concerned with enforcement of the law."

U.S. Air Research Expansion Is Urged

2 Groups List 'Grim Realities'

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Editor

OMAHA (AP)—Two major aviation organizations—the Air Force Association (AFA) and the National Aeronautic Association (NAA)—called for an expanded and heightened air research and development program Thursday.

Directors of the AFA, in a policy statement, also urged Congress to adopt an "expanded information program, including full exploitation of modern technology to break the Soviet monopoly of communication behind the Iron Curtain."

The policy statement, presented for adoption by AFA members, listed among the "grim realities of the hydrogen age" the lack of evidence that peaceful coexistence with Soviet Communism is possible.

'Total Danger'

The NAA, composed of aero clubs scattered throughout the nation, adopted a resolution warning that the air atomic capability of Communism is increasing steadily.

It said that while the need of the free world for a magnified scientific research and development problem has been multiplied by the advent of supersonic flight and thermonuclear weapons, the various national programs in this field have actually diminished within the past three years.

Increased Research Asked

The NAA resolution therefore urged President Eisenhower to "move the research and development programs of the government to an increasing tempo and an expanding magnitude sufficient to maintain at least equal—and eventually superior quality in our air defense and retaliation weapons against aggression."

Thomas J. Lanphier of San Diego, NAA president, and a former president of the AFA, told the NAA annual convention that that U.S. research and development budget does not appear to be consistent wtih statements of the defense department that the quality of air power is increasing.

Jennings Randolph, a former West Virginia congressman, now assistant to the president of Capital Airlines, told the NAA that Congress has become more aviation-minded than ever before.

"If given the facts the congress will respond to the need, not only in national defense but in terms of economy and of maintenance of air power in time of peace," Randolph said.

Lanphier replied that neither congress nor the public understood or appreciated air power in an atomic age.

Balance Wrong

The AFA, composed of almost 40,000 Air Force personnel and veterans, is meeting separately from but concurrently with the NAA.

Its president, retired Air Force Gen. George C. Kenney, called for a strengthened reserve forces program.

"The reserve forces problem . . . has been kicked around for years, and no one in the Pentagon has yet come up with a sound program," Kenney said.

"Some one in Washington must see the picture in the light of present day conditions, lay down the missions, set up the requirements, plan for the administration of the reserve organization and put through the sound, carefully thought-out legislation needed to implement the program."

Levee System Aiding Crops

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—Because of the improved production of crops behind the agricultural levee system in the lower Nemaha Valley, Richardson County ACS Chairman Ray Lundy has asked that the lands be declared insurable by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

The history of this land before the completion of the levees was such that most of the land in the lower Nemaha was classified as non-insurable under the Federal Crop Insurance Program.

But Lundy pointed out that the bottomlands shielded by levees showed a very substantial increase in production in 1954, despite floods which wrecked prospects for crops upstream on the Nemaha and on Muddy Creek where there were no flood production levees. He now seeks reclassification of the land.

At present, Lundy said, applications covering 17,132 bushels of wheat, representing $40,932 in cash have been presented for the 1954 wheat loans by farmers with land behind the dikes. He said this represents only a small part of the wheat grown behind the levees this year.

Nebraska Share Of Wildlife Fund Set At $197,418

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of the Interior Ralph A. Tudor announced Thursday that $9,796,800 has been apportioned among the 48 states to aid restoration of development of their wildlife resources. Nebraska was allotted $197,418.

The money comes from an 11 per cent federal excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition, levied on manufacturers. It was allocated for this fiscal year ending June 30.

The total is $1,987,800 under last year's apportionment of $11,784,000.

In all, Tudor said, $10,266,258 was earmarked for wildlife in the states, Alaska, Hawaii and the Virgin Islands and for administration of the Pittman-Robertson act.

Unsuccessful Jail Escapee Is Given Prison Sentence

Lincoln Star Special

DAVID CITY, Neb.—The Lincoln man who unsuccessfully attempted to break out of the Butler County jail has been sentenced to the Nebraska Penitentiary by District Judge H. Emerson Kokjer.

Following a preliminary hearing in County Court, Frank B. Mahoney, 28, of Lincoln was bound over to District Court where he entered pleas of guilty to three counts two in connection with the issuance of no-fund checks and one for assault in his attack on David City police officer, Henry Struebing, when he attempted to escape from the jail on August 8.

Judge Kokjer sentenced him to one year on each no-fund check charge and two years for assault. He specified the sentences are to run concurrently.

Sheriff Joseph Meysenburg took Mahoney to the Nebraska Penitentiary to begin his sentence.

Scottsbluff Television Station Is Approved

Richardson Property Valuation Goes Down

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—The valuation of tangible property in Richardson County has dipped more than seven millions to a 1954 total of $33,292,632, County Assessor Henry Bruhn reported. This means that most tax-collecting units will boost their levies to compensate for the reduction in valuation.

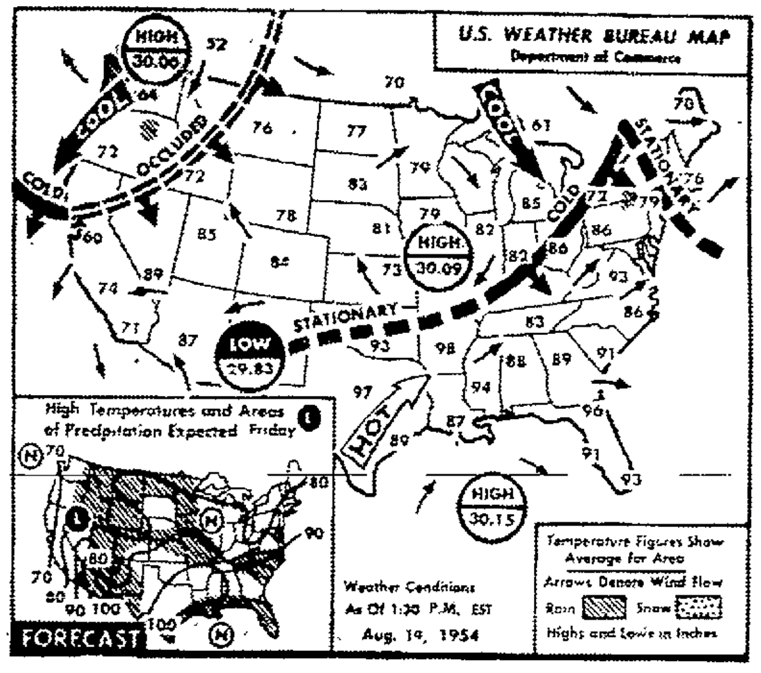
Basin Compact Plan Blocked

WASHINGTON (AP) — An objection by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa) Thursday blocked House consideration of a Senate-passed bill authorizing Missouri River Basin states to enter into a compact for disposition and allocation of waters of the Missouri and its tributaries.

The measure would have granted Congressional consent to Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Wyoming and South Dakota to negotiate the compact.

The objection apparently ended consideration of the legislation at this session.

Saylor told a reporter he objected because the Senate version of the bill was quite different from the bill considered by the House Interior Committee some months ago. He said there was no time now for the House committee to study the Senate version and he believed such a study was essential before the bill was brought up for final action on the House floor.



Temperatures To Remain Unchanged

Except for a cooler trend over the northeastern states, the nation will experience little variation in temperatures Friday. Scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast for the Gulf Coastal sections, the southern Appalachians and Carolinas, the central Mississippi Valley, the northern Plains and Rockies and most of the plateau region. Mother's Quick Action Saves David City Tot From Drowning

Lincoln Star Special

DAVID CITY, Neb.—A 3½-year-old David City girl and her mother are recovering from a frightening near-drowning experience. This incident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Trowbridge when little Jean Trowbridge fell in a hole filled with water and had to be rescued by her mother.

The hole was dug by city employees who were seeking the source of a water main break. The water flowing from the line break filled the hole, which was about five or six feet deep.

Mrs. Trowbridge had warned the youngsters not to go near the hole but, in a fraction of a minute while she was preparing the evening meal and was not able to watch them, Jean fell in the hole. Her 5-year-old sister, Anne, came screaming into the house and Mrs. Trowbridge, sensing something had happened to Jean, ran outside to see what had happened.

When she reached the hole, only the top of the youngster's head was visible. Mrs. Trowbridge jumped into the hole and managed to push Jean out of the hole on to dry ground and then climbed out herself. By tipping the child upside down and slapping her on the back, Mrs. Trowbridge managed to force out the water which the child had swallowed.

Levee System Aiding Crops

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—Because of the improved production of crops behind the agricultural levee system in the lower Nemaha Valley, Richardson County ACS Chairman Ray Lundy has asked that the lands be declared insurable by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

The history of this land before the completion of the levees was such that most of the land in the lower Nemaha was classified as non-insurable under the Federal Crop Insurance Program.

But Lundy pointed out that the bottomlands shielded by levees showed a very substantial increase in production in 1954, despite floods which wrecked prospects for crops upstream on the Nemaha and on Muddy Creek where there were no flood production levees. He now seeks reclassification of the land.

At present, Lundy said, applications covering 17,132 bushels of wheat, representing $40,932 in cash have been presented for the 1954 wheat loans by farmers with land behind the dikes. He said this represents only a small part of the wheat grown behind the levees this year.

Nebraska Share Of Wildlife Fund Set At $197,418

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of the Interior Ralph A. Tudor announced Thursday that $9,796,800 has been apportioned among the 48 states to aid restoration of development of their wildlife resources. Nebraska was allotted $197,418.

The money comes from an 11 per cent federal excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition, levied on manufacturers. It was allocated for this fiscal year ending June 30.

The total is $1,987,800 under last year's apportionment of $11,784,000.

In all, Tudor said, $10,266,258 was earmarked for wildlife in the states, Alaska, Hawaii and the Virgin Islands and for administration of the Pittman-Robertson act.

Unsuccessful Jail Escapee Is Given Prison Sentence

Lincoln Star Special

DAVID CITY, Neb.—The Lincoln man who unsuccessfully attempted to break out of the Butler County jail has been sentenced to the Nebraska Penitentiary by District Judge H. Emerson Kokjer.

Following a preliminary hearing in County Court, Frank B. Mahoney, 28, of Lincoln was bound over to District Court where he entered pleas of guilty to three counts two in connection with the issuance of no-fund checks and one for assault in his attack on David City police officer, Henry Struebing, when he attempted to escape from the jail on August 8.

Judge Kokjer sentenced him to one year on each no-fund check charge and two years for assault. He specified the sentences are to run concurrently.

Sheriff Joseph Meysenburg took Mahoney to the Nebraska Penitentiary to begin his sentence.

Scottsbluff Television Station Is Approved

Richardson Property Valuation Goes Down

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—The valuation of tangible property in Richardson County has dipped more than seven millions to a 1954 total of $33,292,632, County Assessor Henry Bruhn reported. This means that most tax-collecting units will boost their levies to compensate for the reduction in valuation.

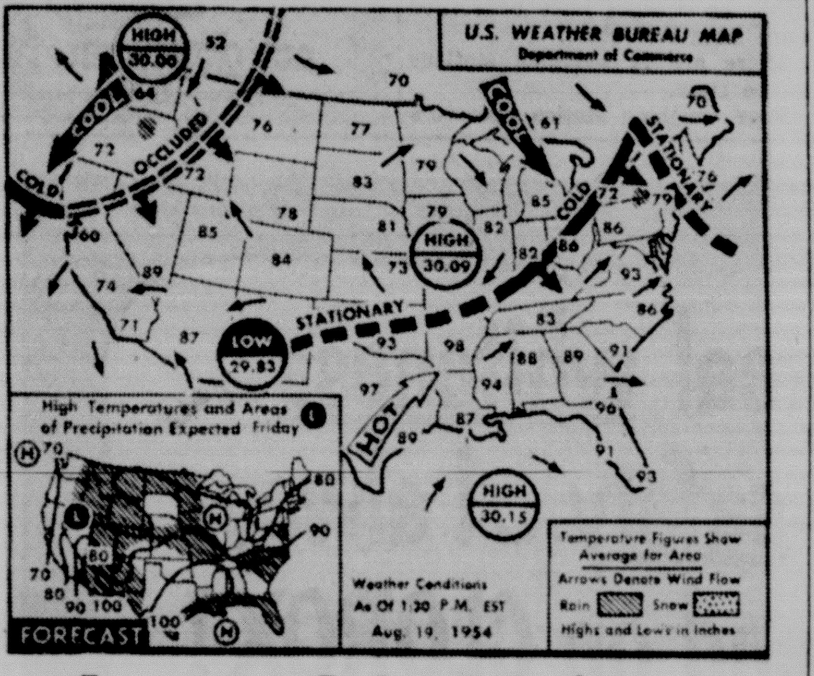
Basin Compact Plan Blocked

WASHINGTON (AP) — An objection by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa) Thursday blocked House consideration of a Senate-passed bill authorizing Missouri River Basin states to enter into a compact for disposition and allocation of waters of the Missouri and its tributaries.

The measure would have granted Congressional consent to Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Wyoming and South Dakota to negotiate the compact.

The objection apparently ended consideration of the legislation at this session.

Saylor told a reporter he objected because the Senate version of the bill was quite different from the bill considered by the House Interior Committee some months ago. He said there was no time now for the House committee to study the Senate version and he believed such a study was essential before the bill was brought up for final action on the House floor.



Temperatures To Remain Unchanged

Except for a cooler trend over the northeastern states, the nation will experience little variation in temperatures Friday. Scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast for the Gulf Coastal sections, the southern Appalachians and Carolinas, the central Mississippi Valley, the northern Plains and Rockies and most of the plateau region. (AP Wirephoto Thursday night)

Mother's Quick Action Saves David City Tot From Drowning

Lincoln Star Special

DAVID CITY, Neb.—A 3½-year-old David City girl and her mother are recovering from a frightening near-drowning experience. This incident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Trowbridge when little Jean Trowbridge fell in a hole filled with water and had to be rescued by her mother.

The hole was dug by city employees who were seeking the source of a water main break. The water flowing from the line break filled the hole, which was about five or six feet deep.

Mrs. Trowbridge had warned the youngsters not to go near the hole but, in a fraction of a minute while she was preparing the evening meal and was not able to watch them, Jean fell in the hole.

Her 5-year-old sister, Anne, came screaming into the house and Mrs. Trowbridge, sensing something had happened to Jean, ran outside to see what had happened.

When she reached the hole, only the top of the youngster's head was visible. Mrs. Trowbridge jumped into the hole and managed to push Jean out of the hole on to dry ground and then climbed out herself. By tipping the child upside down and slapping her on the back, Mrs. Trowbridge managed to force out the water which the child had swallowed.

Hastings Auto-Truck Crash Kills Youth

State Fatality Toll Hits 190

HASTINGS, Neb. (AP)—A youth identified as Dave Little, 19, of Atkinson, Ill., was killed Thursday when the car he was driving crashed into a semi-trailer truck about six miles west of here on U. S. Highway 6.

Little had been employed as a construction worker on a grain elevator in Hastings.

Bob McKeehan, 25, of Joplin, Mo., driver of the semi-trailer truck, said he was headed west and had cleared the top of a small rise when the auto, going east, cut over into his lane of traffic.

McKeehan said the car driver looked as though he was asleep and made no attempt to avoid hitting the truck.

Swerved Trailer

McKeehan said he swerved his trailer to the right but too late to avoid a collision. The car struck the trailer just back of the cab, knocking the trailer wheels sideways and continuing partly under the trailer for some distance.

The semi-trailer went into a ditch on the right side of the road and the car spun halfway around and stopped.

Kefauver voted for the compro- suffered when his bicycle crashed

McKeehan, who escaped injury, and a passerby pulled the driver from the car. The man was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Royce Harper of Grand Island, with his family driving immediately behind the semi-tralier, said he first noticed the truck pulling to the right and being braked suddenly. Harper said his first view of the car was when it appeared to be spinning away from the trailer.

The death raised to 190 the number of persons killed in Nebraska traffic accidents this year, compared to 171 at this time in 1953.

Nebraska Farm Census Supervisors Named

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau announced appointment of three agricultural census supervisors in Nebraska and Iowa.

L. L. Zook was named to head the North Platte, Neb., office. Charles R. Korb will be in charge at Norfolk, Neb., and Charles W. Wagner will handle the Des Moines office.

Youth, 15, Hurt In Sewer Blast

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—Hospital attendants said Gerald Van Ackeren, 15, was in fair condition Thursday with burns suffered in an explosion in a storm sewer here.

The North Platte boy suffered first degree burns on his face, forehead and upper part of his body in the explosion.

A companion, Dennis Fitzpatrick, 15, said he and Van Ackeren had taken a lighted, discarded flare into the storm sewer. After placing it about 30 feet inside the sewer, they blew it out and left.

Fitzpatrick said Van Ackeren then lit a match and went back into the sewer. The explosion followed.

Aitken Heads Nebraska Group Moving To Michigan CD Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ten Nebraskans with the Civil Defense Administration here will move to Battle Creek, Mich., with transfer of the agency's headquarters to Percy Jones Army Hospital there about Sept. 1.

Administrator Val Peterson, ex-Nebraska governor, will remain here, with a small liaison staff.

Heading the Nebraska group to Battle Creek will be Harold L. Aitken, former Nebraska state engineer and now executive assistant administrator of Civil Defense.

Paul Wagner, publisher of the Dakota County Star of South Sioux City and special assistant to Peterson, was originally scheduled to stay here but now will shift to Battle Creek. He has been named acting assistant administrator in charge of education services and will assume those duties Aug. 25.

Dean Pohlenz, former Lincoln newsman who joined the agency in May, 1953, will move to Battle Creek in his dual capacity of director of the publications office and special assistant to Aitken.

Other Nebraskans who will move to the new Michigan headquarters are:

Arthur D. Morrell, director of the engineering office.

Gene Ingold, another former Lincoln newsman who joined the agency recently as a consultant, who is to be director of the press and editorial division

Ira V. Packard, former Nebraska aeronautics director, chief of the agency's air branch.

Radio And TV Commission Is Granted Okay

SEWARD, Neb. (AP)—The 21st convention of the Northern Nebraska District Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, ended here late Thursday with adoption of a resolution to establish a radio and television commission.

It will work in co-ordination with the district's department of public relations.

Some 250 delegates from northern Nebraska and northern Wyoming attended the four-day convention.

The district also resolved to establish a rural life commission to be concerned with and to assist rural congregations in their special problems. It was reported that 60 per cent of the Missouri Synod's 5,000 congregations are rural.

Food Appeal

The Rev. Victor Hoffmann of Fremont, state chairman of the all-Lutheran food appeal, reported that Nebraska Lutherans contributed more than $27,000 worth of food toward the drive during 1953.

The convention pledged its continued support to the program of relief, primarily in West Germany, Korea, India and Jordan.

Memorial services were conducted for two pastors and two teachers who died since the last convention. They were:

Pastors Albert Ollenburg of Bloomfield, Neb., and H. W. Schultz of Norfolk, and Teachers J. H. Brase of Battle Creek, Neb., and Walter Reese of Columbus, Neb. Conducting the service was the Rev. F. C. Doctor, Lusk, Wyo.

Savings Bond Sales Increase This Year

OMAHA (AP)—Sales of Series E and H United States savings bonds in Nebraska during the first seven months of 1954 amounted to $76,871.596, state Chairman Wade R. Martin announced.

The total is a gain of 31 per cent over the correspondinig period of 1953 and represents 81.5 per cent of Nebraska's annual quota, Martin said. Twenty-one counties have reached or surpassed their quotas.

$15,000 Bond Set For L. Johnson, Arrested As Red

DENVER (AP)—Bonds of $5,000 to $30,000 were set for four men and three women arrested by the FBI as Communist party leaders and charged with conspiracy to teach violent overthrow of the government.

U.S. Dist. Judge Jean S. Brettenstein reduced bonds for the second time in 10 days despite objections by U.S. Atty. Donald E. Kelley that the seven are "poor risks" for bail.

Held previously under $42,000 bond each were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bary, Harold Zepelin and Lewis Johnson, all arrested in Denver Aug. 1. Their new bails are $30,000 for Bary, $25,000 for his wife and $15,000 each for Zepelin and Johnson. Johnson is a native of Farnam, Neb.

Interior Agency Awaiting Water Conference Results

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department will not act further in the Wyoming-Nebraska water users dispute until results of further conferences are known.

Assistant Secretary Fred A. Aandahl made the statement.

The dispute involves release if irrigation water from the Wyoming Kendrick project for use in Nebraska's North Platte valley area.

Aandahl told a reporter he was informed there are "indications" Nebraska water users who Monday rejected a proposed loan agreement covering the water decided to consider the matter further after going home from Casper.

Aandahl recently signed an order declaring surplus 150,000-acre-feet of the water stored in the Seminole Reservoir. The order authorized sale of the water at $2.25 an acre-foot to the downstream North Platte project in Wyoming and Nebraska. The North Platte project districts are faced with a water shortage due to the drought.

County Fair Revue To Aid Polio Fund

BEAVER CITY, Neb.—A March of Dimes revue Monday night will highlight opening events at the Furnas County Fair.

HASTINGS (AP)—Formation of a "Morrison for Congress Volunteers" organization was announced here Thursday.

The announcement said the membership would include both Democrats and Republicans.

Morrison is the Democratic nominee for Congress in the First District.

"I am running on a platform of plenty, not planned poverty," he told the group.

Ashland Baby Using Infant-Type Iron Lung

OMAHA (INS) — An infant-type iron lung is in use at Omaha's Children's Hospital for an Ashland, Neb., tot critically ill with acute bulbar polio.

Hospital officials said two-and-a-half month old Patricia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane A. Smith of Ashland, is one of the youngest polio patients the hospital has ever had.

Welsch's Hatchery is proud to announce that they have obtained the services of Mr. Ralph McCall. Mr. McCall has a background of many years of poultry experience and service work. His many friends will be glad to know that he wil be available for field service work.

Interior Agency Awaiting Water Conference Results

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department will not act further in the Wyoming-Nebraska water users dispute until results of further conferences are known.

Assistant Secretary Fred A. Aandahl made the statement.

The dispute involves release if irrigation water from the Wyoming Kendrick project for use in Nebraska's North Platte valley area.

Aandahl told a reporter he was informed there are "indications" Nebraska water users who Monday rejected a proposed loan agreement covering the water decided to consider the matter further after going home from Casper.

Aandahl recently signed an order declaring surplus 150,000-acre-feet of the water stored in the Seminole Reservoir. The order authorized sale of the water at $2.25 an acre-foot to the downstream North Platte project in Wyoming and Nebraska. The North Platte project districts are faced with a water shortage due to the drought.

County Fair Revue To Aid Polio Fund

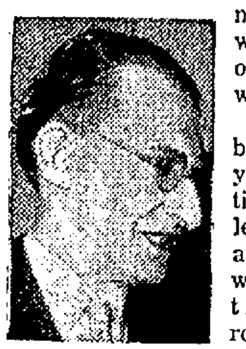
De Gasperi's Death Mourned

SELLA VAL SUGANA, Italy, (AP)—Villagers mourned side by side with national leaders Thursday at the bier of former Premier Alcide de Gasperi, the anti-Communist battler who led Italy out of post-war chaos.



De Gasperi

The gaunt body of the 73-year-old Christian Democrat leader lay in a simple wooden bed in the pine-surrounded chalet in his native Tyrolean hills where a heart attack struck him early Thursday.

De Gasperi fought for the European Defense Community almost to the last and hazards now besetting European unity at a six-nation Brussels meeting apparently contributed to his death.

Last Words

Only Wednesday night he made an impassioned telephone call to Premier Mario Scelba, almost sobbing as he urged his protege that "if the Defense Community is not established, God knows what will happen."

"Gesu! Gesu! (Jesus! Jesus!)" were De Gasperi's last words just before he died, his family reported.

One of the first to send condolences was Pope Pius XII, whose Roman Catholic faithful provide a bulwark of support for the Christian Democrats. The pontiff decorated De Gasperi with the Grand Cross of the Pian order in 1949.

Ike Praises Him

President Eisenhower praised de Gasperi's "devotion to democracy and his dedication to the cause of European integration." Prime Minister Churchill said De Gasperi served both Italy and all Europe "loyally and well."

From the Brussels EDC meeting, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sent a message declaring that "the loss of De Gasperi is a blow for everybody who cares for the future of Europe."

De Gasperi's long-time political foe, Italian Communist chief Palmiro Togliatti, joined in the condolences, wiring De Gasperi's widow that he was "always mindful of having served with him the cause of the people and of liberty in the hardest moments of our country."

Next President

It had been generally expected that De Gasperi would have been elected President of Italy next year at the end of the term of incumbent Luigi Einaudi.

De Gasperi ended his 7½ years as head of the Italian government in July 1953. He resigned after losing a confidence vote in Parliament, but his party kept its political grip and successive Premiers have been Christian Democrats, including former Interior Minister Scelba.

A little more than a month ago De Gasperi relinquished his titular leadership of the Christian Democrat party maching to a younger man, Amintore Fanfani, former agriculture minister.

Services Held For Accident Victim

PALMYRA, Neb.—Funeral services were held at St. Leo's Catholic Church here for Mrs. Elizabeth Royal, 66, who lost her life in a two-car collision near Alvo.

Born at Crete, she lived on a farm south of Palmyra for a number of years before moving to Palmyra. She was a member of St. Leo's Catholic Church and of the Altar Guild.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Van Meter of Denver, Mrs. Louise Finn of Riley, Kan., Mrs. Magdalene Smith of Palmyra and Mrs. Marie Maahs of Bennet; seven sons, Herman, Roy and Lawrence, all of Palmyra, Leo of Gretna, Lloyd of Millard, Raymond of Syracuse and James of Unadilla; 22 grandchildren, five brothers and three sisters.

GROW A LAWN LIKE THIS IN 7 DAYS!

Make This 7 Day Test on Your Lawn! See for yourself how fast-acting RX-15 can turn your sick-looking grass into a rich carpet of lawn. Dissolve 1 tablespoon of RX-15 in a gallon of water and write the letters of your name right on your lawn. It takes only 60 seconds . . . yet in 7 days from today you'll see that RX-15 treated lawn growing so much thicker, greener, faster than your untreated section, you'll actually be able to read your name in the grass. And if you don't get these amazing results, simply send back the unused portion of RX-15 and get back every penny you paid for it.

SCIENTISTS' FORMULA SHOOTS FANTASTIC GROWING POWER INTO LAWNS, PLANTS AND VEGETABLES INSTANTLY!

Now Grow Flowers, Shrubs, Trees In Virtually Any Soil—Even Sand.
Watch "Dying" Lawns Grow Richer, Thicker, Greener In 7 Days!
YOUR CHANCE TO TRY RX-15 WITHOUT RISKING A PENNY!

How would you like to make your bulbs bloom by the thousands weeks ahead of your neighbors — double the growing power of undernourished shrubs, trees, hedges, vegetables? Grow a richer, thicker, greener lawn in just 7 days with just 1 sprinkle from a watering pail? Then read this article!

It tells how now, YOU who may know next-to-nothing about gardening can turn your garden into the show-place of the community with thousands of colorful flaming blossoms — not five years from now — not next year — but this season — even if your soil is undernourished.

How with normal garden care YOU can pick basketfuls of meat-packed garden fresh tomatoes, luscious heads of lettuce — sweet, tender cucumbers, corn and peas from a vegetable patch right in your own back yard. How YOU can amaze the so-called experts in your neighborhood with a rich, thick carpet of lawn — and you won't even have to dirty your hands digging messy, evil-smelling manures into the soil.

"Why Won't Flowers Grow In My Backyard?"

If flowers won't grow for you — no matter how hard you try — in case after case it's been proven that your soil is to blame. Science tells us that almost 90% of all garden soils are deficient in at least one of the 10 vital minerals a plant needs to bloom and flourish. And if you starve a plant of even one of these life-giving soil minerals you won't get many flowers no matter how much sun and water you give it — no matter how many hours you slave in your garden.

Sprinkle With RX-15 Save Hours of Extra Digging!

Finally in 1951 scientists at one of America's leading plant experiment stations tested new types of concentrated plant foods that could be dissolved in ordinary tap water, and when sprinkled on lawns or plants could go to work in minutes. No more extra drudgery, no more manure digging. This water soluble plant food was proven so fast-acting that it is absorbed by roots and reaches into every leaf, stem and tissue in 60 minutes.

Thousands of Flowers For Only a Few Minutes Extra Work!

And now do you realize what RX-15 means to you? It means that today you can go out with a sprinkling can and in a few minutes start to shoot new life into your garden. Revitalize your whole undernourished lawn . . . give it results you never dreamed possible in 7 days.

It means that no matter how starved your soil may be now, with a few sprinkles of RX-15 you can grow a thick, green lawn the very first time you try — and it will only cost you pennies to apply it! It means that you can grow hundreds of flowers in your window boxes — grow thousands of flowers next season from plants you already have in your garden, from bulbs you can still put in the ground.

And because RX-15 instantly feeds plants all the life-giving soil minerals they need for healthy bloom, it means that merely sprinkling with RX-15 can make starved, undernourished lawns, trees, shrubs, houseplants start to spring back to new life instantly!

It means that very possibly you may still pick basket after basket of plump fruits from trees, that stopped producing years ago.

You'll be amazed at the way scraggly plants, seedlings, shrubs, bulbs and trees start shooting out new buds, stems, branches — the way they produce thicker, greener, bigger leaves and flowers even in the most mineral-starved soil, when you sprinkle them with a spoonful of RX-15 dissolved in water . . . and it goes to work instantly!

Make This No-Risk Test On Your Lawn And Garden!

Since 1951, when RX-15 was first introduced to the public, it has become the fastest-selling water soluble plant food in the world. In less than two years, gardeners, farmers and nurserymen have bought more from us than all other plant foods combined!

Thousands can tell you about the amazing results. From every corner of the United States and Canada letters are pouring in from home gardeners who have used RX-15 where everything else they had tried failed — in starved, undernorished soil, in sand — even in cinders. And on the basis of the astonishing results reported by these gardeners, the Garden Research Laboratories feel safe in making this daring money back guarantee!

We want you to try RX-15 on your own lawn for 7 days at our risk. Test it on flowering plants, bulbs, seedlings. Test it on fruit trees, shrubs, hedges, vegetables . . . on anything that grows—on anything that's hard to grow. And if your lawn isn't richer, greener, thicker in 7 days — if those hard-to-grow plants don't start to take on new life — if the foliage isn't greener, more luxuriant — if this season you don't see more buds, sprouts, flowers shooting out on your RX-15 treated plants than you've ever had before — then send back the unused portion and get back every penny you paid for it.

Make This No-Risk Test On Your Lawn And Garden!

Since 1951, when RX-15 was first introduced to the public, it has become the fastest-selling water soluble plant food in the world. In less than two years, gardeners, farmers and nurserymen have bought more from us than all other plant foods combined!

Thousands can tell you about the amazing results. From every corner of the United States and Canada letters are pouring in from home gardeners who have used RX-15 where everything else they had tried failed — in starved, undernorished soil, in sand — even in cinders. And on the basis of the astonishing results reported by these gardeners, the Garden Research Laboratories feel safe in making this daring money back guarantee!

We want you to try RX-15 on your own lawn for 7 days at our risk. Test it on flowering plants, bulbs, seedlings. Test it on fruit trees, shrubs, hedges, vegetables . . . on anything that grows—on anything that's hard to grow. And if your lawn isn't richer, greener, thicker in 7 days — if those hard-to-grow plants don't start to take on new life — if the foliage isn't greener, more luxuriant — if this season you don't see more buds, sprouts, flowers shooting out on your RX-15 treated plants than you've ever had before — then send back the unused portion and get back every penny you paid for it.

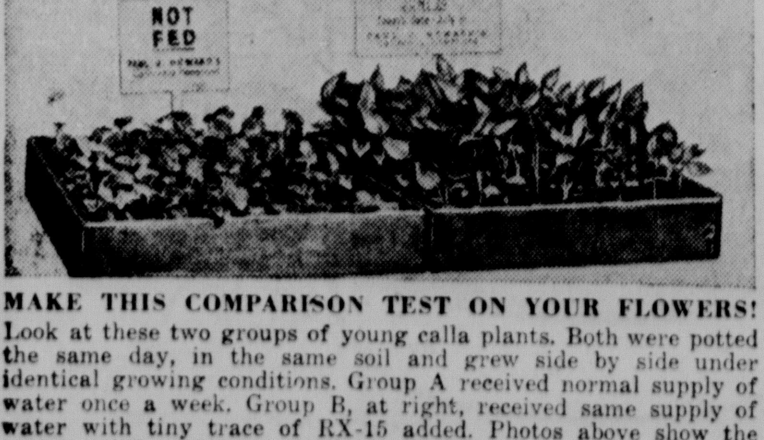
HERE'S PROOF
Plants Double Size In 12 Days!



MAKE THIS COMPARISON TEST ON YOUR FLOWERS!
Look at these two groups of young calla plants. Both were potted the same day, in the same soil and grew side by side under identical growing conditions. Group A received normal supply of water once a week. Group B, at right, received same supply of water with tiny trace of RX-15 added. Photos above show the amazing difference only 12 days later.

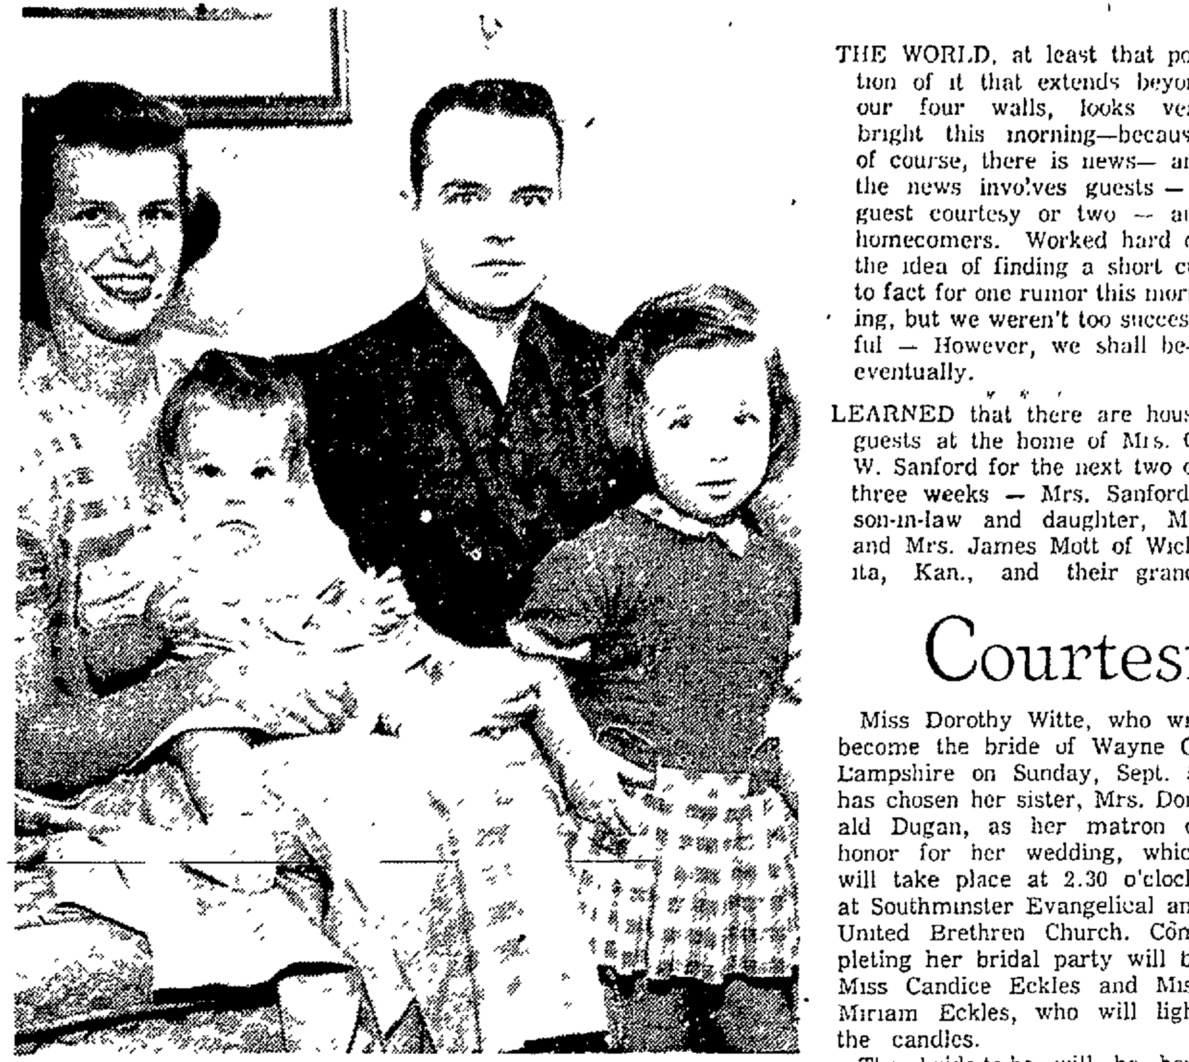
Kentucky Foursome



In town for a two weeks stay are Mr. and Mrs. James McDermott and their two daughters, Susan—on her mother's lap—and Nancy, who arrived a few days ago from Louisville, Ky., and who are the house guests of Mrs. McDermott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H M. Wentz.

Mr. and Mrs. McDermott (she is the former Barbara Wentz) will spend the current week-end in St. Joseph, Mo., but Susan and Nancy are quite content to remain in Lincoln with their grandparents.

A Bright Outlook

THE WORLD, at least that portion of it that extends beyond our four walls, looks very bright this morning—because, of course, there is news— and the news involves guests — a guest courtesy or two — and homecomers. Worked hard on the idea of finding a short cut to fact for one rumor this morning, but we weren't too successful — However, we shall be—eventually.

* * *

LEARNED that there are house guests at the home of Mrs. C. W. Sanford for the next two or three weeks — Mrs. Sanford's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Mott of Wichita, Kan., and their granddaughter, Miss Frances Hill of Manhattan, Kan., who arrived a day or so ago.

* * *

WE'VE already mentioned that Capt. Thomas Donovan, USN, Mrs. Donovan, and their son Tracy, would be arriving from San Diego on Sunday — but something new has been added to word of the arrival — and it has to do with a courtesy.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Garlinghouse have invited a small group of the Donovans' close friends in for an informal "hello" next Wednesday evening at their home.

* * *

THIS will be an exciting week-end at the home of Mrs. Ruth Raymond Gavin — her son, Maj. Raymond Gavin is expected to arrive on Saturday or Sunday — Maj. Gavin, now in Honolulu, probably will be boarding the plane for home most any moment.

* * *

AND that brings to mind the MacLeans — Mr. and Mrs. James (Mary Gavin), who have been having a wonderful holiday on the east coast, mainly in the Cape Cod country—Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will be arriving Saturday evening.

* * *

UNDERSTAND that Sept. 14 is homecoming day for Miss Nan Carlson who has been spending the summer in Helsinki, Finland, as one of the American Field Service group that went abroad for the summer. But Miss Carlson has discovered that it really is a small world —The other evening the family with whom she is residing in Helsinki entertained dinner guests, and among them were a doctor and his wife who were friends of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. M Thomson of Lincoln.

* * *

HAVE to open the guest book for a moment—just to tell you that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes of Abilene, Tex., who are attending an air meeting in Omaha, will be in town today—the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Wright.

* * *

NOW back to the homecomers—Hear that Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Junge, their son, Jim, and their daughter, JoAnn, and Mr Junge's mother, Mrs. O. J. Junge, returned earlier this week from Pelican Lake.

* * *

AND also home from Pelican are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Minier, their two daughters, Susan and Sally, and their son, Bill, who spent a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver, Jr

* * *

ALSO heard that Johnny and Tommy Tidball, sons of Mr and Mrs. John Tidball, will be coming home on Saturday from Nebraska City where they have been spending a week as the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grundman.

Courtesies Fill The Calendar

Miss Dorothy Witte, who will become the bride of Wayne G. Lampshire on Sunday, Sept. 5, has chosen her sister, Mrs. Donald Dugan, as her matron of honor for her wedding, which will take place at 2.30 o'clock, at Southminster Evangelical and United Brethren Church. Completing her bridal party will be Miss Candice Eckles and Miss Miriam Eckles, who will light the candles.

The bride-to-be will be honored on Friday evening when Miss Marilyn Larson of Omaha, Mrs Wesley Hultquist, Mrs. Austin Goth and Mrs. Arthur Hillman will entertain at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Goth. The guests, all Phi Mu sorority sisters of the bride-elect, have been invited for an 8 o'clock dessert supper.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 25, Miss Witte will be the guest of honor at an informal affair and linen shower for which her sister, Mrs. Donald Dugan, her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Swacker, and her cousin, Mrs. L. E. Fuller, will be co-hostesses.

Included among recent courtesies for Miss Witte was the surprise party held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Anderson. Hosts and hostesses were the office staff members of the Lancaster County Child Welfare department and their husbands, who presented a miscellaneous shower to the bride-elect.

This morning Miss Janet Lebsack, who is to marry Donald Isherwood in the early autumn, is announcing the members of the bridal party. For her matron of honor Miss Lebsack has chosen her sister, Mrs. Clyde Dean, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs Gayle Lebsack and Miss Connie Crews. Miss Carol Goff and Miss Patricia Patterson will light the candles.

Gordon Metcalf will serve Mr. Isherwood as best man, and the ushers will include Bruce Isherwood, Jack Lamphere and Jerry Henke.

Complimenting Miss Lebsack on Sunday will be Miss Carol Goff who has invited guests for an informal party and a personal shower for the bride-elect.

Miss Lebsack will be an honoree next Monday when Miss Carol Lohrberg and Miss Mary Cunningham entertain at a linen shower at the home of Miss Lohrberg.

And on Friday of next week the bride-elect's aunts, Mrs. John Eckhardt and Mrs. John Lebsack, will be hostesses at a miscellaneous shower.

To Be October Bride

MISS JOAN LUCILE SPENCER

Announcement is made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Spencer of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joan Lucile, to William G. Beeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Beeney of Stanton.

The wedding is planned for Sunday afternoon, Oct. 17, and the ceremony will be solemnized at the First Methodist Church.

Miss Spencer is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Willard Sorority.

Mr. Beeney is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University and is a member of Theta Chi Fraternity.

Late Summer Wedding

Miss Byrdie Anne Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Parks of Page, became the bride of Paul D. Robinson, son of Mrs. Rachel Meyers of Lincoln, on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 14. Baskets filled with gladioli shading from pale gold to the bronze tones appointed the chancel of the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Page for the service, which was read by the Rev. Harry Johnson.

Preceding the ceremony, Jerry Terrill of Page sang "Because", "O Promise Me", and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Miss Ruth Parks of Omaha, pianist and sister of the bride. Miss Parks also played the wedding music.

Miss Lois Jean Parks of Lincoln was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant and wore a summer suit in the luggage shade with deeper brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was fashioned of yellow carnations.

For her wedding, the bride chose a softly tailored suit in the navy tone accented by creamy-beige accessories. Her small, rhinestone - trimmed hat was briefly veiled, and she wore a corsage of yellow Talisman roses. Her gold and pearl necklace and matching earrings were gifts of the bridegroom.

Melvin Robinson of Lincoln served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Larry Parks and Jerry White of Page.

A reception for the members of the family and a small group of friends was held at the Page school house. Following a trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Lincoln.

The bride attended Wayne State Teachers College and has taught in rural schools for four years.

Has Thursday Ceremony

MRS. ROBERT BRANDT

The wedding of Miss Gladys Wittwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wittwer of Palisade, and Lt. Robert Brandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brandt of Aurora, took place at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening, Aug. 19, at the Peace Lutheran Church in McCook. The candlelight service was solemnized by the Rev. Alvin J. Norden before a background of lighted cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra, and arrangements of white gladioli. Mrs. Joe Hasseler, of McCook, organist, played the wedding music.

Wearing alike floor-length frocks of pastel blue dotted swiss, and carrying bouquets of white daisies, the attendants were Miss Helen Gahl of Culbertson, the maid of honor, and Miss Dorothy Bereuter, Utica, the bridesmaid. Miss Charlotte Lawson of Hayes Center, and Byran Alberts of Palisade, niece and nephew of the bride, lighted the candles, and the flower girl was Marcia Wittwer of Hayes Center, also a niece of the bride. Kenneth Hunkins was the ringbearer.

Donald Brichacek of Howells served Lt. Brandt as best man, and seating the 200 guests were Walter Jacobs, Phillips; Frank Balderson, Benkleman, and Glen Gahl, Culbertson.

The bride appeared in a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. Lace fashioned the strapless, fitted bodice, and was repeated in an overdrape for the bouffant skirt of tulle.

Her ensemble was completed with a long-sleeved lace jacket and her double tiered veil of silk illusion, edged with an applique of lace roses, was held to the head with a calot of lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a nosegay of glamellias and stephanotis, and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

After the reception, held in the church parlors, Lt. Brandt and his bride left for an eastern honeymoon trip, and on Sept. 1, will be in Aberdeen, Md., where the bridegroom is stationed, and where the couple will reside at 106 I Garden Drive.

Both Lt. and Mrs. Brandt are graduates of the University of Nebraska where the bride is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority.

Guests Arrive From The East

It was an exceedingly happy group we found at the station Thursday evening—and it included guests—and their hosts and hostesses.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Karl Koch of East Long Meadow, Mass., arrived in Lincoln to spend two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Koch's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Tidball—and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Wescott. Numerous informal affairs have been planned for Mr. and Mrs. Koch during their stay in Lincoln.

B, PW Meets At McCook

Mrs. Martha Rohrick of Scottsbluff, president of the Nebraska Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, has named the speakers who will be featured at the organization's annual fall board meeting to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Hotel Keystone in McCook.

Addressing the members at the Saturday noon luncheon will be Mrs. Edna Donald of Grand Island, Republican National Committeewoman, and Mrs. Katherine Truman of Omaha, vice chairman of the state Democratic party.

Highlighting the banquet on Saturday evening will be a program, "Biennial Review." presented by the Nebraska delegates to the National Federation of B, PW Clubs convention held June 29 to July 2 at St. Louis, Mo. It was at the national convention that Miss Hattie Steinberg of York, a former president of the state federation, was elected national recording secretary.

Attending the fall board meeting will be state officers, directors of the organization's six districts, all chairmen of standing and special committees, and the presidents of the 39 local B, PW Clubs in Nebraska.

Fidelia Lyceum Board Meets

The regular meeting of the executive board of Fidelia Lyceum was held Tuesday evening following a dinner at Kopper Kettle. Mrs. Kay Guilliams, president, conducted the meeting when program plans for the coming year were discussed.

It was announced that the club's yearbooks will be distributed at the September meeting, to be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 14. Mrs. Carl Mutchmore, first vice president, is program chairman, and the social chairman is Mrs. Chris Pohlenz, second vice president.

Hillcrest Ladies Golf

At the Hillcrest Country Club "flag day" event for feminine golfers on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Jack Bradley was the class A winner. Class B winner was Mrs. Werner Lienert.

Entertains ESA Chapter

Miss Elinor Stephenson was hostess Tuesday evening to the members of Alpha Beta chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority. A short business meeting was held when the group discussed plans for attending the state convention of the sorority to be held Sept. 3, 4 and 5 at Ogallala.

Following the meeting, Miss Stephenson told of her trip to Europe this summer as a member of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha tour and showed articles she had brought home with her. The refreshments included candy from Europe served in miniature Italian gondolas.

Miss Lois Jean Parks of Lincoln was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant and wore a summer suit in the luggage shade with deeper brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was fashioned of yellow carnations.

For her wedding, the bride chose a softly tailored suit in the navy tone accented by creamy-beige accessories. Her small, rhinestone-trimmed hat was briefly veiled, and she wore a corsage of yellow Talisman roses. Her gold and pearl necklace and matching earrings were gifts of the bridegroom.

Melvin Robinson of Lincoln served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Larry Parks and Jerry White of Page.

A reception for the members of the family and a small group of friends was held at the Page school house. Following a trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Lincoln.

The bride attended Wayne State Teachers College and has taught in rural schools for four years.

Entertains ESA Chapter

Miss Elinor Stephenson was hostess Tuesday evening to the members of Alpha Beta chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority. A short business meeting was held when the group discussed plans for attending the state convention of the sorority to be held Sept. 3, 4 and 5 at Ogallala.

Following the meeting, Miss Stephenson told of her trip to Europe this summer as a member of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha tour and showed articles she had brought home with her. The refreshments included candy from Europe served in miniature Italian gondolas.

A Bright Outlook

THE WORLD, at least that portion of it that extends beyond our four walls, looks very bright this morning—because, of course, there is news— and the news involves guests — a guest courtesy or two — and homecomers. Worked hard on the idea of finding a short cut to fact for one rumor this morning, but we weren't too successful — However, we shall be— eventually.

* * *

LEARNED that there are house guests at the home of Mrs. C. W. Sanford for the next two or three weeks — Mrs. Sanford's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Mott of Wichita, Kan., and their granddaughter, Miss Frances Hill of Manhattan, Kan., who arrived a day or so ago.

* * *

WE'VE already mentioned that Capt. Thomas Donovan, USN, Mrs. Donovan, and their son Tracy, would be arriving from San Diego on Sunday — but something new has been added to word of the arrival — and it has to do with a courtesy.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Garlinghouse have invited a small group of the Donovans' close friends in for an informal "hello" next Wednesday evening at their home.

* * *

THIS will be an exciting week-end at the home of Mrs. Ruth Raymond Gavin — her son, Maj. Raymond Gavin is expected to arrive on Saturday or Sunday — Maj. Gavin, now in Honolulu, probably will be boarding the plane for home most any moment.

* * *

AND that brings to mind the MacLeans — Mr. and Mrs. James (Mary Gavin), who have been having a wonderful holiday on the east coast, mainly in the Cape Cod country—Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will be arriving Saturday evening.

* * *

UNDERSTAND that Sept. 14 is homecoming day for Miss Nan Carlson who has been spending the summer in Helsinki, Finland, as one of the American Field Service group that went abroad for the summer. But Miss Carlson has discovered that it really is a small world —The other evening the family with whom she is residing in Helsinki entertained dinner guests, and among them were a doctor and his wife who were friends of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. M. Thomson of Lincoln.

* * *

HAVE to open the guest book for a moment—just to tell you that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes of Abilene, Tex., who are attending an air meeting in Omaha, will be in town today—the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Wright.

* * *

NOW back to the homecomers—Hear that Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Junge, their son, Jim, and their daughter, JoAnn, and Mr. Junge's mother, Mrs. O. J. Junge, returned earlier this week from Pelican Lake.

* * *

AND also home from Pelican are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Minier, their two daughters, Susan and Sally, and their son, Bill, who spent a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver, Jr.

* * *

ALSO heard that Johnny and Tommy Tidball, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Tidball, will be coming home on Saturday from Nebraska City where they have been spending a week as the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grundman.

Courtesies Fill The Calendar

Miss Dorothy Witte, who will become the bride of Wayne G. Lampshire on Sunday, Sept. 5, has chosen her sister, Mrs. Donald Dugan, as her matron of honor for her wedding, which will take place at 2:30 o'clock, at Southminster Evangelical and United Brethren Church. Completing her bridal party will be Miss Candice Eckles and Miss Miriam Eckles, who will light the candles.

The bride-to-be will be honored on Friday evening when Miss Marilyn Larson of Omaha, Mrs. Wesley Hultquist, Mrs. Austin Goth and Mrs. Arthur Hillman will entertain at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Goth. The guests, all Phi Mu sorority sisters of the bride-elect, have been invited for an 8 o'clock dessert supper.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 25, Miss Witte will be the guest of honor at an informal affair and linen shower for which her sister, Mrs. Donald Dugan, her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Swacker, and her cousin, Mrs. L. E. Fuller, will be co-hostesses.

Included among recent courtesies for Miss Witte was the surprise party held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Anderson. Hosts and hostesses were the office staff members of the Lancaster County Child Welfare department and their husbands, who presented a miscellaneous shower to the bride-elect.

This morning Miss Janet Lebsack, who is to marry Donald Isherwood in the early autumn, is announcing the members of the bridal party. For her matron of honor Miss Lebsack has chosen her sister, Mrs. Clyde Dean, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Gayle Lebsack and Miss Connie Crews. Miss Carol Goff and Miss Patricia Patterson will light the candles.

Gordon Metcalf will serve Mr. Isherwood as best man, and the ushers will include Bruce Isherwood, Jack Lamphere and Jerry Henke.

Complimenting Miss Lebsack on Sunday will be Miss Carol Goff who has invited guests for an informal party and a personal shower for the bride-elect.

Miss Lebsack will be an honoree next Monday when Miss Carol Lohrberg and Miss Mary Cunningham entertain at a linen shower at the home of Miss Lohrberg.

And on Friday of next week the bride-elect's aunts, Mrs. John Eckhardt and Mrs. John Lebsack, will be hostesses at a miscellaneous shower.

Has Thursday Ceremony

MRS. ROBERT BRANDT

The wedding of Miss Gladys Wittwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wittwer of Palisade, and Lt. Robert Brandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brandt of Aurora, took place at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening, Aug. 19, at the Peace Lutheran Church in McCook. The candlelight service was solemnized by the Rev. Alvin J. Norden before a background of lighted cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra, and arrangements of white gladioli. Mrs. Joe Hasseler, of McCook, organist, played the wedding music.

Wearing alike floor-length frocks of pastel blue dotted swiss, and carrying bouquets of white daisies, the attendants were Miss Helen Gahl of Culbertson, the maid of honor, and Miss Dorothy Bereuter, Utica, the bridesmaid. Miss Charlotte Lawson of Hayes Center, and Byran Alberts of Palisade, niece and nephew of the bride, lighted the candles, and the flower girl was Marcia Wittwer of Hayes Center, also a niece of the bride. Kenneth Hunkins was the ringbearer.

Donald Brichacek of Howells served Lt. Brandt as best man, and seating the 200 guests were Walter Jacobs, Phillips; Frank Balderson, Benkleman, and Glen Gahl, Culbertson.

The bride appeared in a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. Lace fashioned the strapless, fitted bodice, and was repeated in an overdrape for the bouffant skirt of tulle.

Her ensemble was completed with a long-sleeved lace jacket and her double tiered veil of silk illusion, edged with an applique of lace roses, was held to the head with a calot of lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a nosegay of glamellias and stephanotis, and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

After the reception, held in the church parlors, Lt. Brandt and his bride left for an eastern honeymoon trip, and on Sept. 1, will be in Aberdeen, Md., where the bridegroom is stationed, and where the couple will reside at 106 I Garden Drive.

Both Lt. and Mrs. Brandt are graduates of the University of Nebraska where the bride is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority.

Guests Arrive From The East

It was an exceedingly happy group we found at the station Thursday evening—and it included guests—and their hosts and hostesses.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Karl Koch of East Long Meadow, Mass., arrived in Lincoln to spend two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Koch's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Tidball—and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Wescott. Numerous informal affairs have been planned for Mr. and Mrs. Koch during their stay in Lincoln.

Teen-Aged Killers Label Body From River A Victim Of Their 'Thrill Slaying'

. . . Brutality Continues In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—A bruised body was taken from the East River Thursday, and a quartet of teen-agers labeled it one of their kill-for-thrills victims.

In a grimly dramatic move, police took the four boys separately to a Brooklyn pier and made them parade one by one past the sodden remains of a Negro, sacrificed to their blood lust.

Jack Koslow, 18, the tough guy leader of the gang, was marched past the corpse first. He broke down and sobbed:

"Yes, that's the man. Take me away from here before I faint."

Only a few hours earlier, Koslow had brazenly asked a detective, in reference to the search for the body:

"Any news from the river?"

A later autopsy showed the man had been alive when he was dumped into the river and died from the effects of submersion. There were numerous wounds on the head but they were not deep or severe enough to cause death, a medical examiner said.

Identified By Patient

Early Thursday, a Brooklyn hospital patient, from his bed, identified Koslow as the attacker who doused him with gasoline a month ago and turned him into a human torch in an unprovoked attack.

Police thus far have attributed some nine attacks to the gang. These included two homicides, the horse-whipping of two young girls, and park attacks on elderly and usually homeless men.

As the police investigation disclosed more details of the crime rampage, teen-aged brutality continued in Brooklyn.

Another Attack

Five youths jumped a passerby in an apparently unprovoked attack and knifed him repeatedly in the chest and back. The victim, Charles Gowdy, 51, was near death.

The body taken from the river was identified by a brother as that of Willard Menter, 34, who worked at a Brooklyn bag factory. He had dropped out of sight Monday.

On that day, police said, the kill-for-thrills gang climaxed a weeks-long orgy of crime by horse-whipping the girls, beating two elderly men, and finally beating Menter, burning his feet with lighted cigarettes and casting him unconscious into the river.

Reds Yell 'Intrusion' By Yanks

TAIPEH, Formosa (Friday) (AP) – Four U.S. 7th Fleet destroyers visited the Tachen Islands within 14 miles of the Red China coast yesterday. Last night Red China accused the United States of "armed provocation" with a show of air and naval strength.

The locale of what the Reds called American "intrusion" was the Nationalist-held Tachen Islands within sight of the China coast where U.S. Adm. Felix B Stump visited recently.

The U.S. Embassy here announced a stopover there by the destroyers Maddox, Brush, H J. Thomas and Moore as a routine visit.

The charge, made in a Peiping broadcast heard in London and Tokyo; said one naval-air show occurred Friday morning (China time). Stump presumably had left the area by then after an inspection trip.

Brick, Thatch Make Leper Homes

These buildings are typical of many at the Malamulo Mission Hospital and Leper Colony at Makwasa, Africa. The buildings are of brick with thatched roofs. However, permanent roofs are now being installed. At one time it was thought necessary to burn and remake the roofs whenever occupants were changed. Each of these huts is occupied by one family. Adventists Hear Gains In Leprosy Battle

About 164 victims of leprosy were cured in the seven Seventh-Day Adventist leper treatment centers in South Africa last year.

This report was made Thursday by Dr. C P. Bringle, medical secretary of the South African Division, who is now on furlough.

Among these centers he described is the Malamulo Mission Hospital and Leper Colony at Makwasa, Nyasaland, Africa, which includes a mission station and training school.

There are normally about 350 resident patients at the colony he said, in addition to about 150 "out patients" who come in for treatment. Two doctors handle the work.

"Babies are most susceptible," he said, "so we operate a home for untainted children of leper mothers. The youngsters are taken from the mothers up to one year of age and returned when six."

Dr. E. M. Cadwallader, head of the education department of Union College, formerly was mission director for this colony.

In describing the deprosy situation in the South African Division as a whole, Dr. Bringle said there are one-half to one million victims, most of whom are not under treatment.

Law Called Helpful

However, he said, leprosy is being eradicated in parts of Africa where the law demands that all lepers have to go to government hospitals for treatment.

Excellent results are now being achieved with an inexpensive sulfa drug, he said.

The disease, he explained, is less communicable than tuberculosis. None of the white workers, which include five families and seven single women at the Malamulo colony, have ever gotten leprosy.

Chungking Threatened

TOKYO (Friday) (AP) — Peiping radio said today the swollen Yangtze River at Wuhan fell slightly from its all-time high of 97.51 feet to 97.35 feet. But another swell had formed and was heading toward Chungking, the Red China broadcast said.

Chungking was the World War II capital of China, 450 miles inland from Wuhan.

The broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said floodwaters near Wuhan were being drained off with pumps and waterwheels and "some of the fields thus saved promise a good harvest this year."

Sweden Declines

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Sweden was reported to have decided not to be a candidate for the Security Council seat to be vacated by Denmark this fall. The Stockholm Daily Dagens Nyheter, quoting authoritative sources, said Sweden would not be willing to enter the Security Council because her neutrality might cause "unpleasant situations" in discussions within the council on East-West clashes.

Girl, 15, Falls Into Marble Canyon

VANCOUVER, B. C. (INS)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police are investigating a fall which they are sure brought death to Patricia Christensen, teen-age tourist of Dubuque, Ia.

The girl was in a party of four, which included an uncle, when she fell into famed Marble Canyon in Kootenay National Park 500 miles east of Vancouver.

Police said it was a straight drop and she could not have survived. The body has not been recovered, however.

The girl fell while another girl was taking her picture.

Wedemeyer Promoted

NEW YORK (AP)—The fourth star of a full general has been pinned on Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, former commander of U.S. Army Forces in China during World War II, who retired in 1952. The presentation was made at an informal ceremony on Governor's Island. A recently passed act of Congress provides for the bestowal of a fourth star on retired generals in recognition of their previous command responsibilities.

County Birth Rate Higher; Deaths Down

Lancaster County recorded an increase of 81 births and a decrease of 109 deaths during the City-County Health Department's 1953-54 fiscal year as compared with the previous year.

There were 3,082 births in the county for the July 1, 1953, to June 30, 1954 period, as compared with 3,001 for the similar 1952-53 period.

Similarly, 1,212 deaths were recorded during the 1953-54 period as compared with 1,321 for the previous fiscal year.

Heart diseases and cancer continued to be the leading causes of death. Others, in order of incidence, were intracranial lesions of vasular origin; respiratory diseases; disease of the circulatory system; blood diseases, congenital malformations and premature birth, violent or accidental deaths; nephritis, and disease of the digestive system.

Senate OKs Retirement Pay Raise For Railmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Thursday night passed by voice vote and sent to the White House a bill to raise retirement and unemployment benefits of rail workers and their families by an estimated 82 million dollars a year.

The measure, major portions of which were endorsed by the Eisenhower administration, would cost the nation's 1¼ million rail employees and the carriers an estimated 82 million dollars during its first full year of operation. Fifty-six millions of this would come from increased employee and employer contributions to the railroad retirement fund, the balance from the employers to cover higher unemployment benefits.

This report was made Thursday by Dr. C. P. Bringle, medical secretary of the South African Division, who is now on furlough.

Among these centers he described is the Malamulo Mission Hospital and Leper Colony at Makwasa, Nyasaland, Africa, which includes a mission station and training school.

There are normally about 350 resident patients at the colony he said, in addition to about 150 "out patients" who come in for treatment. Two doctors handle the work.

"Babies are most susceptible," he said, "so we operate a home for untainted children of leper mothers. The youngsters are taken from the mothers up to one year of age and returned when six."

Dr. E. M. Cadwallader, head of the education department of Union College, formerly was mission director for this colony.

In describing the deprosy situation in the South African Division as a whole, Dr. Bringle said there are one-half to one million victims, most of whom are not under treatment.

Law Called Helpful

However, he said, leprosy is being eradicated in parts of Africa where the law demands that all lepers have to go to government hospitals for treatment.

Excellent results are now being achieved with an inexpensive sulfa drug, he said.

The disease, he explained, is less communicable than tuberculosis. None of the white workers, which include five families and seven single women at the Malamulo colony, have ever gotten leprosy.

Chungking Threatened

TOKYO (Friday) (AP) — Peiping radio said today the swollen Yangtze River at Wuhan fell slightly from its all-time high of 97.51 feet to 97.35 feet. But another swell had formed and was heading toward Chungking, the Red China broadcast said.

Chungking was the World War II capital of China, 450 miles inland from Wuhan.

The broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said floodwaters near Wuhan were being drained off with pumps and waterwheels and "some of the fields thus saved promise a good harvest this year."

Sweden Declines

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Sweden was reported to have decided not to be a candidate for the Security Council seat to be vacated by Denmark this fall. The Stockholm Daily Dagens Nyheter, quoting authoritative sources, said Sweden would not be willing to enter the Security Council because her neutrality might cause "unpleasant situations" in discussions within the council on East-West clashes.

Girl, 15, Falls Into Marble Canyon

VANCOUVER, B. C. (INS)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police are investigating a fall which they are sure brought death to Patricia Christensen, teen-age tourist of Dubuque, Ia.

The girl was in a party of four, which included an uncle, when she fell into famed Marble Canyon in Kootenay National Park 500 miles east of Vancouver.

Police said it was a straight drop and she could not have survived. The body has not been recovered, however.

The girl fell while another girl was taking her picture.

Wedemeyer Promoted

NEW YORK (AP)—The fourth star of a full general has been pinned on Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, former commander of U.S. Army Forces in China during World War II, who retired in 1952. The presentation was made at an informal ceremony on Governor's Island. A recently passed act of Congress provides for the bestowal of a fourth star on retired generals in recognition of their previous command responsibilities.

County Birth Rate Higher; Deaths Down

Lancaster County recorded an increase of 81 births and a decrease of 109 deaths during the City-County Health Department's 1953-54 fiscal year as compared with the previous year.

There were 3,082 births in the county for the July 1, 1953, to June 30, 1954 period, as compared with 3,001 for the similar 1952-53 period.

Similarly, 1,212 deaths were recorded during the 1953-54 period as compared with 1,321 for the previous fiscal year.

Heart diseases and cancer continued to be the leading causes of death. Others, in order of incidence, were intracranial lesions of vasular origin; respiratory diseases; disease of the circulatory system; blood diseases, congenital malformations and premature birth, violent or accidental deaths; nephritis, and disease of the digestive system.

Mrs. Ida Rohlff Dies In Lincoln

Mrs. Ida Rohlff, 83, 4410 Randolph, a lifelong resident of Lancaster County, died Thursday.

Mrs. Rohlff was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Surviving are her brothers, William Retzlaff of Lincoln and Albert Retzlaff of Walton.

Aged Churchman Dies In A Romanian Prison

BERLIN (INS) — The official Roman Catholic newspaper Petrusablatt announced that 80-year-old apostolic prothonotary Count Vladimir Ghika died of ill treatment in a Romanian prison. He was serving a 20-year term for anti-Communism.

The title of apostolic prothonotary is a special honor given a monsignor.

India Accepts Plan

NEW DELHI (INS)—The Indian government accepted a Portuguese proposal for a meeting Aug. 24 in New Delhi to discuss sending a neutral observation team to investigate the dispute over Goa and other Portuguese-Indian territories.

Senate OKs Retirement Pay Raise For Railmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Thursday night passed by voice vote and sent to the White House a bill to raise retirement and unemployment benefits of rail workers and their families by an estimated 82 million dollars a year.

The measure, major portions of which were endorsed by the Eisenhower administration, would cost the nation's 1¼ million rail employees and the carriers an estimated 82 million dollars during its first full year of operation. Fifty-six millions of this would come from increased employee and employer contributions to the railroad retirement fund, the balance from the employers to cover higher unemployment benefits.

OLSON FAVORED 4-1 TO KEEP TITLE

Cleveland Held To Split By Troublesome Tigers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Detroit's troublesome Tigers split a double-header with the league-leading Cleveland Indians Thursday, slamming 14 hits off three Cleveland pitchers in the second game to win, 8-2, after losing the first game, 4-3. The Detroit victory snapped the Tribe's winning streak at nine games.

Al Aber, a former member of the Tribe, nipped the streak with a six-hit victory marred only by a run-producing single by Sam Dente in the second, and a home run by Vic Wertz in the fourth.

The Tigers' 14 hits were off Mike Garcia, Don Mossi and Bob Hooper, and included a 3-run homer in the seventh inning by Bob Nieman, his seventh.

The Tigers chased Garcia in the fifth after taking the lead with three runs in the fourth. It was his sixth loss against 15 victories, his first defeat since June 25 and his first loss to anyone but the Yankees since May 4.

Bob Feller posted his 11th victory against two defeats in the opener with the help of Ray Narleski, who came in and struck out the side in the ninth. The Tigers made eight hits off Feller.

Phils Dropped 5-0 By Giants

NEW YORK (AP) — Davey Williams' leadoff home run was all Ruben Gomez needed Thursday as he shut out the Philadelphia Phillies with seven hits while the New York Giants were running up a winning streak of three straight with a 5-0 victory.

Ray Katt and Bobby Hofman also homered as the Giants swept the three-game series and made it eight out of eight over the Phils at the Polo Grounds to protect their two-game edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers. It was Gomez' fourth shutout of the season, and it marked the fifth time the Phillies were blanked by Giant pitching.

Hodges Homer Stops Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gil Hodges' 32nd home run and Walt Moryn's triple with the bases loaded featured an 11-hit attack that gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-5 victory over Pittsburgh Thursday despite three Pirate homers.

The Dodgers still remain two games behind the first-place New York Giants who beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0 Thursday.

Brooklyn got two runs in the second inning on Hodges' homer and Roy Campanella's single which drove in Jackie Robinson.

The Dodgers added five runs in the third frame. Pee Wee Reese singled to center and went to third on Duke Snider's double. Hodges walked to fill the bases. A smashing triple to right field by Moryn brought in three runs. Carl Furillo scored Moryn with a safety and Junior Gilliam brought in Furillo who had advanced to second on a single by Newcombe.

Orioles Edged By White Sox

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Chicago White Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 4-3 here Thursday when an Oriole rally in the rain-interrupted ninth inning sputtered to an end with Clint Courtney's strike-out.

A thunderstorm stopped the game for 67 minutes after the Orioles had put runners on first and second, with two out. Courtney's strikeout, after play resumed, was only his third this year.

Jack Harshman, although lifted in the eighth inning, was credited with his 11th win of the season, as the Sox swept the 4-game series and the Birds lost their ninth in a row.

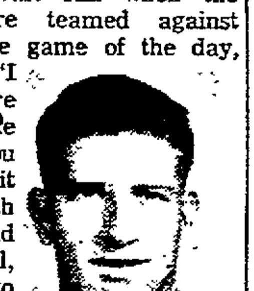
Ted Connor, Cornhusker star of recent vintage, will be playing in the Canadian League this fall.

Nebraskans will be able to watch Ted over the television networks, specifically NBC-TV which will carry the Canadian games each Saturday.

Genial Tom Gallery, the NBC sports director who was a Lincoln visitor last fall when the Huskers were teamed against Oregon in the game of the day, writes: "I think you're going to like it. But lest you suspect that it is played with sticks and a human skull, allow me to set you straight."



Ted Connor

To begin with, the game played up North is virtually indistinguishable from American football. If anything, it is faster and more wide-open. And what's more, you will see plenty of familiar faces on your screens. Typical of the many American stars who have crossed the border to play with Canadian teams are Gene (Choo-Choo) Roberts and Tex Coulter, ex-New York Giant stars; Chuck Hunsinger, hard-running halfback from Florida; Lou Kusserow, former Columbia great; Glenn Dobbs, of Tulsa and the Los Angeles Dons; J. D. Roberts, All-American guard at Oklahoma in '53; Ed Songin, ex-Boston College quarterback; and Tom McHugh, former Notre Dame fullback.

The 13-game series involves member teams of the Eastern Big Four—Hamilton, Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal. We also hope to carry the Grey Cup game, which immediately follows the regular season and determines the national champion. The current kingpin is Hamilton, which is coached by Carl Boyles, formerly of William and Mary, Auburn and the pro Brooklyn Dodgers.

As for the Canadian brand of football itself, there are several differences, but I don't think it will take you more than one half of the first game to catch on. The Canadian gridiron is 10 yards longer and 11 2-3 yards wider, midfield thereby being the "55-yard line." Also, there are 12 men on a side instead of 11. The extra man, called a flying wing, is usually employed as a flanker. Most teams use the T or split-T formation.

Canadian teams get only three downs instead of four in which to make 10 yards. The result is that their attacks are designed to produce the long gainer. They really throw the ball around, as you will see.

They don't have a backfield-in-motion rule up there, so any area in the opposition's defense can be quickly assaulted. Downfield blocking, however, is permitted only within 10 yards of the line of scrimmage. In other words, once the ball carrier reaches the wide open spaces, he's really on his own.

Touchdowns count five points, rather than six. One point, called a "rouge," is scored against a team which receives a kick in its end zone and fails to run the ball out. A rouge also can be scored by punting the ball out of the end zone, which is 25 yards deep rather than 10. A premium therefore is placed on good punting, and the result is that there are few ties in Canadian football.

He concludes: "In short, it is fast, exciting, rugged football. This souped-up version of America's favorite Fall sport is specifically designed to produce thrills and entertainment for the spectator. I think it is entirely reasonable to foresee the day when the North American game will be standardized to combine the best features of both Canadian and U.S. football. And when that happens, a professional football World Series is the next step."

Nats Stopped By Bosox 11-6

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ted Williams broke his long batting slump with a single and a double Thursday as Boston defeated Washington, 11-6. Williams, who has gone hitless 17 straight times, also walked four times as the Red Sox pounded four pitchers for 16 hits to sweep the three-game series and supplant the Senators in fifth place.

Twin Bill Is Dropped By Chiefs

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Wichita swept a double header from Lincoln here Thursday night to climb over Sioux City into fifth place by two games. Scores were 6 to 2 and 2 to 0. The twin victory put Wichita up at .500 for the first time this season.

Bill Diemer had a no hitter up to the seventh of the second game in which he shaded Frank Stewart in a nifty battle in which only four hits were made by Wichita and two by Lincoln. Bob Masser clinched it with a homer after two wide throws from short in succession gave Wichita an unearned run in the previous inning.

Orinthal Anderson clubbed a clean hit into right to wreck Diemer's hopes for a perfect game. Pinchitter Red McQuillen got the other one in the ninth.

In the first game Wichita broke a tie in the fifth without a hit. The Indians took it on a walk, safe bunt and two long flyouts and then clinched it in the sixth on three unearned runs on two doubles, a hit batsman and a pair of Lincoln infield boots.

The teams go to Salina, Kan., Friday to conclude the series with a double header.

Rocky, At 190, Goes Two Heats

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, only three pounds over his fighting weight of 187, limited his sparring to two rounds Thursday.

The champion sparred a round each with Keene Simmons and Joe Gannon.

After the workout, Marciano ducked an invitation to judge a beauty contest at the Grossinger County Club.

Champ, Castellani To Collide Tonight

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An angry row over the weigh-in time was settled late Thursday and the Olson-Castellani middleweight title fight will be held tonight as scheduled.

The bitter argument—possibly involving champion Carl (Bobo) Olson's weight—ended when Rocky Castellani's manager gave in.

"Let them weigh in at 10 a.m. for the good of the fight game," said Al Naiman, Castellani's manager.

Naiman had held out for a weigh-in at 11 a.m. PDT, while Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, wanted the fighters to step on the scales at 10 a.m. Fight followers said the earlier weigh-in would give Olson a chance to gain back some weight, if necessary, before fight time.

Kearns Credited

Bennie Ford, co-promoter with Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club, gave the veteran Jack Kearns credit for settling the dispute.

Kearns, who is with the Castellani camp, prevailed on Naiman "to accede to the champion's position that weigh-in time be conducted at 10 o'clock," Ford told sports writers.

Kearns also had something to say—as usual.

"Our fellow will win the fight in the ring and not on the scales," Kearns declared.

"We know Olson is having trouble making the weight and it doesn't matter to us when the weigh-in goes on."

The fighters should weigh 160 pounds or under at 10 a.m. today.

Olson's weight has not been made public by Flaherty, who weighed his fighter privately during his training camp sessions at Nice, Calif.

The nationally televised 15-round fight (with Northern California blacked out) is scheduled to start at the Cow Palace shortly after 7 p.m. PDT.

The odds are 4-1 the champ will retain his crown.

The pattern the battle will follow appears pretty well established. Olson, 26, drives in all the time. He is a devastating body puncher. The Honolulu-born ringman, now a San Francisco resident, is expected to stalk Castellani from bell to bell.

Darting Jab

Castellani, 27, a native of Luzerne, Pa., but now the pride of his adopted city, Cleveland, Ohio, has a darting left jab. He moves in and out and from side to side, with exceptional speed. Rocky is a counterpuncher in the main and can explode with one-two flurries.

The contest will be nationally televised at 8 p.m. CST. 100 mile radius blackout San Francisco area from the 18-000-seat livestock paviloin on the outskirts of the city.

This will be Castellani's first title crack and his first trip over the 15-round route. He lost a 12-round go to Pierre Langlois but later outpointed the tough Frenchman in ten heats.

Rookie Stops Braves, 2-1

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Rookie Gordon Jones, a major leaguer for only two weeks, throttled the pennant-hungry Milwaukee Braves with eight hits Thursday and posted a 2-1 triumph for the St. Louis Cardinals on Solly Hemus' sacrifice fly behind Wally Moon's triple in the 10th inning.

The loss, fourth for the Braves in their last 24 games, dropped them 5½ games behind league-leading New York as the Giants beat Philadelphia, 5-0.

The Braves filled the bases with two outs in the bottom of the 10th on a pair of singles wrapped around a walk, but Joe Adcock flied softly to Stan Musial in right to give Jones his first win against one loss.

Anderson Stays With 25 Leaders

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—One Nebraska boy stayed with the top 25 in the ninth International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament Thursday but one other trailed badly as another managed to keep a bit ahead of the pack.

All three Nebraska participants are from Lincoln.

Lee Anderson carded 43-36—79 for a 155, ten behind the leaders. Although he shot the par 36 on the back nine, his weighty 43 for the front green was a solid blow.

Matt Tarber, hurting [illegible] the end of the first nine, fell [illegible] further behind on the back green as he shot a 49-41—80 for his total of 157 at the end of the second round.

Mike McCuistion, hit hard by the sun-baked, sprawling course, shot 42-40—82 Thursday for his 163, far behind the leaders.

Cleveland Held To Split By Troublesome Tigers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Detroit's troublesome Tigers split a doubleheader with the league-leading Cleveland Indians Thursday, slamming 14 hits off three Cleveland pitchers in the second game to win, 8-2, after losing the first game, 4-3. The Detroit victory snapped the Tribe's winning streak at nine games.

Al Aber, a former member of the Tribe, nipped the streak with a six-hit victory marred only by a run-producing single by Sam Dente in the second, and a home run by Vic Wertz in the fourth.

The Tigers' 14 hits were off Mike Garcia, Don Mossi and Bob Hooper, and included a 3-run homer in the seventh inning by Bob Nieman, his seventh.

The Tigers chased Garcia in the fifth after taking the lead with three runs in the fourth. It was his sixth loss against 15 victories, his first defeat since June 25 and his first loss to anyone but the Yankees since May 4.

Bob Feller posted his 11th victory against two defeats in the opener with the help of Ray Narleski, who came in and struck out the side in the ninth. The Tigers made eight hits off Feller.

Phils Dropped 5-0 By Giants

NEW YORK (AP) — Davey Williams' leadoff home run was all Ruben Gomez needed Thursday as he shut out the Philadelphia Phillies with seven hits while the New York Giants were running up a winning streak of three straight with a 5-0 victory.

Ray Katt and Bobby Hofman also homered as the Giants swept the three-game series and made it eight out of eight over the Phils at the Polo Grounds to protect their two-game edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers. It was Gomez' fourth shutout of the season, and it marked the fifth time the Phillies were blanked by Giant pitching.

Hodges Homer Stops Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gil Hodges' 32nd home run and Walt Moryn's triple with the bases loaded featured an 11-hit attack that gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-5 victory over Pittsburgh Thursday despite three Pirate homers.

The Dodgers still remain two games behind the first-place New York Giants who beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0 Thursday.

Brooklyn got two runs in the second inning on Hodges' homer and Roy Campanella's single which drove in Jackie Robinson.

The Dodgers added five runs in the third frame. Pee Wee Reese singled to center and went to third on Duke Snider's double. Hodges walked to fill the bases. A smashing triple to right field by Moryn brought in three runs. Carl Furillo scored Moryn with a safety and Junior Gilliam brought in Furillo who had advanced to second on a single by Newcombe.

Orioles Edged By White Sox

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Chicago White Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 4-3 here Thursday when an Oriole rally in the rain-interrupted ninth inning sputtered to an end with Clint Courtney's strikeout.

A thunderstorm stopped the game for 67 minutes after the Orioles had put runners on first and second, with two out. Courtney's strikeout, after play resumed, was only his third this year.

Jack Harshman, although lifted in the eighth inning, was credited with his 11th win of the season, as the Sox swept the 4-game series and the Birds lost their ninth in a row.

Ted Connor, Cornhusker star of recent vintage, will be playing in the Canadian League this fall.

Nebraskans will be able to watch Ted over the television networks, specifically NBC-TV which will carry the Canadian games each Saturday.

Genial Tom Gallery, the NBC sports director who was a Lincoln visitor last fall when the Huskers were teamed against Oregon in the game of the day, writes: "I think you're going to like it. But lest you suspect that it is played with sticks and a human skull, allow me to set you straight."

Ted Connor

To begin with, the game played up North is virtually indistinguishable from American football. If anything, it is faster and more wide-open. And what's more, you will see plenty of familiar faces on your screens. Typical of the many American stars who have crossed the border to play with Canadian teams are Gene (Choo-Choo) Roberts and Tex Coulter, ex-New York Giant stars; Chuck Hunsinger, hard-running halfback from Florida; Lou Kusserow, former Columbia great; Glenn Dobbs, of Tulsa and the Los Angeles Dons; J. D. Roberts, All-American guard at Oklahoma in '53; Ed Songin, ex-Boston College quarterback; and Tom McHugh, former Notre Dame fullback.

The 13-game series involves member teams of the Eastern Big Four—Hamilton, Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal. We also hope to carry the Grey Cup game, which immediately follows the regular season and determines the national champion. The current kingpin is Hamilton, which is coached by Carl Boyles, formerly of William and Mary, Auburn and the pro Brooklyn Dodgers.

As for the Canadian brand of football itself, there are several differences, but I don't think it will take you more than one half of the first game to catch on. The Canadian gridiron is 10 yards longer and 11 2-3 yards wider, midfield thereby being the "55-yard line." Also, there are 12 men on a side instead of 11. The extra man, called a flying wing, is usually employed as a flanker. Most teams use the T or split-T formation.

Canadian teams get only three downs instead of four in which to make 10 yards. The result is that their attacks are designed to produce the long gainer. They really throw the ball around, as you will see.

They don't have a backfield-in-motion rule up there, so any area in the opposition's defense can be quickly assaulted. Downfield blocking, however, is permitted only within 10 yards of the line of scrimmage. In other words, once the ball carrier reaches the wide open spaces, he's really on his own.

Touchdowns count five points, rather than six. One point, called a "rouge," is scored against a team which receives a kick in its end zone and fails to run the ball out. A rouge also can be scored by punting the ball out of the end zone, which is 25 yards deep rather than 10. A premium therefore is placed on good punting, and the result is that there are few ties in Canadian football.

He concludes: "In short, it is fast, exciting, rugged football. This souped-up version of America's favorite Fall sport is specifically designed to produce thrills and entertainment for the spectator. I think it is entirely reasonable to foresee the day when the North American game will be standardized to combine the best features of both Canadian and U.S. football. And when that happens, a professional football World Series is the next step."

Nats Stopped By Bosox 11-6

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ted Williams broke his long batting slump with a single and a double Thursday as Boston defeated Washington, 11-6. Williams, who has gone hitless 17 straight times, also walked four times as the Red Sox pounded four pitchers for 16 hits to sweep the three-game series and supplant the Senators in fifth place.

Twin Bill Is Dropped By Chiefs

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Wichita swept a double header from Lincoln here Thursday night to climb over Sioux City into fifth place by two games. Scores were 6 to 2 and 2 to 0. The twin victory put Wichita up at .500 for the first time this season.

Bill Diemer had a no hitter up to the seventh of the second game in which he shaded Frank Stewart in a nifty battle in which only four hits were made by Wichita and two by Lincoln. Bob Masser clinched it with a homer after two wide throws from short in succession gave Wichita an unearned run in the previous inning.

Orinthal Anderson clubbed a clean hit into right to wreck Diemer's hopes for a perfect game. Pinchitter Red McQuillen got the other one in the ninth.

In the first game Wichita broke a tie in the fifth without a hit. The Indians took it on a walk, safe bunt and two long flyouts and then clinched it in the sixth on three unearned runs on two doubles, a hit batsman and a pair of Lincoln infield boots.

The teams go to Salina, Kan., Friday to conclude the series with a double header.

Rocky, At 190, Goes Two Heats

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, only three pounds over his fighting weight of 187, limited his sparring to two rounds Thursday.

The champion sparred a round each with Keene Simmons and Joe Gannon.

Rookie Stops Braves, 2-1

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Rookie Gordon Jones, a major leaguer for only two weeks, throttled the pennant-huhgry Milwaukee Braves with eight hits Thursday and posted a 2-1 triumph for the St. Louis Cardinals on Solly Hemus' sacrifice fly behind Wally Moon's triple in the 10th inning.

The loss, fourth for the Braves in their last 24 games, dropped them 5½ games behind league-leading New York as the Giants beat Philadelphia, 5-0.

The Braves filled the bases with two outs in the bottom of the 10th on a pair of singles wrapped around a walk, but Joe Adcock flied softly to Stan Musial in right to give Jones his first win against one loss.

Champ, Castellani To Collide Tonight

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An angry row over the weigh-in time was settled late Thursday and the Olson-Castellani middleweight title fight will be held tonight as scheduled.

The bitter argument—possibly involving champion Carl (Bobo) Olson's weight—ended when Rocky Castellani's manager gave in.

"Let them weigh in at 10 a.m. for the good of the fight game," said Al Naiman, Castellani's manager.

Naiman had held out for a weigh-in at 11 a.m. PDT, while Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, wanted the fighters to step on the scales at 10 a.m. Fight followers said the earlier weigh-in would give Olson a chance to gain back some weight, if necessary, before fight time.

Kearns Credited

Bennie Ford, co-promoter with Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club, gave the veteran Jack Kearns credit for settling the dispute.

Kearns, who is with the Castellani camp, prevailed on Naiman "to accede to the champion's position that weigh-in time be conducted at 10 o'clock," Ford told sports writers.

Kearns also had something to say—as usual.

"Our fellow will win the fight in the ring and not on the scales," Kearns declared.

"We know Olson is having trouble making the weight and it doesn't matter to us when the weigh-in goes on."

The fighters should weigh 160 pounds or under at 10 a.m. today.

Olson's weight has not been made public by Flaherty, who weighed his fighter privately during his training camp sessions at Nice, Calif.

The nationally televised 15-round fight (with Northern California blacked out) is scheduled to start at the Cow Palace shortly after 7 p.m. PDT.

The odds are 4-1 the champ will retain his crown.

The pattern the battle will follow appears pretty well established. Olson, 26, drives in all the time. He is a devastating body puncher. The Honolulu-born ringman, now a San Francisco resident, is expected to stalk Castellani from bell to bell.

Darting Jab

Castellani, 27, a native of Luzerne, Pa., but now the pride of his adopted city, Cleveland, Ohio, has a darting left jab. He moves in and out and from side to side, with exceptional speed. Rocky is a counterpuncher in the main and can explode with one-two flurries.

The contest will be nationally televised at 8 p.m. CST. 100 mile radius blackout San Francisco area from the 18-000-seat livestock paviliion on the outskirts of the city.

This will be Castellani's first title crack and his first trip over the 15-round route. He lost a 12-round go to Pierre Langlois but later outpointed the tough Frenchman in ten heats.

Anderson Stays With 25 Leaders

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—One Nebraska boy stayed with the top 25 in the ninth International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament Thursday but one other trailed badly as another managed to keep a bit ahead of the pack.

All three Nebraska participants are from Lincoln.

Lee Anderson carded 43-36—79 for a 155, ten behind the leaders. Although he shot the par 36 on the back nine, his weighty 43 for the front green was a solid blow.

Matt Tarber, hurtin[illegible]e end of the first nine, fell [illegible]er behind on the back green as he shot a 49-41—80 for his total of 157 at the end of the second round.

Mike McCuistion, hit hard by the sun-baked, sprawling course, shot 42-40—82 Thursday for his 163, far behind the leaders.

Yuma Chief Wins $1,200 Sowers Purse

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

Yuma Chief, a seven-year-old son of Dogaway from the K. S. Ferguson stables, walked away with the $1,200 Sowers Purse at the Fairgrounds Thursday.

The big chestnut opened up an early lead, and along with Lord Longford, set the pace for the eight-horse field in the six and one-half furlong race. Yuma Chief pulled away and as Lord Longford fell out of contention, Camstar came on to take place money three lengths behind the winner.

Jockey Charles Guinup, who is the leading rider at the track but had only one feature win to his credit during the meeting, was aboard Yuma Chief.

Calvin Santage rode two winners Thursday, piloting Vohenjr to an easy victory in the six-and-one-half furlong third race, and booting Johnny Acres home two-and-one-half lengths ahead in the long eighth.

Miss Ashland and Eternal Dream combined for a $228.80 daily double. Miss Ashland had a length and a half the better of Gypsy Dan in the short first, and Eternal Dream won the second by two lengths.

Keen Olo and Jennie Hill finished in a dead heat in the fourth race. Peach Basket won the long fifth by two-and-one-half lengths. Just Powder, with veteran Bill Bazer up, breezed home in the sixth.

Three jockeys and an agent drew fines for various offenses on Wednesday's program. The stewards fined:

Apprentice Jockey Louis Germany $25 for failure to give racing room following the break and on the first turn during the fourth race.

Jockey Joe Rettele $25 for failure to ride Crafty War out in the first race.

Jockey Charles Guinup $50 for allowing Devil's Encore to drift out in the stretch in the first race.

A crowd of 4,000 bet $158,965 Thursday, enough to put the total handle for the meet over the million-dollar mark.

Yankees Pick Up Half Game With 8-5 Win Over Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The New York Yankees chopped a half-game off the lead of the Cleveland Indians Thursday night with a hard-earned 8-5 win over the luckless Philadelphia Athletics. The A's chased veteran Eddie Lopat with a five-run rally in the eighth before Johnny Sain saved the Yankees' 10th straight win.

The Yanks' win, coupled with Cleveland's twin-bill split with Detroit cut the Tribe's margin to 2½ games and drew the Yankees closer in the precious games lost column.

But the Bronx Bombers had a late inning struggle to put down before they clinched the game and the series sweep.

Yuma Chief Wins $1,200 Sowers Purse

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

Yuma Chief, a seven-year-old son of Dogaway from the K. S. Ferguson stables, walked away with the $1,200 Sowers Purse at the Fairgrounds Thursday.

The big chestnut opened up an early lead, and along with Lord Longford, set the pace for the eight-horse field in the six and one-half furlong race. Yuma Chief pulled away and as Lord Longford fell out of contention, Camstar came on to take place money three lengths behind the winner.

Jockey Charles Guinup, who is the leading rider at the track but had only one feature win to his credit during the meeting, was aboard Yuma Chief.

Calvin Santage rode two winners Thursday, piloting Vohenjr to an easy victory in the six-and-one-half furlong third race, and booting Johnny Acres home two-and-one-half lengths ahead in the long eighth.

Miss Ashland and Eternal Dream combined for a $228.80 daily double. Miss Ashland had a length and a half the better of Gypsy Dan in the short first, and Eternal Dream won the second by two lengths.

Keen Olo and Jennie Hill finished in a dead heat in the fourth race. Peach Basket won the long fifth by two-and-one-half lengths.

Just Powder, with veteran Bill Bazer up, breezed home in the sixth.

Three jockeys and an agent drew fines for various offenses on Wednesday's program. The stewards fined:

Apprentice Jockey Louis Germany $25 for failure to give racing room following the break and on the first turn during the fourth race.

Jockey Joe Rettele $25 for failure to ride Crafty War out in the first race.

Jockey agent Wayne Murty $25 for failure to fulfill his duties as an agent.

Jockey Charles Guinup $50 for allowing Devil's Encore to drift out in the stretch in the first race.

Omaha Team In Net Tourney Win

State Singles champion Steve Broadie teamed with another Omahan, Fred Pisasle, Thursday to win a semifinals match in the state tennis tourney's men's doubles competition.

The Omahans beat a Lincoln team, Maj. Charles Hanner and Roy Colson, in a marathon contest, 9-11, 7-5, 6-1.

The Broadie-Pisasle duo will meet Jim Porter and Rev. S. Siegienski, both of Lincoln, in the men's doubles finals Wednesday at the Lincoln Tennis Club courts.

Yankees Pick Up Half Game With 8-5 Win Over Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The New York Yankees chopped a half-game off the lead of the Cleveland Indians Thursday night with a hard-earned 8-5 win over the luckless Philadelphia Athletics. The A's chased veteran Eddie Lopat with a five-run rally in the eighth before Johnny Sain saved the Yankees' 10th straight win.

The Yanks' win, coupled with Cleveland's twin-bill split with Detroit cut the Tribe's margin to 2½ games and drew the Yankees closer in the precious games lost column.

But the Bronx Bombers had a late inning struggle to put down before they clinched the game and the series sweep.

Midget Footballers To Apply Saturday

All boys interested in playing midget football must make their applications Saturday, Aug. 21, at 1:30 p.m. in their respective districts, according to league officials.

South Street boys will apply at Irvingdale Park, Northeast boys at the school grounds at Northeast High, Down Town Merchants at Whittier school, and Roberts Dairy at Muny Park.

Teams shall be located in four sections of the city.

The city shall be divided in half by O which runs east and west. The south portion of the city shall be divided by the 1800 block which runs east and west. (The 1800 block inclusive is Roberts territory.)

The portion north of O shall be divided by a line running south on 33rd to Holdrege and then east to 38th, then south to O and then east on O.

Grid Hopefuls Get Equipment

Lincoln High Tops In Number; Northeast Coach Suffers Blow

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Bill Pfeiff of Lincoln High received the heaviest turnout in town Thursday when the Capital City's prep football hopefuls began checking out equipment.

Hennings

The most serious blow to fall prospects was suffered by veteran coach Bun Galloway out at Northeast.

Pfeiff stepped from the rostrum at the Nebraska Coaching School and greeted over 50 prospects for the 1954 Links. He will keep the equipment room open Friday and expects to have about 200 candiidates for the squad when practice begins Monday morning.

The Links, ranked high in the state last fall, will work out in suits in the morning and in shorts in the afternoon.

Forty-five potential Rockets joined Galloway at the Northeast locker room, but big Larry Hennings, Bun's all-state center from the 1953 squad, was absent.

Hennings is skipping his senior year because of a knee injury suffered last fall.

Galloway expects to work with a squad of 65 when practice starts Monday morning. The size is average for Northeast.

Coach Vince Aldrich met 40 players at Cathedral High and believes the squad will be augmented by no more than four boys when the equipment doors are closed today.

Aldrich commented that many of the Bluejays had grown well during the summer.

Tackle Bill Straumer reversed the trend toward growth and reported at 206 pounds. The big boy weighed 232 last fall.

Aldrich and Cathedral are looking for a quarterback to lead the parochial squad this fall now that slim Bill Frappia no longer throws the ball for the Blue and White.

Practice will start at 9 a.m. Monday.

Tom Gillaspie found 28 boys waiting for him at College View.

He expects 44 to be on the Viewman field Monday morning. Checkouts will be continued today and Saturday.

The biggest newcomer to C. V. was Bob Fitch, a 6-1½ Lincoln boy who played out-of-state last fall. He weighed in at 270-pounds.

New Gear For The Viewmen

Deadline For Swim Entries Is Extended

Then entry deadline for Saturday's Sunday Journal and Star senior city swimming meet at Capitol Beach has been extended to 6 p.m. Saturday, meet director Warren Emery has announced.

The original entry deadline was 6 p.m. Thursday. Entry blanks must be turned in at the Capitol Beach offices, and are available at Muny, Capitol Beach, Lincoln Country Club, Hillcrest, YMCA and YWCA pools.

Medals will be awarded to winners of each of the 12 events, and certificates go to place winners. There are trophies for the mens and womens divisions winners, and to the winner of the 200-yard free style goes the Clifton Lambert Memorial Trophy.

Defending champions Eddie Craren and Kathy Hartwig won't be around this year, so competition for their trophies will be wide open. Rod Thomas, winner of the Lambert Trophy, will be back to defend his title.

Carl Bodensteiner, winner of the Sunday Journal and Star junior boys championship last week, will be in the running for the senior title. Other top contestants are Dave Gradwohl, Larry Converse, Bob Guthmann, Paul Schorr, Monroe Usher and Tom Houchen.

State AAU diving champ Ann Nothnagel is expected to be the top candidate for the women's championship. Sally Laase and Wendy Makepeace, who tied for the junior girls title last week, will be in the running as will Joyce Burns, who won the prep girls diving championship witn a fine exhibition last Saturday.

During the 1953 season Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians hit "grand slam" homers off pitchers Bill Wight and Marion Fricano.

Aussies Gain National Net Meet Win

By BOB HOOBING

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Powerful Lew Hoad and clever Ken Rosewall, Australia's 19-year-old Davis Cup aces, scored an impressive 7-5, 6-1, 6-4 quarter-final victory Thursday over Gardnar Mulloy and Art Larson in the national doubles tennis tournament.

The Australians, first-seeded foreigners, came from behind in the first set, then stormed past the fourth-seeded Americans the rest of the way on the grass courts made slippery by light intermittent rain.

Hoad and Rosewall's 17-year-old countrymen, Ashley Cooper and Roy Emerson, however, fell before the more experienced No. 2 American tandem of Bill Talbert and Ham Richardson, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Favorites Win

The favored women combinations of England's first-seeded Anne Shilcock and Helen Fletcher and America's second-ranked Louise Brough and Margaret Osborne du Pont won their women's quarter-finals as expected.

Shilcock and Fletcher defeated Margaret Varner and Ethel Norton of El Paso, Texas, 7-5, 6-3. Miss Brough and Miss du Pont had an even easier time dispensing with Karol Fagaros of Miami and Isabele Troccole of New York, 6-1, 6-1.

The turning point of the Hoad-Rosewall, Larsen-Mulloy match came when the Aussies won the last three games of the first set, breaking through Larsen's and Mulloy's service, after being down 4-5.

The Australians broke the fourth seeded American's service five times in all, twice more in the second set and once in the third.

The triumph of Talbert, 36-year-old U. S. Davis Cup captain, and Richardson, 20-year-old Tulane University ace was not a surprise though it did break the mastery of the Australians.

Miss Fletcher and Miss Shilcock out-volleyed their unseeded opponents for their triumph, twice breaking Miss Varner's service in the second set which they clinched when the lefthanded Miss Fletcher stroked a return past Miss Norton. The losers held a 6-3 advantage in the first set and 3-0 in the second but couldn't hold it.

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Woodling, the Yankees' left fielder, is called "Porky" by his teammates.

"Buffalo Hunters"

A review of the new book by Mari Sandoz, Nebraska-born author.

'Man of the Hour'

Utah's Senator Arthur Watkins will preside over new hearings into activities of his fellow Senator, Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin. Watkins tells how he proposes to conduct the hearings, with no "circus" allowed.

War of Wheels

Competition in the auto industry has returned with a vengeance, and the buyer has taken over the market's steering wheel.

A package story of the effects of this struggle among industrial giants and what it means.

Cop With 3 Million Fans

Spokane, Washington has a traffic policeman who uses a hidden microphone to record the outraged cries of traffic violators as they are arrested. This story will fascinate you—as it has his three million listeners over West Coast radio stations.

Same Old Methods

The army, its soldiers and their mothers recognize the need for more realistic training for GIs, but training practices indicate methods are about the same as World War II.

World Is Wobbly?

Yes—and you have a part in making it do so. A scientific fellow in Maryland is trying to measure how much, and has an interesting report of his findings to date.

Grid Hopefuls Get Equipment

Lincoln High Tops In Number; Northeast Coach Suffers Blow

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Bill Pfeiff of Lincoln High received the heaviest turnout in town Thursday when the Capital City's prep football hopefuls began checking out equipment.

Hennings

The most serious blow to fall prospects was suffered by veteran coach Bun Galloway out at Northeast.

Pfeiff stepped from the rostrum at the Nebraska Coaching School and greeted over 50 prospects for the 1954 Links. He will keep the equipment room open Friday and expects to have about 100 candiidates for the squad when practice begins Monday morning.

The Links, ranked high in the state last fall, will work out in suits in the morning and in shorts in the afternoon.

Forty-five potential Rockets joined Galloway at the Northeast locker room, but big Larry Hennings, Bun's all-state center from the 1953 squad, was absent.

Hennings is skipping his senior year because of a knee injury suffered last fall.

Galloway expects to work with a squad of 65 when practice starts Monday morning. The size is average for Northeast.

Coach Vince Aldrich met 40 players at Cathedral High and believes the squad will be augmented by no more than four boys when the equipment doors are closed today.

Aldrich commented that many of the Bluejays had grown well during the summer.

Tackle Bill Straumer reversed the trend toward growth and reported at 206 pounds. The big boy weighed 232 last fall.

Aldrich and Cathedral are looking for a quarterback to lead the parochial squad this fall now that slim Bill Frappia no longer throws the ball for the Blue and White.

Practice will start at 9 a.m. Monday.

Tom Gillaspie found 28 boys waiting for him at College View.

He expects 44 to be on the Viewman field Monday morning. Checkouts will be continued today and Saturday.

The biggest newcomer to C. V. was Bob Fitch, a 6-1½ Lincoln boy who played out-of-state last fall. He weighed in at 270-pounds.

Harland Mook weighed at 222-pounds. Six senior lettermen reporting were Glen Hoy, Rich Walker, Gene Reed, Dave Paulsen, Lynn Hatcher and Lowell Ham.

New Gear For The Viewmen

Coach Tom Gillaspie of College View, stocked with a supply of new football gear, handed out pads to his 1954 candidates Thursday. Gillaspie (left) watches while Jack Harvey (holding shoulder pads), Richard Walker, Bill Janike (seated), Lynn Hatcher (putting on shoes) and Billy Van Cleave (front) try the new equipment. Deadline For Swim Entries Is Extended

Then entry deadline for Saturday's Sunday Journal and Star senior city swimming meet at Capitol Beach has been extended to 6 p.m. Saturday, meet director Warren Emery has announced.

The original entry deadline was 6 p.m. Thursday. Entry blanks must be turned in at the Capitol Beach offices, and are available at Muny, Capitol Beach, Lincoln Country Club, Hillcrest, YMCA and YWCA pools.

Medals will be awarded to winners of each of the 12 events, and certificates go to place winners. There are trophies for the mens and womens divisions winners, and to the winner of the 200-yard free style goes the Clifton Lambert Memorial Trophy.

Defending champions Eddie Craren and Kathy Hartwig won't be around this year, so competition for their trophies will be wide open. Rod Thomas, winner of the Lambert Trophy, will be back to defend his title.

Carl Bodensteiner, winner of the Sunday Journal and Star junior boys championship last week, will be in the running for the senior title. Other top contestants are Dave Gradwohl, Larry Converse, Bob Guthmann, Paul Schorr, Monroe Usher and Tom Houchen.

State AAU diving champ Ann Nothnagel is expected to be the top candidate for the women's championship. Sally Laase and Wendy Makepeace, who tied for the junior girls title last week, will be in the running as will Joyce Burns, who won the prep girls diving championship witn a fine exhibition last Saturday.

During the 1953 season Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians hit "grand slam" homers off pitchers Bill Wight and Marion Fricano.

Hoad, Rosewall Impressive

Aussies Gain National Net Meet Win

By BOB HOOBING

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Powerful Lew Hoad and clever Ken Rosewall, Australia's 19-year-old Davis Cup aces, scored an impressive 7-5, 6-1, 6-4 quarter-final victory Thursday over Gardnar Mulloy and Art Larson in the national doubles tennis tournament.

The Australians, first-seeded foreigners, came from behind in the first set, then stormed past the fourth-seeded Americans the rest of the way on the grass courts made slippery by light intermittent rain.

Hoad and Rosewall's 17-year-old countrymen, Ashley Cooper and Roy Emerson, however, fell before the more experienced No. 2 American tandem of Bill Talbert and Ham Richardson, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Favorites Win

The favored women combinations of England's first-seeded Anne Shilcock and Helen Fletcher and America's second-ranked Louise Brough and Margaret Osborne du Pont won their women's quarter-finals as expected.

Shilcock and Fletcher defeated Margaret Varner and Ethel Norton of El Paso, Texas, 7-5, 6-3. Miss Brough and Miss du Pont had an even easier time dispensing with Karol Fagaros of Miami and Isabele Troccole of New York, 6-1, 6-1.

The turning point of the Hoad-Rosewall, Larsen-Mulloy match came when the Aussies won the last three games of the first set, breaking through Larsen's and Mulloy's service, after being down 4-5.

The Australians broke the fourth seeded American's service five times in all, twice more in the second set and once in the third.

The triumph of Talbert, 36-year-old U. S. Davis Cup captain, and Richardson, 20-year-old Tulane University ace was not a surprise though it did break the mastery of the Australians.

Miss Fletcher and Miss Shilcock out-volleyed their unseeded opponents for their triumph, twice breaking Miss Varner's service in the second set which they clinched when the lefthanded Miss Fletcher stroked a return past Miss Norton. The losers held a 6-3 advantage in the first set and 3-0 in the second but couldn't hold it.

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Woodling, the Yankees' left fielder, is called "Porky" by his teammates.

State 'Loophole:'

U.S. Senate Expense Lists Not Required

A legal "loophole" apparently relieves candidates for United States senator from having to file reports of their campaign expenditures with the secretary of state. "But they have been doing it through the years because it was the politic thing to do," Attorney Gen. Clarence Beck commented Thursday.

Law requires candidates for state and district office to file campaign expense reports, but U.S. senators were still being named by the legislature when the act was passed many years ago. This is the "loophole" to which Beck referred.

Law Not Amended

After the method of selecting U.S. senators was changed so they would be elected by the people instead of appointed by the Legislature, the law regarding reporting campaign expenditures was not amended to include senatorial candidates.

But federal law requires senatorial candidates to report their campaign expenditures to the clerk of the U.S. senate.

"So they just file a copy with this office even though our state law evidently doesn't require it," deputy secretary of state Roland Luedtke commented.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

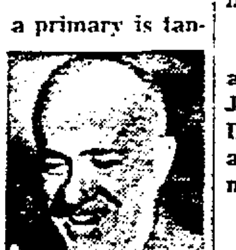
BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS

By Arthur 'Bugs' Baer

The primaries are harvested in the outlying districts. Results look as undecided as a man with two neckties.

In some states a primary is tantamount to being nominated. A nomination is as good as being elected. And being elected is equivalent to getting investigated.



Bugs Baer

☆ ☆ ☆

They hold the primaries about the time you cannot see a short mule in the corn. That gives the opposition two months to look over the books and discover where the bodies are buried.

☆ ☆ ☆

This kind of business is as spontaneous as antique furniture. It all goes back to the time when weather was uncertain, roads were bad and there were no telephones to tap.

The four months between election and inaugural gave George Washington time to ride from where he was to where he was going. Nobody suspected a century later Eleanor Roosevelt would make the four-mile minute from Hyde Park to Pennsylvania Avenue.

☆ ☆ ☆

Franklin Roosevelt moved Inaugural Day up from March to January, pushed Thanksgiving Day around and was working up a new schedule for the tides, equinoxes and laying hens.

☆ ☆ ☆

Two months is a long time for a future congressman to save up his frankable laundry. You can tell a candidate has conceded defeat when you see his wash on the line again.

☆ ☆ ☆

Oldtimers like Dewey Short don't bother much about campaigning in the primaries, the secondaries or the thirdaries. He just throws his hat over the transom, calls his dog and whistles for his secretary.

☆ ☆ ☆

☆ ☆ ☆

Hog Prices Up; Cattle Variable

OMAHA (AP)—Hog prices continued to advance under good demand here Thursday. Prices were generally 25 to 50 cents higher, most of the advance on sows. Steers and heifers grading choice and better were steady, other grades were slow and weak to 25 cents or more lower. Fat lambs slumped 50 cents to $1, quality not too attractive.

OMAHA

Hogs: Salable 4,000; active, 25-50 higher; choice 200-240 lbs. barrows and gilts $23.75@24.50; later price sparingly for choice 1 offering; choice 190-200 lbs. $22.00@23.71; 240-270 lbs. $23.25@24.25; choice sows under 330 lbs. $21.00@21.75; ewes $22.00; heavier sows, $18.00@21.00.

Cattle: Salable 2,800; calves 121; fed steers average choice and better steady; lower grades weak to 25 or more lower; fed heifers mostly steady; cows steady to 25 lower; bulls firm to 25 higher; vealers steady to strong; stockers and feeders in light supply, steady; choice to prime 969 lbs. yearling steers $25.00; most choice steers $22.50@24.75; good to low choice $19.50@22.00; choice to prime heifers $23.25; several shipments choice heifers $21.00@22.50; utility and commercial cows $9.75@12.50; canners and cutters $8.00@9.75; few lots medium and good light stockers and feeders $15.00@19.00.

Sheep: Salable 800; slaughter lambs 50c-$1.00 lower, general quality below Wednesday's average; ewes steady; good to prime native spring slaughter lambs $18.00@19.00; good and choice shorn slaughter ewes $4.00@4.75; cull and utility $3.00@4.00.

CHICAGO

Hogs: Salable 5,500; moderately active to slow; butchers and sows unevenly steady to 25c higher; bulk choice 190 to 280 lbs., $23.25@23.85; heavier butchers scarce; a few 280 to 330 lbs., $21.50@23.25; choice 330 to 440 lb. sows $18.75@20.50 with 325 lb. and lighter $20.75@21.25.

Cattle. Salable 2,000; calves 300; steers and heifers average choice and better steady; to 50c lower; cows steady to 50c lower; bulls about steady; vealers steady to $1.00 lower; a load of choice to low prime 1,306 lb. steers $25.25; a few prime steers sold up to $26.25; a few sales choice steers $23.00@24.50; a few choice heifers $20.75@22.00; utility and commercial cows $10.00@13.00; good and choice vealers $18.00@22.00.

Sheep: Salable 1,000; slow; slaughter spring lambs unevenly $1.00@1.50 lower than Wednesday and around $2.00 lower for the past two days; yearlings absent; nominally steady; slaughter sheep about steady; good to prime spring lambs $18.50@21.00.

SIOUX CITY

Cattle: 2,300; slaughter steers and heifers slow, steady to weak; cows slow, about steady; bulls fairly active, strong; stockers and feeders mainly little changed; few sales choice fed steers 22.50@23.25; choice heifers 20.00@22.50; bulk utility cows 10.50@11.50; medium and good stock steers 14.50@18.00.

Hogs: 4,000; active; barrows and gilts 25-50 higher; sows strong to mostly 25 higher, some 50 up; choice 190-240 lb. barrows and gilts 23.25@24.00; choice sows 330 lbs. down 20.50@21.25.

ST. JOSEPH

Hogs: 2,000. Barrows and gilts steady to 35 higher; choice 190 to 240 lbs. 23.50@24.25; sows 25 to 50 higher; choice up to 360 lbs., 19.50@21.50.

Cattle: 400; calves 100. Slaughter steers and yearlings steady to 25 lower; beef cows steady to 50 lower; canners and cutters steady to strong; choice 1,069 lb. fed steers 23.25; good to low choice 21.00@21.50.

Cattle—Steer steady to 50 cents down; top $26.25.

Stocks Feature Slow Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—Demand for steels, aircrafts and motion pictures nudged the stock market upward Thursday. But volume declined to 2,320,000 shares from Wednesday's 2,390,000, the slowest trading in more than a week.

Copper mining, rubber and oil issues were generally lower and the rest of the market was a jumble of small gains and losses. Advances tended to outdistance declines, but prices at the close were below the best of the session.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cents to $134.60. This is only 10 cents below the high for the year, a record that dates back to October, 1929. The industrial component advanced 70 cents to $181.70 and utilities climbed 10 cents to $65.20, a new 1954 peak. But the railroad component dipped 10 cents to $100.

Several brokerage houses said that with the market close to its highest levels in the past 25 years, it is in a vulnerable position. The backing and filling of the past three sessions indicates a consolidation of recent progress. The market will soon be ready to assault its previous high with vigor or undergo a downward correction, they explained.

The American Stock Exchange was irregularly higher as volume slipped to 630,000 shares from 670,000 Wednesday.

Soya Futures Climb To Limit

CHICAGO (INS) — Soybean futures closed 2¾ to 4⅛ cents a bushel higher Thursday. The September future showed the most upturn after Wednesday's 10-cent daily limit decline.

Grains closed irregular after moving nervously within a moderate range in slow trading.

Wheat closed ½ lower to ¼ higher; corn ⅛ up to ⅞ down; oats ⅛ up to ⅛ down, and rye ½ to ⅝ higher.

September wheat closed ¼ up at $2.13¼ a bushel; September corn down at $1.64¼; September oats unchanged at 73¼; September rye ⅝ up at $1.19½, and September soybeans 3⅛ to 4⅛ up at $3.16 to $3.17.

STATE

Thursday — State-Federal Poultry Market Report:

Eggs: Barely steady. Though prices are not generally lower at time of this report, a weak tone has entered the market. Demand for export eggs is slow. Lack of proper care of produce by farmers has held up quality improvements expected from more favorable weather. Price per dozen paid producers delivered to country buying stations.

Jail-Breaking Try Brings Extra Term

DAVID CITY, Neb. (AP)—The jail-breaking efforts of Frank B. Mahoney, 28, of Lincoln, have brought him an extra term in the Nebraska State Penitentiary.

In his unsuccessful attempt to escape from Butler County Jail last week, Mahoney attacked David City Police Officer Henry Struebing.

District Judge H. Emerson Kokjer sentenced the man to a two-year term in the Penitentiary on an assault charge.

He also gave Mahoney two one-year sentences for issuing no-fund checks. The three terms will run concurrently.

Mahoney pleaded guilty on all counts in District Court.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroad and utility obligations moved slightly higher in the corporate bond market Thursday. Industrials presented a mixed picture.

U.S. Treasury issues steadied after declining most of the week in anticipation of further government financing.

Trading in the corporate market slumped to the smallest figure of the week a $2,670,000 par value. That compares with $3,920,000 Wednesday.

Enterprise Meets Truck Scale Threat

State Engineer L. N. Ress says it has been reported to him that a North Platte filling station has installed a truck scale so that eastbound trucks can fill their fuel tanks up to the maximum weight permitted by the "tolerance" law without fear of the state weighing station two miles further east.

Much of the opposion to arrests made at the state station, Ress said, comes from operators of filling stations who have been losing business from heavily loaded trucks because they fear the added fuel would make them overweight.

The new scale was installed, he said, in an effort to retain more of the refueling business for the North Platte stations.

Budget for the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, for the fiscal year beginning September 6, 1954

Lincoln, Nebraska, August 14, 1954

To the Honorable City Council
City of Lincoln, Nebraska.

There is submitted herewith the annual estimate of expense and funds needed for the operation of the city of Lincoln, Nebraska, for the fiscal year beginning September 6, 1954, generally referred to as the "Budget."

This budget consists of two parts: Part I includes all operations of the city that are supported in whole or in part by tax on property and is composed of two sections: 1-A and 1-B. Section 1-A is known as the general Operating Budget, and includes all of the general operating departments of the city, to which the limit of taxation in the charter applies.

Section 1-B includes such tax funds as are not included in the charter limitation and is known as "Special Levy" or unlimited appropriations.

Part II which is attached is known as the budget for Self-sustaining funds, and includes such departments for which no taxes are levied on property for the operation and maintenance of the same.

The appropriation ordinance, when adopted, should contain an appropriation of $1,046,400, for storm sewers to be paid from the proceeds of bonds to be issued under authority granted at the special election held on June 15, 1954, and there should be appropriated in the Auditorium Building fund, all of the money in said fund arising from sale of bonds, investments and other incomes, together with money in the Parking Lot fund for the purpose of erecting a public building to be used as a city auditorium and equipping the same as provided by the charter of said city.

That there be established a Sidewalk Revolving fund for the purpose of paying for construction of sidewalks for which the city will be reimbursed, in the amount of $5,000 as proposed herein, and that all money received in Revolving funds including Inspection fund, Stores Revolving fund and Utility Payroll Revolving fund, be credited to such funds in accordance with the purpose for which the same is created.

That all encumbrances outstanding against prior appropriations at the close of the fisca year on August 31, 1954, be added to the appropriation for the following year

The total valuation of the city as returned by the County Assessor including intangible and motor vehicles, plus railroads from the State Board of Equalization is $228,962,070. This figure when multiplied by 9¾ mills will produce the sum of $2,232,380.17.

Under the charter, the budget is prepared on a basis of 90% of the levy, which would make the 90% limit, $2,009,142.16. The city assessed valuation is $137,814,965. The proposed budget provides for a levy of 11.306 mills for the limited funds, producing $1,402,319.63.

This budget is compiled in accordance with the figures as determined by the city council after conferences with the different department heads and due study and consideration of the welfare and needs of the city, and is now submitted for adoption.

Respectfully submitted,
THEO. H. BERG, Director,
Department of Accounts & Finance.

Stocks Feature Slow Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—Demand for steels, aircrafts and motion pictures nudged the stock market upward Thursday. But volume declined to 2,320,000 shares from Wednesday's 2,390,000, the slowest trading in more than a week.

Copper mining, rubber and oil issues were generally lower and the rest of the market was a jumble of small gains and losses. Advances tended to outdistance declines, but prices at the close were below the best of the session.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cents to $134.60. This is only 10 cents below the high for the year, a record that dates back to October, 1929. The industrial component advanced 70 cents to $181.70 and utilities climbed 10 cents to $65.20, a new 1954 peak. But the railroad component dipped 10 cents to $100.

Several brokerage houses said that with the market close to its highest levels in the past 25 years, it is in a vulnerable position. The backing and filling of the past three sessions indicates a consolidation of recent progress. The market will soon be ready to assault its previous high with vigor or undergo a downward correction, they explained.

The American Stock Exchange was irregularly higher as volume slipped to 630,000 shares from 670,000 Wednesday.

Jail-Breaking Try Brings Extra Term

DAVID CITY, Neb. (AP)—The jail-breaking efforts of Frank B. Mahoney, 28, of Lincoln, have brought him an extra term in the Nebraska State Penitentiary.

In his unsuccessful attempt to escape from Butler County Jail last week, Mahoney attacked David City Police Officer Henry Struebing.

District Judge H. Emerson Kokjer sentenced the man to a two-year term in the Penitentiary on an assault charge.

He also gave Mahoney two one-year sentences for issuing no-fund checks. The three terms will run concurrently.

Mahoney pleaded guilty on all counts in District Court.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroad and utility obligations moved slightly higher in the corporate bond market Thursday. Industrials presented a mixed picture.

U.S. Treasury issues steadied after declining most of the week in anticipation of further government financing.

Trading in the corporate market slumped to the smallest figure of the week a $2,670,000 par value. That compares with $3,920,000 Wednesday.

Enterprise Meets Truck Scale Threat

State Engineer L. N. Ress says it has been reported to him that a North Platte filling station has installed a truck scale so that eastbound trucks can fill their fuel tanks up to the maximum weight permitted by the "tolerance" law without fear of the state weighing station two miles further east.

Much of the opposion to arrests made at the state station, Ress said, comes from operators of filling stations who have been losing business from heavily loaded trucks because they fear the added fuel would make them overweight.

The new scale was installed, he said, in an effort to retain more of the refueling business for the North Platte stations.

Budget for the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, for the fiscal year beginning September 6, 1954

Lincoln, Nebraska, August 14, 1954

To the Honorable City Council
City of Lincoln, Nebraska.

There is submitted herewith the annual estimate of expense and funds needed for the operation of the city of Lincoln, Nebraska, for the fiscal year beginning September 6, 1954, generally referred to as the "Budget."

This budget consists of two parts: Part I includes all operations of the city that are supported in whole or in part by tax on property and is composed of two sections: 1-A and 1-B. Section 1-A is known as the general Operating Budget, and includes all of the general operating departments of the city, to which the limit of taxation in the charter applies.

Section 1-B includes such tax funds as are not included in the charter limitation and is known as "Special Levy" or unlimited appropriations.

Part II which is attached is known as the budget for Self-sustaining funds, and includes such departments for which no taxes are levied on property for the operation and maintenance of the same.

The appropriation ordinance, when adopted, should contain an appropriation of $1,046,400, for storm sewers to be paid from the proceeds of bonds to be issued under authority granted at the special election held on June 15, 1954, and there should be appropriated in the Auditorium Building fund, all of the money in said fund arising from sale of bonds, investments and other incomes, together with money in the Parking Lot fund for the purpose of erecting a public building to be used as a city auditorium and equipping the same as provided by the charter of said city.

That there be established a Sidewalk Revolving fund for the purpose of paying for construction of sidewalks for which the city will be reimbursed, in the amount of $5,000 as proposed herein, and that all money received in Revolving funds including Inspection fund, Stores Revolving fund and Utility Payroll Revolving fund, be credited to such funds in accordance with the purpose for which the same is created.

That all encumbrances outstanding against prior appropriations at the close of the fisca year on August 31, 1954, be added to the appropriation for the following year

The total valuation of the city as returned by the County Assessor including intangible and motor vehicles, plus railroads from the State Board of Equalization is $228,962,070. This figure when multiplied by 9¾ mills will produce the sum of $2,232,380.17.

Under the charter, the budget is prepared on a basis of 90% of the levy, which would make the 90% limit, $2,009,142.16. The city assessed valuation is $137,814,965. The proposed budget provides for a levy of 11.306 mills for the limited funds, producing $1,402,319.63.

This budget is compiled in accordance with the figures as determined by the city council after conferences with the different department heads and due study and consideration of the welfare and needs of the city, and is now submitted for adoption.

Respectfully submitted.
THEO. H. BERG, Director,
Department of Accounts & Finance.

Adenauer Fights French Pact Plan

Five Nations Reject Revisions Offered By Mendes-France On Europe Defense Treaty

BRUSSELS (INS)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer appeared Thursday at the Brussels conference for firm West European unity and rejected French proposals to water down the European Army Treaty.

Adenauer was joined by the foreign ministers of Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg in turning down "in their present form" the revisions submitted by French Premier Pierre Mendes-France as a necessary step toward securing French ratification of the European Defense Community Pact.

No progress was reported made at the first session of the two-day six-nation EDC conference. The ministers will meet again Friday amid indications that the parley may continue over the weekend and possibly into next week in view of the existing deadlock.

A spokesman for Adenauer said all five nations had rejected the French revisions as they stand. He said the amendments were rejected on the ground they would require new ratifications by the parliaments of the signatory countries. France and Italy are the only EDC partners which have not ratified the treaty in its present form.

The German spokesman said that Adenauer, first speaker at the session, warned the ministers that even if the French revisions were accepted at the session, they would not be approved by the parliaments of the other respective states.

Quick Solution

Adenauer further emphasized that a quick solution must be found to the West European situation since the world "cannot endure another postponement."

Adenauer was seconded by Italian Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni and by the other diplomats. Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, chairman of the session, spoke in friendly but firm support of the position taken by the majority against the French revisions.

Spaak urged during the afternoon session that if the delegates were unable to reach agreement on the revisions, they should then agree on a "declaration of intentions" to study the proposals and meet again at a future date.

Diplomatic informants said that Spaak's suggestion was not acted upon.

A participant at the opening of the six-nation EDC conference said that Adenauer, his voice shaking with emotion, warned the other nations they had come close to creating a united states of Europe and that this ideal was in danger of slipping away.

The elderly German statesman made it clear at the same time that French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's proposed revisions of the EDC treaty were unacceptable in their present form.

Mendes-France replied that he faced tremendous difficulties at home in securing parliamentary ratification of the EDC treaty, which would provide for a 500,000-man German army in the Western Allied camp.

But aside from an apparent willingness of Mendes-France to revise some of his amendments opposed by Adenauer, no results toward a compromisé were achieved.

Germans Protest; Maneuver Is Off

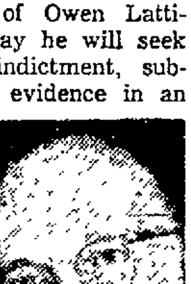
MAINZ, Germany (AP) — West German officials said Thursday 20 combat field exercises scheduled by the U. S. Army in the Rhineland Palatinate have been canceled after German protests.

Officials of Rhineland Palatinate, in the French zone, had objected on the ground the exercises would interfere with harvesting of crops, especially wheat.

In Heidelberg, Army officials emphasized that the biggest fall maneuvers scheduled in the American zone are still on. The first, involving the 5th Corps, takes place Sept. 23-26 in Hesse.

Reindictment Of Lattimore To Be Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government prosecutor of Owen Lattimore said Thursday he will seek another perjury indictment, submitting additional evidence in an effort to show Lattimore lied when he testified he never promoted Communist causes.



Lattimore

The courts have thrown out, as too vague, the key charge that the Far East specialist and onetime State Department consultant lied when he swore he never was a sympathizer or promoter of Communism. Five counts of perjury—described as trivia by Lattimore's lawyers—are still pending.

U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover, in announcing he would try for another indictment, said that whether he gets it or not he still will go to trial. He said that if an additional indictment is returned, he will ask that all counts be consolidated.

Rover said he hoped the trial would begin early next year. That would be three years since Lattimore gave the testimony that brought him into the courts.

Bunche Is Promoted

. . . To A Top U.N. Post

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold promoted Ralph Bunche Thursday to a top U. N. post and announced another million-dollar slash in the U. N. budget.

Bunche

Bunche, first American Negro to win a Nobel Peace Prize, has been principal director of the U. N. Trusteeship Division. He was cleared in June by a U. S. loyalty commission of allegations he had had Communist links.

Bunche and a Russian, Ilya S. Tchernychev, were named undersecretaries in a reorganization of the U.N. administrative setup, effective Jan. 1. They will handle jobs on assignment from Hammarskjold which may range over all departments of the U.N. and may take them to all parts of the world.

Two Others In High Spots

The reorganization keeps two other U.S. nationals in high posts. Andrew W. Cordier, former teacher from Stark County, Ohio,, and Manchester, Ind., and a veteran of the U.S. State Department, remains in the post of executive assistant to the secretary general, which he also held with Trygve Lie, first U.N. secretary general.

David Vaughan, Paducah, Ky., remains as director in charge of the Office of General Services.

Hammarskjold said the officials will be on contracts which run to the end of his term in February 1958.

Hammarskjold, a Swede, said he believed in the principle of rotating top offices in the U.N. among countries throughout the world, and indicated he could serve only one term.

Adenauer Fights French Pact Plan

Five Nations Reject Revisions Offered By Mendes-France On Europe Defense Treaty

BRUSSELS (INS)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer appeared Thursday at the Brussels conference for firm West European unity and rejected French proposals to water down the European Army Treaty.

Adenauer was joined by the foreign ministers of Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg in turning down "in their present form" the revisions submitted by French Premier Pierre Mendes-France as a necessary step toward securing French ratification of the European Defense Community Pact.

No progress was reported made at the first session of the two-day six-nation EDC conference. The ministers will meet again Friday amid indications that the parley may continue over the weekend and possibly into next week in view of the existing deadlock.

A spokesman for Adenauer said all five nations had rejected the French revisions as they stand. He said the amendments were rejected on the ground they would require new ratifications by the parliaments of the signatory countries. France and Italy are the only EDC partners which have not ratified the treaty in its present form.

The German spokesman said that Adenauer, first speaker at the session, warned the ministers that even if the French revisions were accepted at the session, they would not be approved by the parliaments of the other respective states.

Quick Solution

Adenauer further emphasized that a quick solution must be found to the West European situation since the world "cannot endure another postponement."

Adenauer was seconded by Italian Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni and by the other diplomats. Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, chairman of the session, spoke in friendly but firm support of the position taken by the majority against the French revisions.

Spaak urged during the afternoon session that if the delegates were unable to reach agreement on the revisions, they should then agree on a "declaration of intentions" to study the proposals and meet again at a future date.

Diplomatic informants said that Spaak's suggestion was not acted upon.

A participant at the opening of the six-nation EDC conference said that Adenauer, his voice shaking with emotion, warned the other nations they had come close to creating a united states of Europe and that this ideal was in danger of slipping away.

The elderly German statesman made it clear at the same time that French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's proposed revisions of the EDC treaty were unacceptable in their present form.

Mendes-France replied that he faced tremendous difficulties at home in securing parliamentary ratification of the EDC treaty, which would provide for a 500,000-man German army in the Western Allied camp.

But aside from an apparent willingness of Mendes-France to revise some of his amendments opposed by Adenauer, no results toward a compromise were achieved.

Germans Protest; Maneuver Is Off

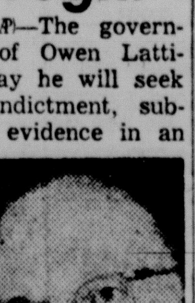
MAINZ, Germany (AP) — West German officials said Thursday 20 combat field exercises scheduled by the U. S. Army in the Rhineland Palatinate have been canceled after German protests.

Officials of Rhineland Palatinate, in the French zone, had objected on the ground the exercises would interfere with harvesting of crops, especially wheat.

In Heidelberg, Army officials emphasized that the biggest fall manuevers scheduled in the American zone are still on. The first, involving the 5th Corps, takes place Sept. 23-26 in Hesse.

Reindictment Of Lattimore To Be Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government prosecutor of Owen Lattimore said Thursday he will seek another perjury indictment, submitting additional evidence in an effort to show Lattimore lied when he testified he never promoted Communist causes.



Lattimore

The courts have thrown out, as too vague, the key charge that the Far East specialist and onetime State Department consultant lied when he swore he never was a sympathizer or promoter of Communism. Five counts of perjury—described as trivia by Lattimore's lawyers—are still pending.

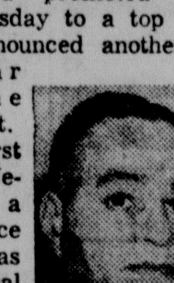
U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover, in announcing he would try for another indictment, said that whether he gets it or not he still will go to trial. He said that if an additional indictment is returned, he will ask that all counts be consolidated.

Rover said he hoped the trial would begin early next year. That would be three years since Lattimore gave the testimony that brought him into the courts.

Bunche Is Promoted

. . . To A Top U.N. Post

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold promoted Ralph Bunche Thursday to a top U. N. post and announced another million-dollar slash in the U. N. budget.



Bunche

Bunche, first American Negro to win a Nobel Peace Prize, has been principal director of the U. N. Trusteeship Division. He was cleared in June by a U. S. loyalty commission of allegations he had had Communist links.

Bunche and a Russian, Ilya S. Tchernychev, were named undersecretaries in a reorganization of the U.N. administrative setup, effective Jan. 1. They will handle jobs on assignment from Hammarskjold which may range over all departments of the U.N. and may take them to all parts of the world.

Two Others In High Spots

The reorganization keeps two other U.S. nationals in high posts. Andrew W. Cordier, former teacher from Stark County, Ohio, and Manchester, Ind., and a veteran of the U.S. State Department, remains in the post of executive assistant to the secretary general, which he also held with Trygve Lie, first U.N. secretary general.

David Vaughan, Paducah, Ky., remains as director in charge of the Office of General Services.

Hammarskjold said the officials will be on contracts which run to the end of his term in February 1958.

Hammarskjold, a Swede, said he believed in the principle of rotating top offices in the U.N. among countries throughout the world, and indicated he could serve only one term.

NOT HOW "CHEAP"
BUT HOW "GOOD"
Think this over before you buy a piano—you will no doubt have your piano a long time & if the piano you select does not have "tone quality" that will last—you will not be satisfied. 21

Munderloh Heads Rural REA Group

By SALLY ADAMS
Star Staff Writer

Officers of the new Nebraska Rural Electric Association were named at meeting several weeks ago, it was disclosed Thursday.

The movement to set up the new, rival association was disclosed in Lincoln Monday at the semi-annual meeting of the Nebraska Rural Electric Association.

Robert Munderloh of Beemer, from the Cuming County Rural Power District, is president Wesley Schutz of Columbus, Cornhusker District, is secretary and Robert Pickel of Lincoln, Norris District, is treasurer

Schutz said about 18 districts were represented at the meeting at which by-laws were drawn up and membership dues set at $25 a year. However, he said, no dues have been collected and no further course of action determined.

Thirteen districts have now indicated their intention to join the association, according to Schutz, who said he was notified Thursday that the Northeast Nebraska of Emerson, Cornhusker and Stanton County districts intended to join the new association.

John Clema executive manager of the NREA, said he has received formal notice of withdrawal from nine districts These included Burt County, Butler County, Cuming County, Dawson County, York County, North Central Nebraska of Creighton, Southern Nebraska of Beatrice, Norris of Beatrice and Howard Greeley of St Paul

In addition, the Cedar-Knox district, which has not been a member of the NREA, has joined the new group.

Three members of the old association's six-member executive committee now have pulled out along with their districts. They include Lawrence Brock of Wakefield, manager of the Northeast Nebraska district, who has resigned as vice president of the NREA.

Schultz and Lloyd Neil of the Dawson County District at Lexington were also on the executive committee. Neil had resigned before the Monday meeting. His post was filled by Ray Lowery of Oaks, director of the South Central Membership Association at Nelson.

Clema said the other two vacancies and any others which may occur will be filled at the next meeting of the executive committee.

"I don't see how the old organization can continue," Brock said He said the outcome would depend somewhat on the decision of the Eastern Nebraska Rural Public Power District of Syracuse

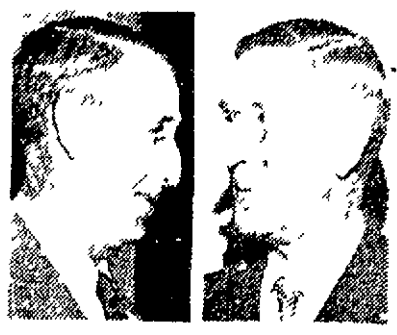
However, Clema said the NREA will continue to function.

"It has a job to do and will continue to do it," he said. "It is named in the rate resolution which is part of each rural system's contract with the Nebraska Public Power System as the agency which appoints the rural system's member to the NPPS planning board and the budget board."

In resigning from the NREA, Brock cited "undemocratic action" at Monday's meeting. He said 18 districts had requested that a power supply committee be appointed consisting of a representative of each of the 27 districts which buy power from the NPPS.

"Although the question of a special type of power supply committee was disclosed quite freely," Clema said, "it was indicated by Schutz that the pressure from his group for a 27-man power supply committee was not as great as it was a few months ago"

Clema pointed out that the power supply committee which was set up to continue under the jurisdiction of the NREA directors and executive committee was approved by a vote of 15 to 5.



Pickel Munderloh

"It was indicated that there were many problems of much interest and concern to all the rural power systems in Nebraska," he said. "Such things as Bureau of Reclamation power policies, and its construction of transmission lines, sale and disposition of Bureau power are some examples"

Clema said now that the rural power problems are being brought out into the open "the people of Nebraska are going to find out what power agencies, systems and individuals in the state are, and have been, striving to keep wholesale power costs down" not only for the rural systems but for the vast majority of the towns.

Clema said he did not know that withdrawal of the Eastern Nebraska district would have any effect on the NREA

R C Johnson of Mead, a director of the Eastern district, said, "We have taken a rather neutral position up to now" He said the board probably would discuss the situation at its regular meeting Sept 13, but that no decision had yet been made

The district, which serves about 10 per cent of the rural electric consumers in the state, contributes most of the funds to the NREA.

The 12 districts which already have withdrawn to join the new group represent about 60 per cent and five other districts, reported ready to withdraw serve another 10 per cent

There are 34 districts in the state.

Homemaking Teachers' New Group Elects

Officers of the Nebraska Homemaking Teachers Vocational Association, a new organization formed here Thursday, are (standing) Hazel Anthony of Teachers College High School, president, and (seated, left to right) Lucille Brandt of Chappell, secretary, Mrs. K. R Mitchell of Allen, treasurer, and Jean Holmes of Central City, vice president. The new group was organized at the annual Nebraska Vocational Education Conference at the Lincoln Hotel which more than 125 high school homemaking teachers are attending. Harold Duis of the State Board of Vocational Education discussed pending legislation at an afternoon session. Kenneth Cannon, assistant home economics professor at the University of Nebraska, explained a survey of family relationships which will be made by homemaking teachers in Nebraska high schools. 1st U.S. Ship Lands 1,675 Anti-Reds

SAIGON Indochina (AP) — The first American ship bearing North Viet Nam refugees to the south arrived in Saigon Thursday night in a pouring rain.

The 1,675 refugees, mostly women and children, made the trip from Haiphong aboard the U. S. Navy transport Menard. All were Roman Catholics They came from four villages of North Viet Nam

They were greeted by Vietnamese military bands.

The refugees were driven away in trucks to hospitals for check-ups and later to tents where they will be housed until permanent quarters may be arranged.

It is estimated from a few hundred thousand to a million will follow them before the Red River Delta is turned over to the Communist-led Vietminh next year.
